

This is an interior view of the new Catholic church of Dorris, which has been named "Our Lady of Good Counsel." The picture was taken on the occasion of the recent dedication of the church by Bishop Robert Armstrong of Sacramento.

Klamath Lutheran Slates Full Christmas Calendar

The holiday calendar for Klamath Lutheran church, Cross and Crescent, is filled with numerous special events and services.

Rev. S. M. Topness, pastor, announces the services for the week as follows:

Sunday, December 21—Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Divine worship at 11 a. m. Sermon: "Rejoice in the Lord." Anthem: "Rejoice in the Lord is King," by Corne. Senior choir, Erling A. Melby, solo.

Scientists To Hear Speaker

A special event of the holiday season for the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10th and Washington, will be a free lecture sponsored by the church.

Ralph Castle, C. S., of San Francisco, Calif., will speak at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10th and Washington, on the topic, "Christian Science: A Religion of Revelation, Reason and Demonstration." Time of the lecture is 3 p. m. this Sunday.

The lecturer is a member of the board of lecturers of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass. All are welcome.

Worship Service
The regular worship service will be held at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10th and Washington. The Golden Text of the lesson-sermon will be: "The word of the Lord is right, and all his works are done in truth." For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast." (Isa. 55:10-11).

The subject of the lesson-sermon will be: "The universe, including man, evolved by atomic force?" Among the citations comprising the lesson-sermon will be: "There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord." (Prov. 21:30). From the "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, the Christian Science textbook, will be: "Man has not yet found it true that knowledge can save him from the dire effects of knowledge."

Dedication Ceremony

The dedication ceremony setting apart the new property of the Calvary Baptist church will be observed Sunday morning, January 4. Purchase was recently made of a location on East Main at Garden which has been remodelled to serve as temporary quarters for the Calvary congregation.

Calvary church was organized just 11 months ago with 22 participating members. Since that time the membership has grown to nearly 100 members. The church wishes to be of continued help and encouragement to the people of Klamath Falls and extends a warm welcome to anyone who wishes to participate in its services.

A musical Christmas program under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Gueck and Mrs. Glen Webster will be presented Sunday evening, December 21, in the city library auditorium. The young people and the choir of the Calvary Baptist church have been engaged to present the program. The public is invited to this service.

LDS To Give Yule Cantata

"From the Realm of Glory" by Gerald F. Frazer will be the Christmas cantata presented by the choir of the Klamath Falls branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The presentation is planned for this Sunday at 6 p. m. Many beautiful choir and solo numbers will be interspersed with narrations by Elder McKay Burton. The choir will be under the direction of Samuel H. Smith, accompanied by Kathryn Smith.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend this special program as well as all other meetings and social gatherings.

Tule Church Ceremony Set

TULELAKE, Dec. 19.—The anniversary of the birth of the Christ Child will be observed Sunday in the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church with sermon, music and the annual children's program.

Rev. Hugh Bronson has chosen as his sermon topic for the morning worship hour at 11 o'clock, "Joy to the World."

The junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. Norman Esser, will sing with Mrs. Edgar Osborn, soprano, as the soloist. Members of the choir are Patsy and Peggy Terry, Shirley Heck, Carla Main, Ann Reed, Rosalie Wilkinson, Hugh Wilson, Charles K. Wiese Jr., Galen Lesh and Charles Esser. Mildred Reid is the accompanist.

The annual Christmas program given by children of the Sunday school is planned for 7:30 o'clock with readings and music to be given by individuals and classes under the direction of Mrs. Austin Terry.

Santa Claus will arrive during the program to distribute treats to the small folk from in front of the big lighted tree.

Following the program, the young people of the church will carol around town for an hour or so, later returning to the church annex for refreshments.

Jacobsen At First Covenant

Services at the First Covenant church will all center on the great theme of Christ and His birth on this coming Lord's Day. For the 11 o'clock worship service, Pastor S. T. Jacobsen will speak on "In the Fulness of Time, God Sent."

The ladies chorus will render a Christmas hymn, "Glory to God," by A. L. Skoog. The Sunday school session begins at 11 o'clock. Classes are conducted for children of all ages as well as for adults.

The Sunday school will present its annual Christmas program at 7:30 p. m. this Sunday night. The program will be simple, consisting of readings and songs centered about the Christmas story. Parents and friends of the children and all friends of the church are invited to be present.

