

Mothers Club Gives Christmas Party

A gaily adorned fir tree in the center of the auditorium of Sacred Heart academy added a holiday note to the Christmas party of December 21 given by the Mothers club for the sisters of St. Francis.

The opening prayer was led by the president, Mrs. Vincent Herlihy, and the vice president, Mrs. Don Deullner, gave a resume of the club's activities to date. She especially stressed the billing of the hope chest for the coming carnival which was on display at the meeting. A few tentative plans for the carnival, to be worked out before the next meeting were outlined. At the close of the business meeting a gift was presented to Sister Mariella, superior of the school, by Mrs. Herlihy.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Dinner Party

A turkey dinner celebrating the birthdays of members in October, November and December was given Wednesday by the Royal Neighbors of America. The special birthday gift went to Lillian Peterson. Anna Slander directed a skit, with songs presented by the juveniles of the club.

After dinner, members and guests heard a program including a violin duet by Larry and Shirley Bardeen, a song by Sharon Ross, a reading by George Steele, musical numbers by Eddie McFarlan, Marion Simpson, Roberta McCoy, and a quartet, Kerk Killian was Santa Claus.

The next lodge meeting will be January 9 in the KC hall at 8 o'clock.

Chapter Party

Mrs. Harold Eitheim Jr. was hostess to Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, at her home on Alameda street, Monday evening, December 22.

A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. George A. Wright, the first part of the evening, followed by a traditional Christmas party. A tall, beautifully decorated tree and a snow scene on the fireplace mantel added to the Christmas spirit of the group. Christmas carols were played while gifts were distributed.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. George A. Wright, Mrs. Robert Wirth, Mrs. Edwin Briscoe, Mrs. Gail Webb, Pat Fairchild, Doris McCord, Charlotte Bailey, Mrs. Robert Puckett, Lona Martin and Kay Schlotzauer. Lois Rumer of Exemplar chapter was a guest.

First Meeting

Klamath unit No. 8, American Legion auxiliary, will hold its first meeting of the new year Tuesday, January 6, at 8 o'clock in the Veterans' Memorial hall.

After separate business meetings, the Legion and auxiliary will be served refreshments by auxiliary members. Hostesses will be Mrs. R. D. McGeheey and Mrs. Charles K. Wells.

On the committee are Mrs. Geneva Jigger, Frances Johnson, Mrs. Pat Kilby, Mrs. E. H. Kinderick, Mrs. H. T. Landrum, Mrs. U. R. Lawler, Mrs. Hazel Landry, Mrs. Eddie Longmire, Mrs. Andrew Loney, Mrs. Rosa Meehan, Mrs. Lloyd Low, Mrs. Vesta Luce, Mrs. Joseph Mark, Mrs. O. D. Matthews, Mrs. Walter Mayberry, Mrs. Julia Williams, Mrs. Lucille Wirtz and Mrs. Tom Young.

Party Hostess

TULELAKE — Mrs. H. T. Street, assisted by Mrs. Leon Street and Mrs. Eldar Larsen, was hostess to members of the Homestead Community club for the annual Christmas party just before Christmas.

All the holiday trimmings made a colorful background for the gift exchange and musical contests and carols.

The refreshment table was centered by a snowman on a wintry lake and a gum-drop Christmas tree.

Twenty-two guests were present.

Anniversary

WOCUS — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barrett of Wocus celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Christmas Day. Highlighting the occasion was a family dinner at their home.

The two were married in Forestville, Calif. December 25, 1907.

Members of their family present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips and Marie, Kenneth and Judy, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Barrett and Betty and Donna, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barrett and Carol and Sandy, Mr. and Mrs. Barvin Barrett and Darrell and Jerry, Clinton and Allen Barrett, Edward Barrett and Herbert Barrett.

Holiday Hosts

FORT KLAMATH — In celebration of their 32nd wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Gus A. Page of Fort Klamath were hosts Saturday evening, December 20, at a very enjoyable pre-holiday affair at the Log Cabin Inn at Klamath Falls.

Following dinner at the inn, dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Page for the evening's entertainment were Mr. and Mrs. Gwinn Clemmens, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Douglas, all of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Paulson of Central Point.

Friendly Helpfulness
To Every Creed and Pursue

Ward's Klamath Funeral Home
Marguerite M. Ward and Sons
925 High Phone 3334

ATTRACTIVE youngsters are the Scott children. From left are Jimmy, three years, Wayne, one-and-a-half, and Janet, five years old. Their mother and daddy are Mr. and Mrs. James Scott of route 1.

December Meeting Held By Circles

Ruth, Esther, Mary and Martha circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church united for the Christmas meeting in the church parlors Thursday, December 18. Miriam Smyth was in charge of the prayer circle at 10:30, and at noon there was a covered dish luncheon in the parlors, followed by a business meeting and election of officers.

