

Herald and News

FRANK JENKINS Editor
MALCOLM EPLEY Managing Editor
Entered as second class matter at the postoffice of Klamath Falls, Ore., on August 20, 1906, under act of congress March 3, 1879.

Today's Roundup

TIME will tell whether much of an organization can be built up in Oregon for Henry Wallace's presidential campaign, but at the moment it looks highly doubtful if the Democratic party bolter can carry support of consequence in this state.

EPLEY

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy. He has never been a popular figure here.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

There was evidence of considerable feeling here against Wallace at the time he openly sabotaged American foreign policy.

Locally, there appears to be virtually no sympathetic interest in the Wallace campaign.

These Days

THIS country has passed through the critical years 1946 and 1947 structurally sound. Men enter upon war blithely, heroically. They never realize that defeat is possible, that no country has ever altogether won a war, that the cost of victory in material terms may be as unbearable as defeat.

The years immediately following war are always difficult ones of adjustment in all phases. Economically, wars must be destructive. Prices rise beyond reason, not because producers and distributors are selfish, but because shortages, taxes, public debt, the cost of adjustment, the disorganization of trade routes, the confusion in politics become burdens upon price.

The current increase in price is unpleasant as taxes are unpleasant, but we have survived both with astonishing good cheer. Those who have criticized governmental policies concerning the adjustments and prices have been sound, but the fact remains that conditions could have been very much worse and are infinitely worse in every country in Europe except Switzerland and possibly Belgium and Holland.

The second gain is the obvious acknowledgement of the inadequacy of the United Nations. Nobody can be a parliament of man which employs such a device as the veto. The United Nations is moving into a new direction, namely, as the joint council of the anti-communist nations, the place where countries may counsel with each other at public sessions in the immediately lesser but permanently more substantial phases of mutual enterprise.

This past year has been a trying one for those who hope to retain in the western world the dignity of man—a very hungry and a very tired man in most European countries. The anti-communist victory in France will stand as a symbol of the inner strength of the western peoples. France has again proved herself the mother of liberty—a weary, a worried, a frightened mother, but with spiritual resources so great that they shine through her tears.

Politics We approach what is always a trying year for the United States. We have to elect a president. Therefore, every move, every act is calculated not on a scale of eternal verity but rather on the mundane scale of what will produce the most votes. It is a foregone conclusion that the democrats will nominate President Harry Truman. There are no foregone conclusions about the republicans. The two outstanding candidates are Governor Thomas E. Dewey and Senator Robert A. Taft, two competent men of fine character and extraordinary ability.

Taft is favored for his outstanding knowledge in the field of federal legislation, for his forthright character and his philosophic outlook. Dewey is favored for his administrative ability, which is far greater than is generally encountered in public service. Neither is demagogic. Between them the republicans can make a good choice.

General Eisenhower's campaign for the presidency is of a different order. The response to him is wholly emotional, for no one can say what his attitude is on a major public question. He has avoided declaring himself while in uniform. But it is his choice that he wears the uniform even after the president has appointed his successor. It is not likely that he will be nominated. Other candidates on the republican side do not matter yet. They may become important if Dewey and Taft deadlock each other. If that happens, they will undoubtedly support, as a compromise, a republican and a civilian.

Well, that seems to be the story and on that, let us say, a good, a bold, a prosperous New Year to all!

and a generous portion of meat at the two other meals. Would it be injurious for me to have just one egg a day and less meat in these days of short supplies?—M.M.

Answer: A strict diet for a patient with diabetes is calculated very closely to supply the needed food-stuffs in the right proportion. It would not be wise, therefore, to change your diet without consulting your doctor.

Battle of Slacks Won By Girl CAMDEN, N. Y., Dec. 31 (AP)—A 14-year-old eighth grade girl today won the "battle of the slacks" at Camden Central school.

John A. Litta, president of the board of education, announced the board had repealed its ban against girls wearing slacks in classes.

The action followed a written protest from Thomas Delahunt whose daughter, Jeannette, was sent home December 9 to "get a skirt" to replace brown wool slacks.

Jeannette had remained away from school since then. Delahunt explained he wished to dress his daughter in slacks to keep her warm in bad weather.

SIDE GLANCES

"We'd better wake grandpa and tell him the New Year's noise is going full blast on the radio—he's never heard anything like it!"

STATIC

By BILL JENKINS
ABC and KFLW are all set for another big Wednesday night, minus only the now-lashed voice of our friend, Henry Morgan.

Bing Crosby (KFLW-9 p. m.) will play host to Denny Thomas, a new and bright comedy star, on his broadcast tonight. Also on the slate is Rudolph Schmoepopper, Crosby's unknown celebrity guest who failed to show last time.

