

Klamath Couple Are Wed In Home Rites

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Smith was the scene of the wedding of their daughter, Avis Loola, who became the bride of W. Roy Culley, on Sunday, November 30, at 3 o'clock in a ceremony read by the Rev. Cecil C. Brown of the First Baptist church.

Vows were exchanged before an arch beautifully draped with white silk veiling. Centering the arch were three silver wedding bells tied with white satin ribbon and on either side were tall baskets of white chrysanthemums.

Wayne Smith, uncle of the bride, played "Always" and "I Love You Truly," as well as the wedding march just preceding the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she chose an afternoon frock of pale blue crepe, trimmed with silver sequins and beads. She wore a silver sequin Juliet cap with black veiling which was held in place by a row of white carnations. Her bouquet was a nosegay with a white orchid in the center. She also carried a white prayer book which was a gift of the bridegroom's mother.

Her only attendant was a cousin, Betty Gaylord, of Vallejo, Calif. She wore a bright blue dress trimmed with sequins, with a small brown hat. Her corsage was of tallman roses. Laurel Hines, brother of the groom was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith chose a suit of pale pink with black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Culley, mother of the bridegroom, wore a suit of rose color, and her corsage was also of gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride and groom cut the first piece of their wedding cake, which was later served alone with a buffet luncheon.

Those attending the wedding from out-of-town were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Craig of Bieber, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bode and son, Bobbie, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hawkins, also of Bieber, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Gaylord and daughters, Betty and Bonnie of Vallejo, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anglade of Lake Tahoe, and Wayne Smith of Coquille.

The newlyweds left the next day for a week's honeymoon in Northern California. They are now at home in Klamath Falls.

CUTTING THEIR wedding cake are Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Gene Smith. Mrs. Smith is the former Margaret Mae Guimon of this city. The two were married at Sacred Heart church Tuesday December 2.

Martha Shops and Shops for Christmas

LaPointe's

Gave Martha some last-minute suggestions for tardy shoppers and among these are a couple of new arrivals in the glove department that you may want to supply yourself with, if you've been looking for something with swank for impending social occasions.

A genuine kid glove, made in Czechoslovakia, has a fetching turned-down white cuff to set off its blackness. And a rich black leather with a leather palm has a flaring, turn-down cuff to which jeweled clips can be added for evening wear.

The handbag selection is still good and in it are beautiful catkins of the finest quality in brown or black. Finest studies in appealing shapes and handsome red python bags that provide an extra special gift.

LAPOINTE'S 507 Main carry an extensive assortment of hosiery in this season's dark, slimming shades. Among outstanding names you'll recognize in this department are Round the Clock, Archer, Nolde, Majud, and, of course, the famous LaPointe's super sheer 15 denier nylons!

The Candy Jar

with all its delectable sweets is a busy spot these days, and some of the newest items received just this week were barely unpacked before being whisked away by eager shoppers.

Many of these tempting arrivals are unusual, adding to their gift value such as Rum and Brand's Fruited Macaroons in pound tins, Sara Lee's Pure Coconut Macaroons, the old-fashioned type, the Reese Florentine a la France, packaged Christmas fruit cookies which were re-ordered at the request of some who tried them last year and found them delicious.

Reserving a shelf of attention are the Imported Lingonberry Preserves, blended by Scandinavian, the Burgundy, Port and Sherry Wine Jellies, ideal gifts for food fanciers, Branded Cherry Toppings, the versatile Jelly-Preserves sets, packed six or nine jars to a festive box, or in clever breakfast carts.

The commodious Varigated Baskets that can be filled with any items you choose, are now obtainable at the PELICAN CANDY JAR 722 Main.

Jewel and Gift Shop

provided a pleasant surprise to this week's shopping by presenting a brand new selection of rhinestone jewelry on Martha and the fabulous matched sets are sensational. Diamond-cut stones, imported from Czechoslovakia, are set in prongs, without any waste being used, adding to their lustre and sparkle.