For 1948 they will be Mrs. L. K. Phelps, president; Mrs. Dexter Elliott, first vice president; Mrs. Fred Bechtel, second vice president; Mrs. W. D. Withrow, promotion secretary; Mrs. Bramhall, recording secretary; Mrs. Ruby Kenyon, treasurer; Mrs. Walter Herndon, chairman of the membership committee; Mrs. Charles Johnson, chairman of young peoples work; Mrs. C. H. Barnstable, chairman of student work; Mrs. Stanley Bechtel, chairman of children's work; Mrs. Earl Redman, chairman of missionary education; Mrs. Rhena Hovry, chairman of the Wesleyan Guild; Mrs. Bruce Binkley, publicity.

Mrs. Riker was leader of the devotional service and gave a Christmas reading while Mrs. Glenn Kent was program chairman and introduced the numbers on the program. There was a sextet composed of Mrs. Barnstable, Mrs. Redman, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Riker, Mrs. Craig and Marian Sheridan, accompanied by Mrs. Wendell Smith, which sang several appropriate numbers. Mrs. Steve Moss and Mrs. Kent gave readings.

Christmas greens and a large tree gave the feeling of Christmas to the parlors. There was no exchange of gifts, as the members this year decided to make their gifts to charities.

The Ladies Aid of Malin served dinner preceding the installation. Tables were decorated with miniature winter scenes, gum drop trees and lighted candles. Mrs. Ethel Hamilton and Mrs. Betty Henzel were in charge of table decorations.

The house centipede is not poisonous. Only the large tropical centipedes are venomous.

Social Calendar

Monday, January 5
Board meeting, 3:30 p.m. Home of Mrs. O. K. Puckett, 1927 Earle, 7:45 p.m.

Wednesday, January 8
Julius Heston Harmon, Klamath Community Concert association, Pelican theatre.

Sunday, February 23
Don Casack chorus, Klamath Community Concert association, Pelican theatre.

Wednesday, March 27
Appleton and Pickett duo-quintets, Klamath Community Concert association, Pelican theatre.

Wocus

The Pelican-Wocus home extension unit will meet at the Pelican school auditorium Friday, January 9, 10:30 a.m. "Use and Care of New Materials" will be the project, with Mrs. C. B. Whitlock and Mrs. Valk as project leaders. All members are asked to attend as arrangements are being made by the chairman to have the unit picture taken during hobby period. Members may contact Mrs. Frank Hurd for further information. Bring your own sack lunch. Coffee will be furnished by the chairman and vice chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Helm had a dinner guests on Christmas Day Mr. and Mrs. William Helm of Modoc Point, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smart, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smart and two children of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Art DeGoode, Prineville, and George Kettner of Rochester, Minn. Kettner is a brother of Mrs. Helm.

In answer to a letter written by Mrs. Frank Hurd in early November to patients in Puanamale hospital, Hilo, Hawaii, 10 Christmas cards were received by Mrs. Hurd from the "shut-ins." They come from teen-agers, who have a long time to spend in convalescing, and who would be made much happier to receive letters from the "mainland." Anyone interested in writing to these young folks may obtain their addresses from Mrs. Hurd by calling 7802.

Johnnie Laney, recently returned from New Mexico where he owns a cattle ranch, is making plans to take his family back with him around January 2. Johnnie says the "increase" in the number of cattle and horses is not what he expected to find after being away for over four years. He says "cattle rustling" and "miscoum" is the only reason he can give for there not being any more he can call his own. Laney left 20 head on the ranch in 1943, and now he has 23.

Before the fire, any policy is OK. Let Hans Norland write a policy that's OK after the fire. 123 N. 6th. Phone 6060.

Keno

The Modern Woodmen Juniors held a Christmas program at the Keno Baptist mission Friday, December 19. Following the program, refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Davis of Pioneer Community visited the "Bud" Lummus family Saturday evening. C. L. Crabtree and family, who have been living in Keno for some time, are moving to Tucson, Ariz. Crabtree is a carpenter and has a position there with a contractor.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rice and baby of Klamath Falls visited at the "Bud" Lummus and C. A. Waterhouse homes Sunday afternoon.

Roy Powell and family had Christmas dinner with the E. V. Powell family of Pioneer community. The Tom Calmes country home was the scene of a Christmas eve dinner. In addition to the immediate family, those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Morgan of Keno, Mike McAuliff and family of Klamath Falls and Mrs. John Zarosinski of Keno. Mrs. McAuliff and Mrs. Zarosinski are daughters of the Calmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Morgan entertained Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Dan Daton, all of Keno, at Christmas dinner. Dan Scherer and family will leave next Monday for Chehalis, Wash. to be present at the Scherer family reunion January 1.

Tom Deckard and family spent Christmas at Medford at the home of Mrs. Deckard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Barser.

John Braun of Oroville, Calif. spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Peterson of Keno.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Moore served Christmas eve dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Ray Atcheson, Dan Scherer and family and Dan Hetrick, all of Keno.

Mrs. Roy Powell has resigned as Cub Scout leader. Another leader is needed and anyone interested is requested to contact Mr. Mason at the Keno post office. There are 10 Cubs in the pack at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason and their children spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wyman of Stewart-Lenox addition. Mrs. Mason is the new Keno postmistress and handed the Christmas rush like a veteran.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Waterhouse and son, Roy, Dan Hetrick of Keno, Mr. and Mrs. C. Freeman and son and Charles Miner of Weyerhaeuser spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson of Medford. Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Johnson are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Waterhouse.

