

A GAY AFFAIR was the American Association of University Women traditional Christmas party held last Thursday in the Pelican party room. Refreshments, songs, a program, and gift exchange highlighted the festivities. Santa Claus, in the person of Mrs. A. L. Brandt, doled out gifts to Mrs. C. B. Larkin, center, president of the club who was costumed for her reading of "Just Before Christmas," by Eugene Field, and Mrs. H. R. Todd, general party chairman. The party annually honors new AAUW members.

Camp Fire Council Has Annual Meet

The Klamath Falls council of Camp Fire Girls held its annual meeting and election Tuesday night, December 9, at the chamber of commerce office. Mrs. James Kerns was elected president of the council for 1948, with other officers elected as follows: Mrs. L. L. Truax, first vice president; Mrs. Rudy Jacobs, second vice president; Mrs. Al McDonald, treasurer, and Mrs. John Selby, secretary. Four members at large were elected to the executive board—Mrs. Henry Gerber, Mrs. Dave Liskey, Mrs. Cecil Adams and Mrs. Robert Thompson.

Among the other items of business was the amendment to the by-laws of the council to include all Camp Fire, Blue Bird and Horizon club leaders, assistant leaders and sponsors as voting members of the council.

Reports from the standing committees were given. Mrs. Ray Oldenburgh reporting on extension, Eva Burkhalter on training, Mrs. Louis Mann on adult membership and Mrs. R. E. Hooker on the social committee.

Members of the Leaders' association were present and Mrs. Orville Herman gave a resume of the activities of the "Daffodil" Blue Bird group at Fairview school for which she has been leader for the past

Exchange Vows

Friends have received word of the wedding of Mrs. Mary Gebhart, formerly of Oleno, and George Schaefer of Stockbridge, Wis.

The couple exchanged vows in St. Mary's Catholic church in Stockbridge, November 23. Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schaefer, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer and close friends and relatives were served breakfast at the Stockbridge hotel following the nuptials.
