Buying Lifts Wheat Futures

CHICAGO, Dec. 29 (AP) — Buying credited to cash houses and commercial interests lifted grain futures prices from early lows at the board of trade today. Dealings were considered relatively light and some of the trading was in the nature of evening up for the end of the year. During the session oats were independently strong on good commercial demand. Corn borrowed some of its rallying power from oats, against sales of 50,000 bushels.