First Presbyterian Plans Christmas Service Sunday

The First Presbyterian church, 6th and Pine streets, will celebrate the festival of Christmas at the morning worship service on Sunday, December 21.

Included in the service will be the following musical selections: Organ Prelude—"Christmas Fantasy"—Calver Gounod; Anthem—"Sanctus"—Mrs. Marvin Nerseeth and Carl Hagel; Contralto Solo—"O Holy Night"—Adam.

Mrs. Philip Hitchcock will sing "Again the Star Shines"—Rosa Banister, Colleen Cresswell and Brooks Custer. Organ Offertory—"March of the Magi Kings"—Dubois. Anthem—"Gloria"—Mozart. The choir is directed by Andrew Loney and accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre.

First Church of Christ, Scientist

A branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10th and Washington

Services: Sunday School, 11:00 a. m. Sunday Service, 11:00 a. m. Wednesday Evening Meeting, 8:00 o'clock. Lesson-Sermon Subject, Dec. 21—

"Is The Universe, Including Man, Evolved By Atomic Force?"

Christian Science Reading Room 1023 Main St. RADIO BROADCAST SATURDAY—5:15 P. M.—KFJI Subject, "Proof That Christian Science Heals"

Herald and News

FRIDAY, DEC. 19, 1947

SEC. II—PAGE 1

Three Christmas Programs Set For First Methodist

Three Christmas programs will be featured at the First Methodist church at 10th and High on Sunday. At 9:30 a. m. the beginners and primary departments of the Sunday school will have Christmas programs in the lower auditorium under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Terwilliger and her teaching staff. Christmas treats will be distributed to the children after the program.

At the 11 o'clock worship service the senior choir will present special

Christmas music under the direction of Mrs. Robert P. Craig with Mrs. Patricia Hunt at the organ console. John A. O'Connor will play a viola solo, "Arise," by J. S. Bach. Catherine Blass, soprano, will sing "Gesee Barmine," by Yon. The choir will sing the anthem, "Silent Night," by Gruber-Weitzel. The Rev. Victor Phillips, minister, will preach on the subject, "Are We Too Busy To Go To Bethlehem?"

In the evening at 7:30 a program will be given by the junior, intermediate, high school, and young adult departments of the Sunday school. The following is the program for the evening:

Prelude: A Medley of English Carols—Mrs. Patricia Hunt.

The Call to Worship—William Griffith.

Hymn: "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

Scripture Reading: Luke 2:4-20. Prayer—Merland Phelps.

Tenor Solo: "Oh, Holy Night"—Wilber Elliott.

Offertory: "Ave Maria"—Mrs. Patricia Hunt.

Reading: "No Room in the Inn"—Margie Robinson.

Poem: "Room For Jesus"—William Griffith.

Hymn: "O Come, All Ye Faithful."

Reading: "Why The Chimes Rang" (McFadden)—Glenn Allen.

"Christmas Pictures" by the Intermediate Readers: Aurelia Patterson, Wise Men: Roger Hewitt, Dennis Neubert, Charles Thornton, Shepherds: Gerry Baker, David Deller, Robin Bithell. Stars: Patricia Smith, Jane Larkin, Carol Biehn, Averil Garriott, Patricia Taylor, Mary: Linda Williams.

Joseph: Leonard Garrison. The Junior Chorus will sing "We Three Kings," "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks," and "Silent Night."

Tuesday, December 23—7:30 p. m.—Christmas story and a pageant presented by church school members to which all children and their parents are invited.

Wednesday, December 24—12 o'clock midnight there will be the traditional celebration of the Holy Communion. Special music has been arranged and all communicants and friends of the church are most welcome to attend.

Thursday, Christmas Day—There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10 a. m. for those who could not make their communion at the midnight service.

St. Paul's Plans For Noel Service

The traditional Noel services are planned for Christmas week at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach, rector, announces the week's services as follows:

Sunday, December 21—8:00 a. m.—Celebration of the Holy Communion.

9:45 a. m.—Church school and pageant practice.

11:00 a. m.—Service of Holy Communion and sermon by the Confrimant, the Rt. Rev. Lane W. Barton, Bishop of Eastern Oregon.

