MS-187, Four 10" records.
With two small harmonicas
the Mulcavs achieve a sweetness and depth of tone that's amazing. Swing, sweet, or classical, their easy-on-the-ears interpretations make for mellow listening. Recorded with Sonora's famed bell-like brilliance of tone. Includes:
Malaguena; Swanee River;
Toby; Mildred's Blues; Tiger
Rag; and St. Louis Blues.

Kid Party On Service Club List

Service Clubs Program

Junior chamber of commerce, Monday, 7:30 p. m., chamber of commerce.

Lions club, Tuesday noon, Willard hotel.

20-30 club, Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., Willard hotel.

Kiwanis club, Wednesday noon, Willard hotel.

Rotary club, Friday noon, Willard hotel.

There will be no meeting of the Serapuntist club this week due to the holiday falling on Thursday, but Kiwanis club, which also meets on Thursday, ordinarily, will hold its noon meeting on Wednesday this week.

The Kiwanis annual Christmas party for children will be the program and each member is asked to bring a child. Bob Thompson heads the committee in charge of arrangements and John Houston and Dick Maguire will be in charge of the program. There will be a Santa Claus with gifts for the youngsters.

Lions will hear the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, at the noon luncheon Tuesday. John Sandmeyer will be chairman of the day.

The stage plays coming here in either March or April, presented by the New York Theatre Guild and sponsored by the 20-30 club, will be discussed at that club's meeting Tuesday evening. The guild will present three plays among which will be "Dear Ruth." The troupe will come here from engagements in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Milne are having a 20-30 New Year's party at their home on New Year's Eve and this will be announced. Plans for the installation banquet for January 6 will also be discussed. Jaycees are having their usual bi-monthly business meeting tonight.

Franchise Before Council

The city franchise with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company will probably come up for discussion tonight at the city council meeting. Mayor Ed Ostendorf said today.

Before January 1, city officials must either arrange for a new franchise or get an extension on the present one which ends December 31.

State Police In Conference Here

State police from Klamath Falls, Lakeview and Gilchrist were meeting today in the local office to hear a report from Sgt. E. W. Tichenor who has just returned from a sergeant's meeting in Medford. Seventeen attended the meeting.

Basin Men Buy Fine Cattle

Earl Wilson and Gerald West of Malin and Alvin and Charles Cheyne of Scotch acres in the Spring Lake district, recently returned from the Chicago International Livestock show and sale and a visit to Wildwood farm at Lake Orion, Mich. and several other prominent Aberdeen Angus herds in that state.

It was at the Wildwood farm that Alvin and Charles Cheyne purchased their new herd bull, "Europas Hand-doller." Earl Wilson purchased five heifers and Gerald West bought one. West and Wilson bought their new herd sire at the Chicago International sale. He is "Anthony Hand-doller" and came from the Anthony farm at Rhinebeck, New York.

Charles Cheyne accompanied the cattle home, traveling the northern route and taking eight days. The cattle arrived in fine shape on the morning of December 17.

Basketball—Klamath county basketball officials will hold their regular meeting tonight in the Hallinger building at 7:30.

Price Of Large Eggs Takes Drop

Cherry note on the food market. Eggs dropped two cents this morning on large AA's, bringing the wholesale price per carton to 79 cents. Medium AA's remained firm as did butter.
