

Yuletide Program Planned At Henley

HENLEY—The story of the first Christmas will be portrayed in pantomime and song Wednesday night, tonight, at 7:30, when the Henley grade school will present its annual Christmas program.

A holiday play in two acts, "The Kidnapping of Santa Claus," will also be given.

More than 100 children will take part in the program which will be held in the high school gymnasium under the direction of Juanita Neils and Lois Humer.

In the "Kidnapping of Santa Claus," act 1, takes place in the goblin's cave when the goblin kidnaps Santa to put a stop to all Christmas celebration.

The second act is in the palace of the Christmas fairy, who shows the goblins the joys of Noel. Henley first, second and third graders will present the play.

"A Christmas Dream," a pantomime, is based on the legend that any child who puts a candle in the window on Christmas Eve will dream of the first Christmas.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades will participate.

Rites Solemnized In Mid-December

WOCUS—Betty Jean Jennings became the bride of Leslie Damon Silva, of Oroville, California, Saturday, December 13. The Rev. Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church, Klamath Falls, performed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jennings, in Wocus. Betty was given in marriage by her father, and Mrs. Elvin Kreuger, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his brother, Gene Silva Jr.

The bride wore a white satin gown and a long veil. She carried a white prayer book, with an orchid in the center of a wreath of white stephanotis, tied with white satin ribbon. Streamers of ribbon fell to the floor from the bouquet, and each bow held a single blossom of stephanotis. The bridesmaid wore a pale green gown of net and carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow and white carnations and Talisman roses, tied with yellow satin ribbon.

Large, white chrysanthemums were the room decorations, and following the ceremony the wedding supper was served. The decorated wedding cake was cut by the young couple.

Those attending the wedding were: Mrs. Paul Damon, grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Silva Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Gene Silva Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, all from Oroville, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Catalano, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kreuger, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Tuter and Mr. and Mrs. Arnel Stump of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Vanderhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Helm and Mrs. Don McGee of Wocus.

The couple will remain in Klamath Falls for a while before returning to Oroville where they will make their home.

Wed In Sweden
Verner Lundkvist and his Swedish bride recently returned from abroad to their home in Klamath Falls. Mr. Lundkvist went to Sweden this summer and while he was there took for his bride, Karin Andersson. The two were childhood friends.

The ceremony was read in Laknas, Leksands, Sweden, and was an unusual one. Mr. Lundkvist's brothers were married at the same time, making a triple wedding ceremony.

Albert Lundkvist took Ester Bjurman for his bride, and Inger Rönning became the bride of Anders Lundkvist.

The other two couples live in Sweden. The Verner Lundkvists flew to the United States from Sweden.

Noble Grand
Fraternity Rebekah lodge No. 106, of Bonanza met in regular session Friday evening, December 5 at 8 o'clock, with Dorothy Holzhauser, noble grand, presiding.

Election of officers revealed that Olive Frayley will be the new noble grand, Vella Wilder, vice grand; Halcyon Wells, secretary and Ozzelle Weatherby, treasurer.

Refreshments were served to Odd-fellows and Rebekahs, and names were drawn for the gift exchange to be held at the Christmas party planned for December 19.

All Rebekahs are requested to bring their contributions for the Christmas basket to the December 19 meeting.