Lonely Montauk Point lighthouse will be the setting for tonight's Vox Pop show, when the group, minus Parks Johnson, row out to the spot to shed a little New Year's Eve cheer with the keepers.

The Sugar Bowl grid classic, matching the Crimson Tide and the Longhorns, will be carried by the ABC network New Year's Day for the benefit of those who are still able to hold their heads up. Harry Warner will be on the business end of the mike.

Vandenberg Not To Run

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg is likely to touch off a republican scramble in Michigan with a forthcoming announcement that he does not want to be his state's "favorite son" candidate for president.

Politicians long have known that Vandenberg planned eventually to ask the Michigan republican organization not to give him its formal backing at the Philadelphia nominating convention in June.

There are indications the senator will make this request in a New Year's letter to party leaders.

Vandenberg is chairman of the senate foreign relations committee. Seemingly he intends his letter to forestall any charge that he may be influenced by personal political ambitions in his task of piloting the long-range European recovery program through the senate.

Lana Turner Gets Projectionists' OK HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 31 (AP)—With most everybody else conducting year-end polls on this and that, the theatre projectionists have finally spoken up and named Lana Turner as the feminine star "easiest to look at day after day."

Actress Turner received 85 per cent of the first place votes in the feminine star division in a poll of projectionists throughout the nation. Results of the poll were announced here by local No. 165 of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes, the projectionists' union.

NEW YEAR'S DANCE and BASKET SOCIAL Bly School Gym Wed., Dec. 31st

Sponsored by BLY GRANGE Adm. Men $1.20 Good 4-Pc. Orchestra

Heartburn Relieved in 5 minutes or double your money back

NEW YEAR'S DANCE and BASKET SOCIAL Bly School Gym

Sponsored by BLY GRANGE Adm. Men $1.20 Good 4-Pc. Orchestra

Heartburn Relieved in 5 minutes or double your money back

NEW YEAR'S DANCE and BASKET SOCIAL Bly School Gym

Sponsored by BLY GRANGE Adm. Men $1.20 Good 4-Pc. Orchestra

Heartburn Relieved in 5 minutes or double your money back

Mrs. Jenkins Dies At 86

Mrs. B. K. (Rebecca) Jenkins, 86, mother of Frank Jenkins, publisher of The Herald and News, died at her home in Roseburg Tuesday, December 30, at 4 p.m. Final rites will be held in Roseburg Friday.

Mrs. Jenkins was born in Okaloosa, La., and came to Oregon with her family in 1908. She lived for many years in Eugene but for the past 15 years has resided in Roseburg. Her passing culminated several years of failing health. Mr. Jenkins died just a year ago, January 1, 1947. In addition to her son, Frank, Mrs. Jenkins is survived by a second son, Paul Jenkins of Roseburg. Frank Jenkins will leave here Thursday for Roseburg to attend services.

Romantic History So far as courage goes, Mihai's colorful father has plenty of it, only he would seem to have directed too much of it in wrong directions.

The former King Carol, now living in Portugal with his wife—who was Magda Lupescu—will be recorded as one of the notable royal lovers of history. At the age of 21, during the First World War, Carol eloped with a Rumanian provincial commoner, Zizi Lambrino, and married her, to the consternation of the whole country. He even wanted to abandon his rights to the throne but his father, King Ferdinand, finally got the marriage annulled.

Then Carol married lovely Princess Helen of Greece and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

The World Today

By DEWITT MACKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Young King Mihai's abdication of his throne has no mysterious significance, for Romania already was under the domination of Moscow and he was monarch in name only by the grace of bolsheviks until he had served their purpose and they were ready to declare another red republic.

Mihai's personal tragedy merely represents the final step in the grand coup which the Russians have executed in taking over Romania, for, to all intents, it is now a part of the Soviet Empire. And they've secured a fine prize.

Romania is rich agriculturally, as is testified by her great fields of corn and other grains, and she has petroleum, perhaps a doubtful asset for a small country with powerful neighbors. But she is even more important strategically.

Coastline Not only does Romania have a coastline on the Black sea but she houses the mouth of the mighty Danube, which winds back across the Balkans and on into Central Europe—a navigable river which is capable of handling heavy traffic and thus is one of the world's vital waterways—militarily and commercially. Moreover, she lies up against the Russian border, and thus her political complexion and international relations are of vast moment to Moscow.

The taking over of Romania is a prime example of the dogged persistence with which the communists pursue the hunt. As far back as 1930 they were causing unrest in that country, and the authorities uncovered a widespread Soviet espionage organization. Some 140 alleged Red agents were arrested in various cities. These underground activities continued until the late war era.

