

Christmas Motifs Used For Party

Pine bows, candles and the traditional Christmas tree formed the setting for the annual Orion Christmas party held in the Methodist church parlors Tuesday evening, December 16.

Santa Claus, in the person of Mrs. Dale Throckmorton, presented candy canes and gifts to all present.

In accord with the season, singing of Christmas carols, Christmas records, and a piano solo by Mrs. Wendell Smith were enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served from a table centered with a popcorn Christmas tree, snow men, and candles. Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Ruth O'Connell, Mrs. Helen Thornton, Mrs. Marjorie Haglund and Mrs. Louise Gardiner. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Ray Garrison and Mrs. T. J. O'Hara.

Yule Setting

Greenery and tall tapers formed the Yule setting for the holiday party held this week by the Wednesday club in the parish hall of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Hostesses were Mrs. E. M. Raymond, Mrs. D. J. Gilbert, Mrs. W. A. Shannon, Mrs. R. O. Sproat and Mrs. Warren C. Bennett.

First in bride went to Mrs. Frank Tarr and low to Mrs. Dick Maguire. In pinocchio high went to Elaine Richardson and the special award for the evening went to Mrs. Arthur Moore.

Annual Party

TULELAKE—All the glitter and greenery that go to make up a successful Christmas party were in evidence at the annual party given by the Tulelake post, American Legion, and the Legion auxiliary, for their families. The affair was held last week in the Legion hall where guests gathered for a 7 o'clock potluck supper.

Sparkling, spotlighted snowmen, red tapers and greens centered the tables.

Following the dinner, Santa Claus appeared with his bag of treats, and gifts were exchanged by adults and children. Mrs. Ward Devlin, with Mrs. Don Webster at the piano, sang several carols and Ann and Sylvia Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Reed gave readings. More than 100 guests were present.

Mrs. Winnie Schadler of Lakeview will spend Christmas this year with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Homer J. Ellis and her grandchildren, Judy and John Ellis, at their home, 636 Eldorado.

Program

Juveniles of Neighbors of Woodcraft started in the Christmas program given at the joint party for juveniles and neighbors in the KO hall Monday evening, December 18. Group singing of "Little Town of Bethlehem" and "Silent Night" followed the meeting, and this was followed by a piano solo by Dainty Thompson and a piano duet by Mrs. Thompson and Sharon; a song by Edna Mae Reeves, accompanied by Mildred Smith; piano solo by John Elty; recitations by Alec Tilton and Maria Ann Weed; piano solo by Aurilia Patterson; recitations by Linda Simms, Lana Simms and Lorraine Weed; a song by Beverly Jean, Peggy Ann and Donald Clawson; recitations by Patsy Ruth Miller, Paula Ann Clark, Judy Belle Hull and Dick Weed; accordion solos "The First Noel" and "Santa is Coming to Town" by Patsy Ruth Miller.

All joined in "Jingle Bells" as Santa entered to distribute gifts for the silent sisters, the juveniles, and treats to all.

Ruth Hull, Alta Clark, Stella Dryden, Ellen Ely, Sylvia Tilton, Viola Leever, Lorene Robinson and Licky Freeman served on the committee for the evening. The next meeting will be on January 5, with a potluck supper at 7 p. m., followed by a regular business meeting.

Entertained

BONANZA—Mrs. Owen Pepple was entertained at a birthday party in her honor December 12 at the home of Mrs. O. C. Wells, her daughter.

Pinocchio was played, with Mrs. Pepple receiving high and Mrs. Lester Leavitt traveling.

The Christmas motif was carried out in the decorations and a birthday cake centered the party table. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple, Mr. and Mrs. Les Leavitt, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Malone, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Malone and Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Wells.

Henley Man Leaves For New Zealand

HENLEY—Irving Dixon, who left San Francisco Monday night by plane for Auckland, New Zealand, was honored Saturday night with a farewell party at the Dixon home in the Henley district.

Covers were laid for 21 at dinner, followed by an evening of cards and visiting.

Mr. Dixon will visit his 87-year-old mother, whom he has not seen in 10 years, his brothers and sisters and other relatives.

He called Mrs. Dixon long distance from San Francisco before taking off, and said that his schedule called for a six-hour lay-over in Honolulu, and stops at the Kenton and Fiji Islands. He plans to return the last of February.

Friends and relatives who gathered to wish him a pleasant trip were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kelley, Charles Deer, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Johnson and Mrs. Irving Dixon, all of the Henley district, and Mrs. W. Withrow, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Soran and Billy, and Hattie Mirror of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Huck and son and Mrs. Bertha Olson of Tulelake.

This afternoon, the FREA entertained children of members in the recreation hall at the bureau of reclamation. Santa Claus was on hand to distribute treats and gifts to the youngsters.

Association

The Women's association of the First Presbyterian church met Thursday evening, December 18, for its annual Christmas meeting.

Emmaline Fitzpatrick was hostess. Devotions and the Christmas story was told, interspersed with vocal selections by Marie Casjens and John Crosby.

Mrs. David Burnett Jr., led group singing of Christmas carols, accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre. Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill told a Christmas story.

Rev. David Barnett Jr., installed officers. The hostess served tea at the close of the meeting. Presiding at the tea table was Mrs. Ada Sparre-torn.

RNA Group

Ritta Schweizer entertained at her home, 4415 Cottage, Tuesday, December 9, for members of the Three R club of Royal Neighbors of America.

The hostess served luncheon, and later in the afternoon, cards were played. High went to Martha Baker, with Lillian Peterson receiving second, and Alice Hoover, the special prize.

Gifts were exchanged and Pollyannas remembered.

Dancing Party

Tonight, Saturday, members of the Federal Reclamation Employees association will hold a holiday dancing party. Refreshments and entertainment have been arranged, with Christmas decorations adding to the party motif.

This afternoon, the FREA entertained children of members in the recreation hall at the bureau of reclamation. Santa Claus was on hand to distribute treats and gifts to the youngsters.