The snafoken necklace of one set has a detachable pendant that double as a lapel pin. Perfect for wear with daring evening frocks. Also included in the set are earrings and a glittering bracelet. Other rhinestone necklaces, hair barrettes or pins can be purchased separately.

Of interest to those who have difficulty with keeping on earrings are the new type, made with a lobe screw that adjusts automatically.

An improvement that was figured out scientifically, in case that means anything. In this assortment at JEWEL AND GIFT SHOP, 519 Main, an S and H Green Stamp trading center, are sterling or gold-filled ear ornaments set with various stones.

Pine Street Market

is still receiving holiday items that are in demand for year-end entertaining, and foremost in this week's arrivals are Pine-Sea Appetizers, in small jars for individual servings, containing oysters, shrimp or crab meat. . . . Monarch's Anchovy Paste for cocktail crackers, delicious Whole Spiced Crab Apples like grandmother made. . . . Apple Black Eye Peas, bearing the Yacht Club label, first time Martha's ever seen this vegetable put up in tins.

Electrical Extension Cords for irons or plug-ins, which have been extremely hard to find, are now available at the Market in a variety of lengths, and the shipment is most timely in view of the fact that such cords are nearly always necessary for Christmas lighting.

PINE STREET MARKET, corner of Seventh and Pine, has a complete selection of holiday nuts on which prices are a bit more reasonable than last year. . . . and extra fancy Texas pink grapefruit are beginning to arrive in quantity again. S and H Green Stamps are given with all grocery purchases, remember.

Fyock-Moon, Inc.

The General Electric store sandwiched between Main and Klamath on Ninth, is a veritable treasure house of utilitarian gifts, and lots of them are definitely in the moderate price range, too. Because of numerous inquiries about clocks, Martha especially looked over the GE selection of self-starting types for the mantel, kitchen or bedroom. . . . among them a handsome desk clock in a square leather frame that would be a splendid gift for Dad.

Regrettably, I can't even whisper about pop-up toasters or waffle irons yet. . . . but other items on the shortage list a long time, are plentiful. . . . electric razors, all the best makes. . . . coffee makers of metal or glass. . . . Wear-Ever Pressure Cookers or Revere Ware pans and kettles. . . . foot warmers or heating pads, a thoughtful gift for Mom. . . . an electric corn popper for the family. . . . the famous Fluit hollow ground carving sets. . . . that you'll find those beautiful General Electric console radios with automatic record players and there's a dandy, but inexpensive model for the kids' room. . . . for only $24.45.

which by the way, has a particularly attractive background for its holiday window that shouldn't be overlooked. . . . has a splendid assortment of attire that please a woman. . . . From veritable creations in little pocket handies to luxurious robes and negligees that convey your Christmas sentiments in a big way!

There's a nice selection of Ballet-style shirts right now, which fashion-wise are the cleverest half-slips so much in demand, as well as gorgeous satin slips, enhanced by lace edgings and beguiling some which have been in high favor for gifts this season. Flattering costume jewelry and satiny metal compacts have been getting their share of attention.

but had you thought about the matching suede bags and vests in an eye-catching patchwork pattern?

The Town Shop

can save the menfolk a lot of worry and effort because there's just about anything she wants or likes in personal gifts, and in the lingerie department, one of the largest, are numerous lovely Marthas hasn't seen before. . . . such as saucy little brunch coats of quilted nylon fabric, and lounging sets of nylon with pajamas and shortie robe.

These are only one type of the many scrumptious hostess gowns, negligee ensembles or warm, toasty robes found here. . . . but with so much to buy, we must fit along to the "antwear bar" that features the prettiest of slips, gowns, half-slips and pajamas in flower patterns. Then, there are the wonderful Laros intimates. . . . a Town Shop exclusive, including tailored or lace-bedeked slips in white-satin and pastels, with matching gowns, short negligees and party frocks for making up. . . . there's about everything. . . . but most impressive are the California saddle leathers, handsome and long-wearing again available as before the war in black and dark brown, stitched or plain.