6:30 p. m.—The Young People's Fellowship will go out on a truck and sing carols, following a short party for the YPP in the parish hall.

Tuesday, December 23—7:30 p. m.—Christmas story and a pageant presented by church school members to which all children and their parents are invited.

Wednesday, December 24—12 o'clock midnight there will be the traditional celebration of the Holy Communion. Special music has been arranged and all communicants and friends of the church are most welcome to attend.

Thursday, Christmas Day—There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10 a. m. for those who could not make their communion at the midnight service.

Guiding Star Drama Slated

"The Guiding Star" a Christmas drama by Laura Bell, will be presented at the Klamath Temple, 1007 Pine, Sunday at 8 p. m.

The story tells of a desperate illness of a young man, who is too absorbed in his business to realize how dear the boy is to him, until it seems too late. Sandra, daughter of the innkeeper, offers the shelter of the stable to Mary and Joseph, who find no room in the inn. Later, the star shining over the stable, as a sign of prophesy fulfilled, guides them home to safety and peace. The three scenes depict the interior of the inn at Bethlehem.

The Sunday school of Klamath Temple will present a Christmas program Sunday at 10 a. m. Christmas treats will be given to all children present. Morning worship is at 11 o'clock with a Christmas message by Rev. D. B. Anderson, pastor.

Chapel Choir Program On

At the Congregational church, Sunday morning at 11 the congregation will be singing and meditating upon the joys of the Advent Season. The sermon by Rev. Godfrey Matthews is entitled "They Were All Looking . . ." and he will read "A Scripture Out of This Day for This Day." The chapel choir, directed by Mrs. Henry W. Moore, will sing "The Canterbury Carol," and a trio composed of Faye Nelson, Sandra Moore and Lorna Pease will sing a modern arrangement of "Silent Night."

Mrs. Marie Casjens will sing the solo "Ave Maria" by Schubert. At 7:30 in the evening the annual Pageant of the Nativity will be produced by a cast of 50 children and young people under the direction of Mary E. Eckstein. The chapel and pageant choir will sing ancient and modern carols with Mrs. Marie Casjens as soloist and Mrs. H. W. Moore, organist.

Members and friends are urged to be present early for both these services.

On Christmas morning, the festival worship of the Zion Lutheran church will be held at 11 o'clock. "The Glory of the Manger Child" will be the topic of the festival sermon of the pastor. Holy communion will be celebrated in this service. Appropriate music will be presented by the Zion choir.

The Zion Lutheran congregation extends a cordial invitation to attend these Christmas services.

How Much Do You Know About CHRISTIAN SCIENCE?

Even if you know nothing about Christian Science, take this opportunity to learn some of the facts about this scientific religion which heals sickness and solves human problems. Accept this invitation on behalf of yourself, your family, and your friends.

Free Lecture on Christian Science

SUBJECT—CHRISTIAN SCIENCE: A Religion of Revelation, Reason and Demonstration

LECTURER—Ralph Castle, C.S., of San Francisco

Member of the Board of Lecturers of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts

PLACE—FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH Corner 9th and Pine Sts.

TIME—SUNDAY AFTERNOON, DECEMBER 21 AT 3 O'CLOCK

Under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Klamath Falls

All are welcome

New Church Readied For Christmas

Formal dedication of the new edifice of the Peace Memorial Presbyterian church on S. 6th street is planned for this Sunday. Rev. Hugh T. Mitchell, pastor, has announced that the services will also commemorate the organization of the church 100 years ago, December 17, 1937. The special anniversary service will be held at 11 a. m. Sunday, with dedication services in the afternoon.

Candlelight Service Set

The First Baptist church, N. 8th and Washington streets, is presenting three interesting Christmas programs this Sunday.

The Sunday school departments have scheduled a program of recitations, music and drama at 9:45 a. m. Treats will be given to all children and young people in attendance.

A beautiful candlelight service will be presented by the Training union at 6:45 p. m. under the direction of Mrs. Fred Nichol. This program is designed to illustrate the ideals of Christian service as the vital message of Christmas. The Christmas vesper service will include the entire Training union.

The day will be climaxed with a service that is different in the offering of "Christmas Blessings" which is a complete yuletide service of 40 beautifully colored slides giving the complete Christmas story in pictures, songs and readings. The public is cordially invited to enjoy Christmas at the First Baptist church.

