Klamathites Light Up Residences

Christmas lighting in the residential district was appearing this week as residents perked up at the request of the Junior chamber of commerce, sponsor group of the holiday project.

Al Longie is general chairman of the lighting contest and assisted by Everett Ball, Jaycee. Active participation is urged by all home owners and judging will take place two nights before December 23, night of the big community Christmas program on Motoc field. This is also Jaycee sponsored. Names of the winners will be announced that night.

Recruit training in the navy is now 12 weeks. After this 12 weeks training a man is given 12 days leave to visit his home before being assigned to a trade school or a ship for duty.

Gralapp Is Honor Guest

The Trades and Industries club, composed of members of Klamath Union high school vocational trainees, dedicated their seventh annual banquet in honor of Arnold Gralapp, superintendent of schools, who since the inauguration of the program in Klamath Falls, has been one of the most active supporters of vocational education in Oregon.

"We feel that it is through your tireless efforts that this type of training has been made available to us," said Dwight Weatherby, toastmaster of the evening.

The banquet is given annually by the trades and industry students of the high school in honor of their employers and the Klamath Falls apprenticeship council for the purpose of fostering closer relationship.

Special tribute was given to Donald Stroud when Ralph W. Waggoner, chairman of the Klamath Falls apprenticeship council, presented him with a state apprenticeship completion certificate in his trade.

The banquet was prepared by Mrs. Paul O. Landry, supervisor of Klamath Falls laundry, caterer, and her staff.

The vocational education department in Klamath Falls is directed by Harold A. Teale. Robert P. Craig is coordinator of trades and industry and sponsors this group.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Razin' to Go

The liver should pour out about 2 pints of bile juice into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

It takes those mild, gentle Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills, 35¢ at any drugstore.

K. S. Bolander To Visit Here

Karl S. Bolander, national director of scholastic art awards and national lecturer for the American Artists league, will be in Klamath Falls Thursday and Friday, at which time he is scheduled for several appearances.

Bolander will speak to members of the Klamath Art association at a meeting slated for Thursday at 8 p. m. in the offices of Sheldon Brumbaugh at Pine Grove on the Lakeview highway. Brumbaugh's office is the former Pine Grove school-house and all members are asked to attend. The meeting was previously slated for Friday night but has been advanced to Thursday; members are advised.

On Friday at 9 a. m., Bolander will speak to all seventh and eighth graders at an assembly in the KUHHS auditorium. Children will be brought by bus to hear Bolander who will give a second lecture that morning at 10 a. m. to all Fremont students.

Atom Plant Talks Continue

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., Dec. 10 (AP)—A negotiations meeting begun yesterday morning continued into the early hours today without interruption as company and CIO union officials sought to agree on a new labor contract for 3000 CIO workers at an atomic energy plant here.

Although a strike threat was withdrawn Monday by the union at the request of the federal mediation and conciliation service in Washington, officials of local 288 of the United Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers union and Carbide and Carbon