Greeting you at the door is a glittering array of costume jewelry. . . . but notice especially the rhinestone collection containing the latest creations in pendants and other decorative pieces for ears, throat or hand.

Wootly suggestions for Daughter dear who never has enough clothes, are the latest in Balletina skirts, black, brown or pastels. . . . colorful Jantzen sweaters or the angoras by Estabrook or a gift from the complete lines in riding togs and ski apparel, if she's a sports enthusiast.

There's ever so much more to expound over, but not nearly enough space. . . . however, hosiery is always gratefully received. . . . and THE TOWN SHOP, Main at Fifth, has plenty of nylons from the sheerest sheers to 40 deniers. . . . in No Mend, Kayser, Strutwear or Cameo. . . . all quality hosiery!

Your Store

received a shipment of Cascade ware from the Jaska Pottery not long ago that Martha's been anxious to tell about. . . . it's so completely different and cheerful in coloring. . . . but the supply was too limited. However, Virtua, who presides over china and glasswares on the mezzanine, announced this week that this distinctive dinner ware will soon be open stock.

Jaska Pottery distinguished by artful form ornamentation and unusual designs, is now available in complete sets of yellow and brown or rose and brown combinations. . . . plus a novel acorn centerpiece for tapers, mounted jar tea and coffee pots of matching pottery. . . . and in each place setting are plates of three sizes. A wonderful gift for Mother at Christmas. . . . or for a bride!

The mezzanine department of YOUR STORE, Inc., 721 Main, is featuring several glassware specialties that make useful, inexpensive gifts and tray for $2.50. For an extra gift touch fill the glasses with marmalades or preserves. And, for only a dollar, you can get a set of six old-fashioned with muddlers. . . . or six "shot" glasses on a tray. . . . or the combination offer of six "shots" and six old-fashioned.

Modernistic Beauty Shop

has still more gifts this week for flurried Christmas shoppers. . . . combination compacts of oblong plastic, cleverly designed and small in size, which include a cigarette case, lighter, flashlight, lipstick and powder compartment, which must have taken some ingenuity to crowd so many conveniences into one case. There is no tax, either!

As Martha mentioned last week, the cosmetic bar at Modernistic has a wide assortment of handy and inexpensive remembrances in the beauty line for holiday giving. . . . and another gadget added to the list is a gold-plated Lipstick Mirror that fits any case.

Among the complete Dermetics line of cosmetics featured by MODERNISTIC BEAUTY SHOP, 914 Klamath, are the compact travel kits of simulated leather, adequately fitted with all skin essentials. . . . and again I'm reminding you that GIFT CERTIFICATES are obtainable here for merchandise or any beauty work.

Hold "Open House"

will hold "open house" on Wednesday afternoon, December 17th, from 1 until 4 o'clock when all women of the community are invited to call and view the attractive results of the modernizing and re-decorating project that's been under way the past two months or more. Flower favors will be given to all visitors. . . . and tea will be served.

This is an event long anticipated by the beauty shop's personnel. . . . Anona, Fern, Olive, Steve. . . . and Dorothy Shimmers Hoover, a new member of the staff who's now book-keeping appointments at STUDIO OF BEAUTY, on the mezzanine of WHYTA's. A new entrance way has been completed through room 200. . . . on the second floor of the Medical-Dental building.

Whyta's adorable Blossom for giving away. . . . or for giving a lift to a jaded outfit through festive days ahead. . . . and among newest arrivals in these are several true Gibson Girl styles. . . . still leading in popularity.

The cute red and white pin-check rayon, with puffed yoke, collar and wide tight cuffs. . . . can't be hanging around long. Neither will the candy striped cottons or chambrays with their showy white collars and cuffs.

