First Presbyterian Slates Pre-Christmas Programs

A number of special events before Christmas mark the calendar of the First Presbyterian church, 6th and Pine streets.

The young people are participating in a "Westminster" Fellowship rally at 11 a. m. this Sunday. An excellent program is planned under the advisement of the Rev. Francis Chambers of Tulelake. The meeting begins at 4 p. m. and lasts through dinner and into the evening.

At 7:30 p. m., Sunday, the pastor's adult communicants' class will meet. The discussion will center around "The Forgiveness of Sins."

The Women's association will hold its Christmas meeting in the church basement on Thursday, December 18, at 2:15 p. m. Included on the program will be devotions by Mrs. David Barnett; vocal duets by Marie Casjens and John Crosby, and a Christmas story by Mrs. Victor O'Neill. Hostesses for the social time which will follow the program are Mrs. Melvin Fitzpatrick and Mrs. J. S. Biele.

The choir is preparing several fine songs and anthems to be presented at the celebration of Christmas on Sunday, December 21, at the morning worship hour.

Also on Sunday, the 21st, at 4 p. m., the children and youth of the Sunday school will present a Christmas program. Included on the program will be a short play entitled, "Worship the King." Mrs. Paul Tanner is in charge of arrangements for the program.

A nursery is conducted during the morning worship hour each week. Parents are asked to bring infants in their bassinets or buggies.

Church To Hold Pot Luck

Services on Sunday morning at Community Congregational church begin with the Sunday school assembly at 9:45, under the supervision of Mrs. Kenneth E. Lambie. Time will be taken to rehearse the Christmas carols for the pageant which will be presented on the evening of Sunday, December 21.

At 11 o'clock the service of morning prayer and sermon will be conducted by the minister, Rev. Godfrey Matthews. The liturgy and the choral parts of the service will be led by the chapel choir, conducted by Mrs. Henry W. Moore. Mrs. Marie Casjens will play the organ accompaniments.

At 6:30 p. m. the regular monthly potluck supper and meeting of the fellowship group will be held. Mrs. Loyal P. List and Mrs. Kenneth E. Lambie are hostesses.

Visitors and strangers in Klamath Falls are cordially welcomed to the church.

Ivory Pine Sunday School To Meet

The Ivory Pine Sunday school at Bly will present its Christmas program at the community building Sunday at 3 p. m. The Rev. S. M. Topness will conduct services following the program. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

New LDS Church At Tulelake

The new Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, located in Tulelake, will be completed next spring. Two others, one at Macdoel and one at Lakeview, are also under construction. The Tulelake church will provide for a sanctuary, four large classrooms, a social hall, relief society room and kitchen. Services and other meetings are now held at the homes of members. In the foreground are, from left Don Webster, president of the branch; Wayne Mayfield, clerk; Elder Frank Webster, in charge of construction; Elder Wayne Herschi and Elder Wayne Errington. Elders not shown who are also assisting with the building are Theodore Smith and Gail Saunders.

will speak on, "What We Are Attempting To Do for the Youth of Klamath County," and there will be introduction and remarks by Ronald R. Hewitt, Klamath county juvenile officer. A vocal selection will be sung by Mrs. Henry Moore accompanied by Mrs. M. L. Shepherd.

Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg will be introduced and is scheduled to speak briefly with the principal address of the evening to be given by Gerald W. Mason, vice chairman of the national youth guidance committee. Fraternal Order of Eagles, Mason will also present a plaque to Judge Vandenberg. He will use as his address theme, "Is It Really Juvenile Delinquency?"

The response will be given by Rev. Phillips with closing remarks and the benediction by the Rev. Timothy Casey of Sacred Heart church.

THEIR TEETH GROW

The incisor teeth of a rodent continue to grow throughout the animal's lifetime, and must be kept worn down by usage. In one case, an incisor of a woodchuck grew too long, pierced the skull, and curled into two complete spirals.

Children's Day Slated

"Children's Day" will be observed at Klamath Lutheran church on Sunday, December 14. The Rev. S. M. Topness, pastor, will preach on the theme, "Children of the Kingdom." The junior choir will sing, "To Bethlehem," by Keating, and the senior choir will sing, "O Saviour of the World," by John Goss. A special invitation is extended to members of the Sunday school, parents and friends to attend the morning worship.

The Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m., 15 minutes earlier than usual, to practice for the Christmas program to be given on Sunday, December 21, at 4:30 p. m.

The Boy Scouts, with Dr. Robert Huntington as Scoutmaster, meet every Monday at 7 p. m. The Sunday school teachers and officers will have their Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Service To Start At 11

The morning worship service at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10th and Washington, will be held at 11 o'clock with the topic of the lesson-sermon for the day, "God, the Preserver of Man."

P Sunday school will be held at 11 a. m. The Sunday school and worship service, held at the same hour for the first time last week, proved very successful, and will be continued. Sunday school is held downstairs while the regular service is on the main floor.

The Golden Text will be "He that dwelleth in secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." (Ps. 91:1). Among the Bible citations will be "The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms." (Deut. 33:27).

Jacobson At First Covenant

"Christ, the Sun of Righteousness" is the sermon to be given by Pastor S. T. Jacobson at the First Covenant church, 823 Walnut, at the 11 a. m. worship service Sunday. All are welcome to attend and enjoy this pre-Christmas service.

The Sunday school hour commences at 10 a. m. Classes are conducted for all ages, including the adults. Every member of our school is urged to be present so preparations for the Christmas program can be carried out. The program is to be held on Sunday, December 21, at 7:30 p. m.

The Fellowship hour is at 7:45 p. m. The pastor will speak on "Christ, the Satisfying Portion" with Psalm 22 as the text.