As we check up on former Rumanian monarchs I'm afraid we can't give them perfect marks in stewardship and deportment. But Mihai, who is only 26—just a youngster as kings go—has been showing a sturdiness of character which endeared him to his people and might have made him a great ruler if he had been given a chance. He has been so brave in trying to carry out his duties in the face of personal danger that one can understand the affection in which his subjects held him.

Romantic History So far as courage goes, Mihai's colorful father has plenty of it, only he would seem to have directed too much of it in wrong directions. The former King Carol, now living in Portugal with his wife—who was Magda Lupescu—will be recorded as one of the notable royal lovers of history.

At the age of 21, during the First World War, Carol eloped with a Rumanian provincial commoner, Zizi Lambrino, and married her, to the consternation of the whole country. He even wanted to abandon his rights to the throne but his father, King Ferdinand, finally got the marriage annulled.

Then Carol married lovely Princess Helen of Greece and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

I fear me that Carol got his great-grandson, King Mihai, and she is Mihai's mother. However, Carol soon fell violently in love with Madame Lupescu, abandoned his throne for her and was divorced by his wife. To give Carol credit, he has stuck to Magde through thick and thin, and they were married recently in Brazil when it seemed that she was about to die.

TOONERVILLE FOLKS

UNCLE ED WHALEY IS HEADED FOR TOWN WITH A SUPER COLOSSAL NOISEMAKER.

IF IT'S NOISE THEY WANT, I'M GONNA GIVE IT TO 'EM!

NEW YORK, Dec. 31 (AP)—Wilbur Peebles, thumping past newspaper headlines of world disaster, pulled a small neatly lettered slip from a drawer. "Well, Trellis Mae, I suppose 'everything is ready for the party.' 'What party?' she replied grimly.

"Why, our annual New Year's Eve party tonight," said Wilbur. "Great Scott, you don't mean to say you haven't done anything about it?"

"I have not, and I don't intend to," said his rebellious wife. "In fact, we are not going to have a party."

"Peebles put his paper down with a reluctant glance and inward thought—'Oh, oh, this is going to be difficult.'"

"Don't try to argue with me, Wilbur, and wipe that spoiled child look off your face," said Trellis Mae, launching into a full offensive.

"Why, honey?"

"And don't you 'honey' me. For the last ten years on New Year's Eve I've let your fathered friends turn my house into a second battle of Gettysburg. This time we're going to go out on the town!"

"But, honey—"

New Musical "We're going to that new musical hit you've been promising to take me to since it opened three years ago—she flourished the book and had already bought—and I've got a table for two reserved for us afterward at the Pirefyre night club."

"Honey, you know we can't afford all that," Wilbur complained.

"It'll cost about 500, including taxis," countered his embattled spouse. "What do you think it cost us to throw that party last year?"

"The maid came in the next day and took one look and quit. The place looked like Tokyo after the big fire raid. Remember that cute chum of yours who stood on his head and came down with both feet on the coffee table? And the two strangers he brought who played catch with fresh eggs and broke two on the living room wall? How about that dizzy redhead who insisted on trying on my fur coat and left the burning embers in the pocket?"

"But I've already invited everybody."

"How many?"

"Oh—about fifteen, maybe twenty."

"Peebles saw he had lost the fight, but went down fighting."

Our Home Town

New Year—1948

Oh, yes, I've got an idea for a New Year Resolution. And it is this. Whenever some visiting lecturer gets up on his hind legs, during this coming year and lets go with both barrels, I'm telling you what's the matter with America and the whole American system—whenever you read some magazine article that purports to give you the low-down on the awful condition of American politics or the greed of American big business or the laziness of the American worker, just say "Pff!"

And ask the speaker or the writer to show you some other land where conditions are better—or as good.

America is not perfect. Sometimes I suspect that God never intended man to be perfect, for, with perfection attained, what would man have to strive for? But it is the nearest approach to perfection which mankind has reached in his long, long march upwards from primordial mud banks.

And for 1948 we might all of us well resolve to let no outside influence lead us into belittling this land of ours and all it means to us.

THE LUGGAGE SHOP

1015 Main Street Phone 9313 "See Mac and You'll Be Back"

GREETINGS

For you and yours we're wishing this little guy grows into the most successful of all his ancestors!

THE JERRY THOMAS INSURANCE AGENCY

121 N. EIGHTH STREET - CALL 6465 KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

R. W. McMullan (Just call me Mac)

Kinda Tired of that LUGGAGE You Now Have?

COME IN, AND WE'LL GIVE YOU A LIBERAL TRADE-IN ON A QUALITY 1948 SET.

At Quality and Courtesy Headquarters

REPAIRING A SPECIALTY

THE LUGGAGE SHOP

1015 Main Street Phone 9313

"See Mac and You'll Be Back"

REPAIRING A SPECIALTY