

Extension Unit News

The Fort Klamath home extension unit met at the CI clubhouse on the afternoon of Monday, December 15, this date being much more convenient than the regular date. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mrs. Ray Loosley. Mrs. William Page and Mrs. William Hackler presented material on party planning which they received at the project leaders' meeting in Klamath Falls recently. Following this Mrs. H. T. Williams continued with the hobby project on textile painting, the project having been presented at an earlier meeting.

The chairman then read a letter from the county extension leader asking that those interested in making footstools send in their names at once. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Loosley decided to take the project, which is to be presented at a two day workshop in Chiloquin on January 13 and 14.

Next a letter was read asking that we send two women to Klamath Falls January 15 to take part in putting on a radio program on the homemakers' program at 11:30 a. m. on that date, the subject to be "Favorite Recipes." Mrs. A. E. Coplan and Mrs. William Hackler were appointed to participate in this program.

Last, owing to the absence of the ACWW chairman, Mrs. Fred Pope, Mrs. Loosley read the ACWW report, including an interesting letter from a woman in Australia, after which Mrs. Frank Denton read an exceptionally interesting letter from a woman in England with whom she has corresponded for some little time. The names of several women were turned in for letter friends in other countries.

Those present for this meeting were Mrs. Ord Pritchett, Mrs. Elmer Zumbun, Mrs. Frank Denton, Mrs. R. O. Varnum, Mrs. William Hackler, Mrs. William Page, Mrs. H. T. Williams, Mrs. Sarah Stocum, Mrs. A. E. Coplan and Mrs. Ray Loosley.

It was decided to devote the February meeting to the textile painting project.

FAIRHAVEN

Mrs. Charles Mallow was hostess to the Fairhaven home extension group when the project on party planning was enjoyed by the 17 members and friends.

Mrs. Wayne Davis, Mrs. T. Mathers, Mrs. R. A. Johnston, Mrs. H. Schieferstein, Mrs. R. E. Roberts, Mrs. Karl Friedrich, Mrs. T. Jamieson, Mrs. Howard Holliday, Mrs. Percy Cook, Mrs. Keith Rice Jr., Mrs. Karl Kujac, Mrs. R. E. Hurlbut, Mrs. Ralph Baker, Mrs. M. O. Mikkelsen, Mrs. Lee Holliday and the hostess, Mrs. Charles Mallow, were present.

Project leaders were Mrs. Percy Cook and Mrs. Kujac. They prepared a colorful Christmas salad, illustrated numerous table decorations and party favors, led the group in playing games and singing songs.

The next Fairhaven unit meeting will be January 21 at the home of Mrs. Ralph Johnston on the Keno road.

Mrs. Hurlbut and Mrs. Baker will be project leaders for "Care and Use of New Materials." Mrs. W. Davison will supervise the children. All interested friends are invited. Potluck dinner will be served at noon.

TO MARRY

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 22 (AP) — Screen Actress June Havoc will be married in February to William Spier, a radio producer.

Miss Havoc, sister of Gypsy Rose Lee, writer and burlesque actress, said she and Spier haven't decided whether to be married here or in New York. Spier produces the dramatic shows "Suspense" and "The Thin Man."

German Given Long Sentence

NUERNBERG, Dec. 22 (AP)—Friedrich Flick, 64-year-old head of Germany's largest privately-owned coal, iron and steel empire, was sentenced to seven years imprisonment by an American military tribunal today for exploiting slave labor and looting German-occupied countries.

The two and one-half years which Flick already has spent in confinement will be deducted from his sentence.
