

Pelicans Top Pioneers As Grant Loses

Astoria Upends Generals 22 to 19 In Tourney Upset

The abrupt upending of the Grant Generals last night by a surprising group of Fishermen from Astoria left the Klamath Pelicans the sole surviving undefeated quintet in the invitational basketball tourney being conducted on the floor of the KUHS gym.

Grant was spilled 22 to 19 in their tight struggle with Astoria, while the Pel was fashioned a 45-35 win over Oregon City. Grant had been tabbed as the power of the tourney, but both Astoria and Oregon City showed 100 per cent improvement last night over their Thursday performances.

The schedule for tonight puts Astoria and Oregon City in the first game, starting at 7:30, with Grant and Klamath in the finale.

Grant's Generals led their game with Astoria all the way last night, except for the part which counted—the last three minutes—and in the first quarter were in front by six points.

Late in the fourth period Duane Hansen tapped in a shot by Doug Logie to tie the count at 19-19, and Bob Kittelson drew a foul shot which put Astoria in the lead. With three minutes remaining on the clock, the Fishermen went into a stall, but Logie controlled a jump ball and tipped in another two-pointer for the final score.

The last two minutes were a complete stall with Astoria three times taking the ball out of bounds rather than risk losing the ball on a free throw. The Generals were in such a dither to get possession they concentrated three men on the Astoria ball-handler in an effort to shake loose a bad pass. But couldn't.

Grant had used a zone defense which seemed to stymie the Fishermen for the first quarter, but they learned to rush the defense and break its effectiveness.

The Pelicans marched over Oregon City 45 to 35 in the nightcap, despite the best effort of Forward Don Hoffman, who counted 17 points for Oregon City.

Hoffman took the lead for the Pioneers but Bob Barnes quickly recovered for the Pel with a free throw and a push-in two-pointer. By the end of the first period Klamath led 8-5.

The second period was a nip-up with the score being tied three occasions, but Jack Lust, Don Zarosinski and Gary Dawes put the Pelicans on the long end of 20-16 at halftime.

From then on the issue wasn't in doubt and the Pel fast break really got to clicking in the third period. Coach Wayne Scott team-substituted and Oregon City also called in a full new team. Klamath held a 10-point lead through most of the third and fourth periods.

Whittler And Pal Trounce Davidson, Dusette In Tag

The meanies beat out—and up—the cleanies at last night's grapple contest in the armory when the power team of Whittler and Al Williams took a two-fall decision over Georges Dusette and his partner, Buck Davidson.

Strategy was the main point of the first minutes of the tag team match, with Whittler and Williams taking turns making strong-man Dusette break holds and wear himself down. The first fall came along about twenty minutes after the no-time-limit match opened when Whittler and Williams used a switching arm lock on Davidson—in their corner—to cop the fall. Only after the state police had been forced to warn Whittler, however, for climbing into the ring to help out his nervous partner.

Dusette came out of his corner after the bell to put a quick squeeze on Whittler and even things up by slugging the Swede into a daze and then putting a full nelson on him that couldn't be broken.

Hawaiian Grid Champs Court Hoosegow Stay

HONOLULU, Dec. 13 (AP)—The star halfback of the Pacific Coast league professional football champion Hawaiian Warriors, 13 teammates and an ex-teammate will appear in district court today to answer a charge of betting on themselves in a game that brought them the title.

Halfback Melvin Abreau, Honolulu, the league's leading ground gainer who was named his team's most valuable player, and the others are charged with "betting on an athletic contest," conviction of which carries a maximum penalty of $1000 fine and a year in jail.

The 15 huskies appeared at police headquarters nervous and subdued yesterday and made bonds ranging from $50 to $100 each.

Detective Captain Eugene Kennedy, who began an investigation Tuesday, signed the charges alleging they pooled $6700 of their own money to bet on last Sunday's title-deciding game with the Los Angeles Bulldogs.

Kennedy said they bet they would lead the Bulldogs by seven points at the end of the half and would win the game by 14 points. They won the first part of the bet, he added, but the bulk of their money was lost when the final score was 7 to 6.

Kennedy, emphasizing there was no evidence of bribery, spent most of the afternoon with other detectives viewing motion pictures of the game.

Coach Keith Molesworth heard about the betting incident two days after the game and laid the story before the Warriors' board of directors. The directors called in the police.

Earlier, however, Molesworth said he had remarked that his team after their victory "were the unhappiest looking bunch of champions I ever saw."

could not match the height and speed of Coach Art McLarney's squad, trailing almost from the opening gun. Jack Nichols, rangy Washington center, took scoring honors with 12 points.

Idaho's Vandals racked up their fifth triumph in seven starts by turning back the Portland university Pilots, 53-39, in a game at Moscow. Portland led at the half, 24-23, but could not keep up with the Vandals' second period spurt.