New blouses come in regularly at Whyta's and among a few of the latest are a beautiful white crepe in which a yoke of heavy lace, dotted here and there by brilliants, is inserted in the jewelry neckline. . . . and a long-sleeved, cascade brown crepe, sleeves laced, highlighted by pearl buttons.

Among the high shades, there's a scarlet crepe with buttoned-cuff long sleeves, a Peter Pan collar and an overlapping scalloped yoke to detract from its severity. Fine quality, rayon jerseys in many colors stand forth in the array of glitter blouses to top off long black skirts. . . . and in direct contrast is the large selection of youthful, inexpensive white crepes of which your teen-age daughter never seems to have enough.

The supply of these deluxe Cash-ang sweaters, including cardigans or shapovers with long or short sleeves. . . . in the sportswear department of WHYTA'S, in the Medical-Dental building, Main at Ninth. . . . Christmas demands. . . . but the assortment is still adequate in white or delicate pastels.

A thoughtful accompaniment to a sweater gift are several pair of the Bonnie Doo anklets in a matching shade of angora, nylon, cotton or all-wood. . . . an exclusive at Whyta's.

can settle the quandary just like that of what to buy for a gift exchange on which cost is limited! A box of soap, why not? For certainly anyone has plenty of use for this. . . . and there's a certain aura of luxury surrounding nice soap. . . . even at one or two dollars a box.

In the wide variety of gift soaps Martha saw at CURRY'S, corner of Ninth and Main, are Helena Rubinstein's Angel Cakes for the complexion or the exquisite pink Apple Blossom hand bars. . . . the decorative Cotton Blossom. . . . Cherry's Skin Balm soap. . . . Courtyard and Gabled Blue Camellia. . . . Har Roger and Gabled Blue Camellia. . . . Tuxedo Mountain Laurel Balm. . . . Treadmill Old Spice in both bars or hand size. . . . Men's Almond Cream, Silver Pine or Lily of the Valley. . . . and those excellent Luscious Lotion soaps among others.

Lurex, a new metallic cloth that does not tarnish, and flame-proof nylon table cloths, which come in colors, as well as white, are being used for evening gowns.

Rickys Jewelers

certainly have something to chime about in the downtown store. . . . and if all the clock-makers there, too, sell the hour by Westminster chimes, 2000 or 2001 forth at once, would be quite tuneful.

Crown prince of the lot. . . . and a gift supreme. . . . "The Lexacs," a Seth Thomas chimer, wind-up style, which is a reproduction of an original made in 1620 by Ebenezer Thomas of Framingham, England. . . . and crotch masonries are used for the case, which is embellished and antique brass finish dial and fittings that enhance the well-proportioned lines of the device. Price. . . . $117.

Revere mantle-type clocks, ever so handsome. . . . that strike in deep Westminster chime tones. . . . rather in price from $34 to $72. . . . and a television with a melodious ship's bell strikes giving for $37.46.

Lots of other timepieces for Christmas giving are on display in the downstairs clock department of RICKY'S, 700 Main, including a Grandson pendulum, small replica of historical Grandfather clocks. . . . inexpensive electric or wind-up clocks. . . . and handy little traveling clocks in metal or leather cases.

Men's Toiletries

make up a big display at CURRY'S this shopping season. . . . where there must be about anything a man prefers for putting on his face or hair. . . . and unless you're going in for one of the deluxe sets, bearing the Courty name, Martha suggests a little extra gift from this selection can be hung on the tree.

Swagger suits out a man-about-town line in striking containers that are quite unusual. . . . and the Sportsman sets, decorated with various forms of wild life, are especially appropriate for this area. Three masculine fragrances that nearly always are liked, even if you don't know his preference, are Vardley, Fougere Royale and the Early American Old Spice.

A few of the other populars available at CURRY'S. . . . the friendly drug store at Ninth and Main. . . . include Seaforth, L'Oré, Hawick, Seven Seas. . . . and many of the lotions, colognes, hair dressings or talcs sell for as low as $1.00 apiece.