Diety Of Christ Is Sermon Topic

"Christmas, and the Deity of Christ" will be the subject of the sermon for this Sunday, Rev. Sherman Moore, pastor of the Pilgrim Holiness church, announced today.

At 7:45 p. m. the Sunday school will present its annual Christmas program in which every child in the school will participate. With songs and readings, the beloved story of the Nativity will be retold.

The playlet, "The Songs of Christmas," will be given the same evening by the intermediate and high school classes. The pastor will give a brief Christmas message. The public is invited.

DE TO WED

KELSO, Dec. 19 (AP)—Marriage license applications filed here yesterday included Irvin Warner and Caludia Gordon, both Amith; and Raymond Crawford, Elmira, and Aileen Smith, Eugene.

Memorial Presbyterian Church Dedication Slated

The dedication of the Peace Memorial Presbyterian church building, 4431 S. 6th, at 4 p. m. Sunday, will be accompanied by Christmas services and recognition of the 10th anniversary of the organization of the church.

The dedication proper will be featured by the address of Rev. Willis C. Lamott, D. D., formerly vice president of Majli Gaguin college of Tokyo, Japan, and now professor of missions in the Presbyterian Theological seminary at San Anselmo, Calif. Dr. Lamott is the author of a number of books, the latest being "Committed Unto Us," the current mission study book of the inter-denominational missionary educational movement. Other books include "The Amazing Chinese," "Suzuki Looks at Japan," and "Nippon: The Chimes and Punishment of Japan."

Dr. Lamott is a brother of Robert Lamott, executive of Modoc Council Boy Scouts of America. The church choir will sing anthems and the Alamos Junior high school vocal ensemble will sing Christmas carols. Rev. David Barnett of the First Presbyterian church and Rev. Hugh Bronson of Tulelake, former pastor, will take part with the pastor, Rev. Hugh T. Mitchell.

Sunday morning at 9:45 the Sunday school will meet in regular session in the music room of the Junior high school. The worship service at 11 o'clock will also be in the schoolhouse, when Christmas hymns will be sung, the choir will present two anthems and the pastor's theme will be "The Song of the Angels."

The young people will conduct a Christmas service at 7:30 p. m. in the assembly room of the educational buildings of the new church. Their program will include a Christmas play, the principal characters being taken by Joanne Robinette, Beth Spencer, Marilee Crawford and Lois Landrum, directed by A. C. Olson.

Marilee Crawford and Mary Lou Bates will sing "Holy Night," by Adam. At the close of their program the young people will go caroling.

The Sunday school program is to be presented in the church Monday.

December 22 at 7:30. Mrs. Thelma Janssen and Mrs. Frances Curry in charge. A play, "For Christ is Born," with Christmas carols by junior and intermediate and primary departments will be given. A string quartet will play carols. Members are Marilee Crawford and Donald Quick, violins; Dick Weakley, viola, and Neil Olson, cello. Treats for all children. The public is invited to all programs.

Mt. Carmel Service Set

CHILOQUIN—The local churches have announced their special holiday services.

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel church, Rev. Father Michael Ahearne officiating, will have high mass at midnight, December 24. Solo voices in the choir will be Elida DeBortoli and Mrs. Ursula Bond, with Mrs. B. G. Courtwright at the organ.

The Methodist church will have a special Sunday school program at 10 a. m., followed by the Christmas church service. Rev. James Zeller will preach. A special Christmas program will be presented Sunday evening.

Regular Sunday services will be held at the Full Gospel church but a special program will be given on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. with Mrs. John Eifman and Mrs. Martha Nelson in charge. Rev. Coor will conduct the Sunday services.

Rev. A. C. Grimes of the Bible Standard church announced that Christmas carols will be played over a loud speaker at the church every evening from now until the holidays. The regular Sunday school hour will be followed by a Christmas message, "The Greatest Gift to Mankind," and at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, the pageant, "The Magnificent Gift" will be presented followed by treats given to the children.

Gifts for the boss or office. Pioneer Printing & Stationery Co.

Kohn's Flower Shop

430 MAIN

Phone 8871 or 5442

POINSETTIAS

"THE BEST IN THE WEST"

Open Sunday December 21
Evenings 'til Xmas
CLOSED XMAS DAY

"WIRE FLOWERS FOR CHRISTMAS"