

Snow Falls Over Most High Roads

SALEM, Dec. 8 (AP)—The state highway commission urged motorists to use chains today in all mountain passes after a heavy snowfall over the week-end.

A foot of snow fell in the Cascade passes, with more snow expected today and tonight.

The 9 a. m. road report: Government camp—27 degrees, snowing, 12 inches new snow. Packed snow throughout entire section, plows operating.

Nantium junction—30 degrees, overcast, 12 inches new snow. Packed snow throughout district, being sanded. Twenty inches roadside snow at summit.

Odell lake, Willamette highway—25 degrees, cloudy, 12 inches new snow. Twenty-two inches roadside snow, packed snow and ice on road for 12 miles west and 10 miles east of Odell Lake post office.

Klamath Falls—1 1/2 inches of new snow, roads icy.

Sun Mountain pass, The Dalles-California highway—25 degrees, cloudy, nine inches new snow, 12 inches roadside snow, packed snow for 15 miles across summit.

Greensprings highway—26 degrees, cloudy, four inches new snow, packed snow for 10 miles across Hayden mountain.

Siskiyou summit, Pacific highway—icy, chains required.

Eugene—Packed snow on McKenry highway for 20 miles from Belknap springs junction to summit. Chains absolutely necessary.

Reds Search US Offices

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8 (AP)—Official reports that police in communist-dominated Romania searched the homes and automobiles of United States diplomatic and military officials were made public today by Senator Knowland (R-Calif.).

He said he would tell the senate that "our diplomatic and military personnel has been pushed around" in violation of ordinary diplomatic courtesy.

Knowland told reporters he first learned of the incidents on an overseas European inspection trip and that a cable from the American minister in Romania, Rudolf E. Schoenfeld, confirmed these instances.

1. Romanian "secret police" twice searched the home of a captain attached to the American military staff despite protests of the captain that his wife was "expecting an infant" and could not be disturbed.

2. A car carrying an American flag and "Secretary Ferguson of the American legation" was halted by five men, including a uniformed policeman, and Ferguson was questioned "at gun point" and then detained 20 minutes.

3. Homes of a sergeant and a lieutenant on the American military staff also were searched "by secret police."

Blaze Burns Cage, But Monkey Safe

EUGENE, Dec. 8 (AP)—Firemen reported today that a blaze started in a monkey's cage, destroyed part of the apartment around it—but didn't hurt the monkey.

The pet animal was kept in Ezra Jones' apartment. The blaze, apparently caused by a light bulb kept lit to warm the animal, burned through the cage into a wall and into the attic.

BURNED TO DEATH
FREEWATER, Ore., Dec. 8 (AP)—Lloyd E. New, Freewater, burned to death yesterday when a blaze, apparently started by blankets which touched an electric heater, swept through his trailer house.

It turned out that the Mardi Gras costume dance Friday night was quite a success, if admission figures are any indication. Several prizes were awarded for the outstanding costumes. Jim Owens presided at the announcing stand and the following persons were presented awards by him: Joyce Copeland and Ronald Daniels received the award for the best-costumed couple, dressed as a king and queen. The best dancing couple was Bill Carter and Barbara Snyder, clad in Spanish dress. Doris Ehrhardt, dressed as an Indian, walked off with the prize for the best-costumed girl, and Cowboy Joe Nichol was chosen the best-costumed boy.

An idea was presented to the student congress last Friday and discussed somewhat heatedly. The suggestion was to make it compulsory for a student to hold a student body card before he can vote on student body measures. This way, if the polling method is set up in the libraries, the student would merely show his card and proceed to vote.

Wilbur Elliot, Frances Lerosier, Margie Robinson, Dick Griffith, Cella Brown, Dale Burns and Don Paquette were voted into the membership of Script and Mike last week. An initiation for the six juniors will be a banquet at the Winema, December 12. President Rosemary Bigbie is in charge of the induction plans.

Four members of the a cappella choir compose the mixed quartet which performed at the annual Christmas program for the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club today, along with the boys' octet and a cappella choir. The members of the quartet are Catherine Blann, Rosalee Swedin, Wilbur Elliot and Roy Larson.

KUHS yearbook subscriptions go on sale tomorrow for $2.50 each. Carol Monteth is the staff member in charge of sales, in her part as business manager. The book is being printed again by Bushong of Portland in conjunction with the Smith-Bates company.

Wrong again. A slight mistake was made in Friday's column, namely, that the Girls' league Christmas assembly would be held today, when the real date is Friday, December 12. It is hoped that story-teller Mrs. Lucille O'Neill or any other participants in the assembly were not startled by this item.

Water Main Breaks In Portland

PORTLAND, Dec. 8 (AP)—A 12-inch water main on Portland's East Side broke last night, and the spewing water lifted 400 square feet of pavement, excavated several yards of ground, and stirred up sediment in other lines.

Householders reported roily water coming from their faucets, the city health officer advised residents of the immediate area to boil their water. Repairs were completed and the water declared safe for drinking this morning.

MARRIED
BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Dec. 8 (AP)—Songstress Helen Forrest was married at Beverly Vista Community church yesterday to Actor Paul Holsahan. The newlyweds, each 27, said they would have to defer their honeymoon.

The silver sword plant is found in only one place in the world, on the side of Haleakala crater, in Hawaii.
