Schools Set Yule Programs

Christmas program were on the agenda this week, last few days of school before the annual Christmas-New Year's holiday period.

Each of the seven city public schools, Sacred Heart academy, and schools throughout the county, were presenting programs, some stressing music, others scenes from The Nativity, to which parents and friends are invited. Schools will observe Christmas parties in their home rooms on Friday and the traditional "gifts to teacher."

Klamath Union high school's Christmas gift to the public, will be presented Wednesday and Thursday evenings, December 17 and 18, at 8 p. m. in the KUHS auditorium, and this will be a program of music and drama, the combined efforts of the music, drama, art and manual arts departments. The public is invited and there is no charge.

Fremont Junior high school students will not have a formal Christmas program but have scheduled 1 p. m. Friday for an assembly and "Gift March" at which time the students will give contributions to the Bureau and the Christmas Ship. They will return to their home rooms for parties and the decorated trees and there will be very small gift exchanges, gifts going instead to the needy. The grade school will have its program at 8 p. m. Thursday.

Three Jailed For Theft

Three persons, a woman and two men, were jailed Sunday morning in connection with the theft of a box of groceries from a parked car on Klamath avenue. The groceries belonged to Claude L. Rogers, 5970 Delaware, and were taken while the Rogers family was attending a movie.

State police arrested Jose Quintana, 42-year-old Mexican, and Marcela Adrian Downing, 40, of Eureka, Calif., on charges of larceny, and a third person, Spurgeon Ragsdale, 38, for vagrancy.

They were found in a house back of 5511 Allamont, where the Mexican and the woman had allegedly been living.

The groceries were recovered.
