Seabury To Speak Here

"How To Worry Successfully" is the entertaining subject which will be used by Dr. David Seabury, author of many books, who will address the Knife and Fork club Friday, 6:45 p. m. at the Willard.

The deadline for dinner reservations is Thursday and they may be made with Fred Southwell, club secretary.

Besides the book by the same name of the subject of his talk, Dr. Seabury has written "What Makes Us Seem So Queer?," "Unmasking Our Minds," "Growing Into Life," "Help Yourself To Happiness," and "How Jesus Heals Our Minds Today."

"Modern psychology is beginning to show how people have neglected the factors most important in helping them attain their aim," says Dr. Seabury, "divorce, neurosis, nervous breakdown and the increase of insanity, are among the ominous results of this neglect."

A. A. Soule Is Toastmaster

Dr. A. A. Soule was the toastmaster of the evening at the regular meeting of Toastmasters club held Wednesday at the Willard hotel. Bill Owens acted as general critic and Joe Laclair as table topic chairman. Howard Holt started off the speaking program on the timely subject, "Are These Our Children," followed by Ted Lind giving the "Gifts for Yanks Who Gave" program. Clarence Linn spoke on "The Natural Law," after which Ted Hansen told us "There Ought To Be a Law." To complete the program George Kunzman spoke on "The Greatest Internal Menace to a Democracy" and Mark Poll on "One Man's Opinion."

The program for next week, December 17, will be headed by Dr. M. E. Cooper as toastmaster, Bill Elliott as general critic, and Clark Fryatt as table topic chairman. There will be two 10-minute speeches, one by Scotty Johnston and one by Jack Robbins. Five-minute speeches will be given by Stan Pade, Carl Wildermuth and Jack Elliott.

British-Reds OK Trade Pact

LONDON, Dec. 11 (AP)—The British board of trade announced today that agreement had been reached on all the main points of a British-Soviet trade pact, now under discussion in Moscow.

J. Harold Wilson, British board of trade president who returned from Moscow talks yesterday, reported to Prime Minister Attlee today on the negotiations. He is expected to make a statement in the house of commons later.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, reported earlier today that agreement had been reached on all main points.

British experts in Moscow will work out the details of the pact under the direction of Sir Maurice Peterson, Britain's ambassador to the USSR.

PONTIAC
A fine car made finer

A Product of General Motors

Meets all your requirements!

To be of the utmost usefulness, a car must be capable of doing many things. And owners say that Pontiac is the greatest "all-purpose" car being built today.

It is big and beautiful—which means that it can be driven anywhere, even on the most formal occasions, with pride and confidence.

It is rugged, strong and dependable—which means it can be put to the hardest daily usage, with a minimum of upkeep expense.

It is safe, comfortable and easy to handle—which means it is an ideal car for touring and long distance driving.

And it is remarkably economical. In fact, all things considered, no car is easier on the pocketbook of the owner.

Since you can get this amazing combination of virtues in a single automobile—it is something you ought to consider in your next car.
