More Glamorous Males Are Aim Of Former Beautician

By HAL BOYLE
 NEW YORK, Dec. 18 (AP)—The former court beautician for Queen Marie of Romania says the American divorce rate would fall if husbands would learn how to look in a mirror.
 "The secret formula is to look in the mirror long enough to learn how to glamorize yourself for your wife," said bushy-haired Don Edmond.
 "You only count what you look like, and if the husband keeps his glamor the wife will no longer think she has the freedom to be sloppy, and they both like each other better."
 Edmond, who operates a glitter belt "house of beauty" only a ten-carat stone's throw from Fifth avenue, believes the average American husband is about as glamorous as a sheep dog with mange.
 "Really it is him that is the whole mistake," continued the Egyptian-born beautician.
 "If he would get a hold of himself and become a glamor boy, the marriage it would last longer. The glamor—it must begin before breakfast."

Fancy Dress
 This means, he indicated, that the husband should quit letting his wife see him when he first turns off the alarm clock, yawning and scratching himself. Instead he should go to the bathroom, shave, comb his hair and come back in a fancy dressing gown before arousing the sleeping beauty he is wedded to.

"Women like movie actors because of their voices," Edmond went on. "A husband can make the voice glamorous by speaking very slowly. Then his words have thoughts behind them."
 "Speak distinctly. Don't give the woman the chance to say, 'What did you say, dear?' She will have lost the interest, and you will be annoyed."

Some other Edmond tips on how to keep a glamor hammerlock on your better half:
 "Most men go to the barber and say, 'Gimme the works.' That means the barber always decided how they look. If the barber is a glamorous man himself, you're hunky. But how many barbers are glamorous?"

"Don't let the hair grow from the nose. Trim it. Trim the eyebrows, too."
Mustache Important
 "Pay attention to the mustache. A tall man should wear a French mustache. A writer or a serious man should wear a heavier mustache—a la Clemenceau. Never wear a waxed, turned up mustache—it is like the cheap villain."
 "Any man should wear a beard who can wear one. But every profession can't wear a beard—it is no good for the soda jerk. But a doctor, a dentist, an independent business man—yes, hokay."
 "Don't let any woman tell you she won't like you with a beard. It gives you a he-man look—if it is a

Youngsters Sniping At Yule Lights

Louis Berry, 636 Washington, reported to city police that vandals, probably juveniles, have been systematically shattering the lights on an outdoor Christmas tree in the yard of his home at 7th and Washington.
 The tree, one of the prettiest outside decorations in town, is topped by a big florescent star, which thus far has not been broken, but the smaller blue lights have been targets for the vandals.

John Muir Coed To Rule Rose Festival

PARADISE, Calif., Dec. 18 (AP)—Virginia Goodhue, 18-year-old blond coed at Pasadena's John Muir college, will reign as Rose Queen over the Tournament of Roses parade on New Year's Day.
 She was selected last night at a ball which honored her and six other finalists in the queen contest. The runners-up will serve as her attendants.

Cold Weather Moving In

By The Associated Press
 Another blast of sub-zero weather hit sections of the Midwest during the night but temperatures moderated early today. However, another mass of cold air was headed for the same section tonight and tomorrow. Generally fair weather was reported in most other parts of the country.

The below-zero belt included most of Minnesota, parts of the Dakotas, Northwestern Wisconsin and Eastern upper Michigan.

The mercury dropped to 16 below at International Falls, Minn., at the Canadian border last night, but climbed to -13 this morning. The -16 was the low mark for the frigid belt, as the fresh mass of cold air moved in from Eastern Manitoba and Southwestern Ontario. In Armstrong, Ontario, about 200 miles northeast of International Falls, the temperature dipped to 33 below.

Temperatures generally over all other sections of the country were near or above normal. Light falls

Strike In Italy Spreads

ROME, Dec. 18 (AP)—Newspaper reports said today a general strike had been called in a third Sicilian city, Caltanissetta, and that new disorders had erupted in North, South and Central Italy.
 At Catania, a back-to-work movement resulted in most stores of that Sicilian city reopening and in taxis and horse cabs returning to their stands. However, printers and barbers joined the strike and buses and streetcars still were tied up. Five strike leaders were under arrest.
 Disunion was reported among the labor unions participating in the general strike in Palermo, also in Sicily. The vote in the union's council of leagues authorizing the strike was reported as 77 for, three against, with six abstentions and 51 absences.

The Caltanissetta strike was voted 18 to 16 by the local chamber of labor, affiliated with the communist-controlled national general confederation of labor. Earlier dispatches said a strike in that city of 50,000 might be called to back demands for unemployment relief, the reasons for the general walkouts in Catania and Palermo and earlier in Rome.

In the last five weeks, Italian disorders have resulted in 23 political

Baronet-To-Be Seriously Hurt

PORTLAND, Dec. 18 (AP)—Robert A. Hardinge, 32, who had identified himself to friends here as second in line for a British baronetcy, was in a hospital today with critical injuries which police said were inflicted when he was knocked through a tavern window.

Patrolmen I. S. Vollmer and W. P. Washburn said they were called to the tavern last night and found Hardinge outside unconscious.

The hospital said his condition today was "just only fair."

Recently in London the claim of Robert Hardinge, Denver, as first in line for the baronetcy of Lurran, Fermanagh, was confirmed, and Hardinge said he had a son Robert in Portland at the same address as that given by the injured man.