Jack Winters, Pilot center, was high point man with 14, followed by his rival pivot man, Jack Phoenix, with 12.

The Cougars of WSC were forced to come from behind to defeat a stubborn Pacific Lutheran team, 50-44. The invading Lutes, on the short end of the 25-23 halftime score, jumped into the lead at the start of the second period and stayed out in front until the Cougars knotted the count at 43-41 with less than five minutes to play.

Harry McLaughlin of PLC was the game's standout performer with 18 points.

Central Washington college, one of the Northwest's highest-gearred clubs, ran roughshod over the touring Willamette Bearcats, 72-53, at Ellensburg. The victory was Central's second of the season over the Salem outfit. In a battle for scoring honors Jim Johnson, Willamette center, looped in 23 points to nose out Guard Dean Nicholson of Central with 22.

O'Connell said that the Owls might be hampered by the loss of Paul Dilley, his regular starting center, who sprained an ankle in their first game.

Runaround

Jersey Joe Walcott is now charging that Joe Louis is giving him the brushoff in the matter of their projected June championship fight. Louis is now talking of Gus Lesnevich as a foe.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13 (AP)—A new Joe Louis-Jersey Joe Walcott battle was building up to an impasse today in the negotiations for a return bout between the champion and the challenger.

Injecting a new note in the controversy over the split decision Jersey Joe lost to Louis a week ago, this latest development grew out of a war of words across 8th avenue.

Shortly after Louis indicated at a press conference in the Twentieth Century club that light heavyweight Titleholder Gus Lesnevich might be an acceptable opponent for Joe's "last bout," Walcott charged that he was being given the "brushoff."

Louis, apparently mindful of earlier warnings from the Walcott camp that Jersey Joe would be satisfied with nothing less than a 30 per cent cut from a return match, raised the Lesnevich angle.

Deriding Walcott by claiming that Lesnevich was a "more dangerous" puncher, Louis intimated that Gus had at least as good a chance as Walcott of getting the title shot.

The champion insisted, however, that it was the promoter's job and not his to make the matches.

In his hotel opposite the Twentieth Century offices, Walcott retorted: "Louis has always been a great sportsman and a great champion. Now I have my doubts."

"I'm not out for revenge," explained Louis. "Walcott had his chance; he ran away. I didn't prefer to fight Walcott again; fact is, I'd prefer him because Lesnevich is the more dangerous puncher. If he had me in the same spot as Walcott did he'd knock me out, for Lesnevich would have known what to do with me, but Walcott didn't."

Then Joe added: "I'd rather fight the one who draws the most money. I must get 40 per cent in June. I don't care what per cent the challenger gets, that's up to the promoter."

Lesnevich let it be known in no uncertain terms last summer that he wanted no part of a fight with Louis. Cliffside Gus was mentioned at that time as one of the most likely contenders for the heavyweight crown, but he insisted that he was quite satisfied with the light heavyweight title alone.

FOUR GRIDIRON BOWL GAMES RUNNING TODAY

By The Associated Press
The Missouri Valley Vikings will be seeking their 21st consecutive football victory today when they meet McMurry college in the first annual Boys' Ranch bowl game at Abilene, Tex., one of the four post-season college football contests on today's schedule.

Winners in all of their 10 starts this year, the Vikings have been unbeaten in a little more than three years to play. McMurry, co-champion of the Texas conference, won seven games, lost two and tied one during the regular season.

Two of the nation's strongest junior college teams—the Tyler Aggies and the Compton (Calif.) Tartars—meet at Tyler, Tex., in the first Texas Rose bowl game.

The Aggies won all of their 10 starts while Compton lost only a 14-13 decision in 10 outings in regular scheduled play.

Pasadena and Lodi, Calif., are host to the two other bowl games today.

At Pasadena, the Cameron (Okla.) Aggies tangle with Claffey J. C. (Ontario, Calif.) in the Little Rose Bowl while at Lodi, the College of the Pacific and Utah State clash in the first Grape Bowl game.

The Aggies finished their season unbeaten in 10 starts while Chaffey lost only one out of 10 games.

Champions of the California Collegiate Athletic association, the College of the Pacific piled up 311 points in winning eight out of nine games while Utah State gained only 22 wins in 16 starts.

Nearly 100,000 fans are expected to see the four games with an estimated 60,000 expected to witness the Little Rose Bowl tilt at Pasadena.

Wildcats Down Antlers, 39-36
BONANZA, Dec. 13.—Bonanza's Antlers were downed by the KU Wildcats 39-36 last night in an exciting basketball game which christened the new Bonanza gymnasium.

Coach Hal McAbey's squad showed vast improvement over previous scrimmages, with lanky Dennis Davis, center for Bonanza, outshooting the field for 20 points. Doegue of the Cats counted 11. Defensively, the Antlers' Elwood Dye was the sparkplug.