Friends have received Christmas cards from Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Huskinson of McAllister, Okla. They owned and operated the store at Keno for over 20 years and some time ago sold out to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Atcheson. They still own their home here.

Principal Harvey Denham and Mrs. Denham left Saturday for Ontario, and the rest of the teachers

Holiday Party Held By Nurses Group

Oregon State Nurses association, district No. 8, held its annual Christmas party December 18 at the home of Mrs. Blanche Howard, 1801 Oregon avenue. The evening was spent with games, songs and an exchange of gifts.

Members enjoyed group singing of Christmas carols, accompanied by Mrs. Katherine Wilson. A feature of the party was a fish pond, filled with white elephant gifts. Proceeds will be used to benefit the association, which hopes to double its membership in 1948.

Mrs. Emma Mason, as Santa, distributed gifts. Decorations carried out the traditional Christmas theme. A miniature New England scene was placed on the mantel.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Gertrude Whistler, Inez Edwards, Magdalene Bert-ruff, Mae Spiers and Margaret Strode.

On the program committee were Lydia Howard, Anne Rood and Katherine Wilson. Present were Annis Struthers, Rose Davis, Lottie Duncan, Mary McNeal, Esther Hunt, Neil Barrett, Gene McEwen, Carol Anderson, Mary Frances Hammond, Vera Hacker, Wilma Smith, Callie Short, Helen Lee, Pat O'Sullivan, Selma Haas, Delphine Campbell, Inez Edwards, Mae Spiers, Naomi Miller, Millicent West, Helen Hammer, Lee Musselman, Bernita Her-beld, Irene Hunt, Ruth Brasnell, Esther Harshberger, Emma Mason, Gloria Foster, Katherine Wilson, Mildred Martin, Gertrude Whistler, Magdalena Bartruff, Margaret Strode, Lydia Howard, Anne Rood, Julia Lind and the hostess.

Pioneer Community

Benjie Kerns arrived home for Christmas holidays to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerns. He is attending college in Washington, D. C., and following their Christmas dinner at home, they left for a trip to California.

Nellie Anderson attended a family dinner Christmas Day at her son's home, Merle Anderson on the Keno-Worden road.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Sarohoff made a trip to Red Bluff recently.

Norman Hansen of Pioneer grocery underwent a minor operation of his toes last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Christensen of Vernalis, Calif., were in our midst Tuesday of this week.

A series of gatherings at the homes in this community are in progress for the purpose of demonstrating products. The first was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Brownell, the one this week at the home of Mrs. Olive House, and the following one to be held at the home of Mrs. Roy Herrick Jr.

An annual event in our community for Christmas Eve is that of the Hurlbut children Christmas caroling for Mr. and Mrs. Frain. As

Busy Month

The American Association of University Women is looking forward to a busy January in connection with its study groups.

On Tuesday, January 6, the drama group will meet; on Wednesday, January 7, the afternoon book group will meet; Monday, January 12, members of the evening book club will hold a study meeting; Thursday, January 15, a new group, music appreciation; the same day, the international relations group and on Thursday, January 22 the interior decorations group.

The board of AAUW is called for a meeting at the home of Mrs. O. K. Puckett, president, 1927 Earle, Monday, January 5 at 7:45.

EDISON'S FIRST
First newspaper ever printed on a moving train was "The Weekly Herald," which Thomas Edison published on the Grand Trunk between Port Huron and Detroit in 1862.

well as their singing. Myron plays the accordion for them. This is highly appreciated.

T. Zinn of Weyerhaeuser was a caller at the home of W. L. Frain this week.

Miss Jackie Hurlbut of Ashland is spending her Christmas vacation at the R. E. Hurlbut home and with her father, Elmer Hurlbut, in Klamath Falls.

Custom Made
SLIP COVERS
Margaret Wheeler
Phone 4054

IN BOTTLES AND AT FOUNTAINS

Pepsi-Cola Company, Long Island City, N. Y.
Franchised Bottler: Klamath Falls Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co.

Yes, indeed!

"Crater Lake" BUTTER!

Klamath's Only Home-Manufactured, Churn Room-to-Your-Table Butter! And . . . So-o-o Delicious! . . . Because "Crater Lake" Butter is made entirely from delicious

PASTEURIZED SWEET CREAM!

It's these EXTRAS

That Make "Crater Lake" Top Dairy Products Name at Your Dealers . . . or Phone 5101 for Home Delivery!

KLAMATH FALLS CREAMERY
HOME OF
Crater Lake Dairy Products

TONITE AT 12

At LAKESHORE INN

Never a Dull Moment.
Dial 9063 for Reservations.
Fine Food, Music, Dancing.

SPECIAL NUT COOKIES

For New Year's open house . . . can't be beat with egg-nog or any other refreshment, whether you're entertaining, picking up a snack or serving them for dessert. Try them today!

Acomb's Bakery
OPEN SUNDAYS and EVENINGS—CLOSED MONDAYS
2045 Oregon Avenue Phone 8373