

Legion Bazaar Held At Malin Saturday

MALIN—The annual fancy work bazaar and cooked food sale of the American Legion auxiliary, unit #4 of Malin, was held Saturday, December 6. In charge was Ethel Roberts assisted by Martha Brothmanek, Norma Petrasak, Helen Loosley and Hazel Kalina.

Members met in regular session Monday evening, December 2, in the Malin church. Martha Brothmanek, chairman of the "Gifts for the Yanks Who Gave" project, asked that members have their dirty bags turned in along with other donations this week.

The membership quota has been reached. Chairman Irene Freitag announced. Grace Stephens made a report on the Armistice Day supper.

Mrs. Ila Bunge will be in charge of the entertainment at the December meeting, and hostesses will be Helen Loosley, Martha Brothmanek and Anna Petrasak.

Present at the meeting were Martha Brothmanek, Irene Freitag, Irene Freitag, Anna Petrasak, Grace Stephens, Ethel Roberts, Emma Fairclough, Ila Bunge, Abbie Herringshaw, Helen Loosley, Leah Street, Nettie Pierce, Emma Wilde and Norma Petrasak.

The Legion post joined the auxiliary for refreshments after the business meeting.

Luncheon

On Tuesday, December 2, the Past Noble Grand club of Prosperity Rebekah lodge met for a potluck luncheon in the IOOF hall, followed by a business meeting and election of officers.

Esther Mast was elected president, Stella Dryden, first vice president, Margaret Ward, second vice president, and Lucille Helfer, secretary-treasurer.

On the visiting committee for Klamath Valley hospital were named Jennie Hurn and Elizabeth Pansky, and for Hillsdale hospital, Adah Willis and Lucille Helfer.

For the Christmas dinner and party on December 10, which will be held jointly with the Rebekah Social club, Esther Mast, Nellie Wattenburg, Ada Sparretorn and Jennie Hurn will be members of the committee for arrangements, and for the meeting on January 6, the hostesses will be Martha Baker and Vera Clemmens.

New Officers

Mrs. Roy Whytal was elected to head the Wednesday club at elections held at the group's regular meeting, December 3, in the parish hall of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Serving with Mrs. Whytal will be Mrs. A. J. Lambert, vice president; Mrs. Frank Tarr, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. L. S. Lolama, church counselor.

Outgoing officers are Mrs. R. O. Sprout, president; Mrs. Roy Whytal, vice president, and Mrs. Jack Krannberg, secretary-treasurer. Members presented Mrs. Sprout with a gift in appreciation of her work during the year. On the hostess committee for the meeting were Mrs. Orville Hamilton, Mrs. Clancy Canine, Mrs. Bob Erlanson, Mrs. Bert Vaagen and Mrs. Erma McVey.

Poster Contest

BONANZA—The regular business meeting of the Bonanza Women's club was held at the library December 2. Florence Horn, president, directed the meeting.

The club sponsored a poster contest for the sixth grade under the supervision of Norma Lou McAbee.

Cash prizes were awarded to Neida Hale, first; Leon Roberts, second, and George Bray, third. Honorable mention went to Delbert Settle, Bobby Walker, Tod Evert, Marilyn Markham and Carol Lou Weatherby.

Club members planned their annual Christmas party to be held at the library December 16. Each member will bring a Christmas stocking with an exchange gift inside. The cost will be between 50 and 75 cents. Hostesses for the party will be Esther Brown, Sally Gourley and Lillian Becholdt.

AT THE RECEPTION which followed their Thanksgiving Day wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Boals of Merrill. Before her marriage Mrs. Boals was Carol Lee Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Reeves, also of Merrill. From left are Ruthie Peterson, maid of honor, the bride and groom, and Virginia Reeves, sister of the bride and bridesmaid.
