

Christmas Party Held By Circle

Mrs. Fritz Vance and Mrs. E. S. Edwards entertained the Senior circle of the Community Congregational church on Friday afternoon, December 19, in the social hall on Garden street. Dessert was served at 1:30. The large table was colorful with an arrangement of evergreens, holly and mistletoe extending its entire length, and centered with bright candles and with bowls of fruit at either end of the table.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Charles Revel and was opened by roll call, to which each responded with a Bible verse. The circle has been asked to provide pillow slips for a deserving charity, and a number of members reported that they had some ready to be sent in.

Remembrance cards were signed by all present to be sent to former members. They are Mrs. Charles Reynolds, Mrs. A. G. Pearson, Mrs. T. Davis Preston, Mrs. J. G. Dickey, Mrs. K. D. Jones, Mrs. Eugene Haynes, Mrs. L. R. Harvey and Mrs. Ward Nelson. A Bible reading of the Christmas story was given by Mrs. Godfrey Matthews. Officers for the coming year were then installed by the Rev. Godfrey Matthews, with a candlelighting ceremony.

The group was then turned over to Mrs. Little, who adjourned the business meeting and announced the opening of the Christmas gift exchange. Christmas trees were at either end of the large room, one of them trimmed by the primary class of the Sunday school, with ornaments made by the youngsters, and the other tree, with the usual lights and colored ornaments, was laden with the gifts for circle members.
