

AMONG GUESTS were Dr. T. F. Farley, Dr. Neil F. Black and William Hagelstein. The party was held in the Pelican party room.

Anniversary

New Year's Day was also the occasion of the 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Fleet of Lakeshore drive, and in their honor Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fleet arranged a small reception at their home on Conger avenue Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fleet assisted at the party for their parents who were married January 1, 1908, in Heppner, Oregon. The guest list was made up of old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fleet.

Another of the many holiday parties was an open house given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newhouse at their home on the Ashland highway. A large number of friends called during the afternoon New Year's Day.

HOLIDAY SEASON WAS CHOSEN by Ruth Helen Radcliffe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe of Pacific Terrace, for her wedding at St. Paul's Episcopal church to Robert Frederick Grate of Corvallis. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Grate of Muscatine, Iowa, but parents of the groom were unable to attend the December 28th rites.

Younger Set Packs Its School Bags

Last week Klamath homes were all a'twitter over the arrival of the younger set who came from colleges all over the country to spend the holidays at home.

This week-end, the bags were being packed, Christmas party dresses and gifts re-wrapped in tissue paper, and term papers which should have been written, put off until the first week of school.

Scott Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed, left the week-end to resume his studies at Princeton in New Jersey.

Going back to the University of Oregon Sunday and Monday, are Joan and Marilyn O'Neill, Evan Dixon, Bob Mocabee, June Hershberger, Donna Brotherton, Fred Foulton, Sally Mueller, Joan Campbell Rex Young, Donnie Biggers, Bud Brown, Dorothy Collier, Ruth Landry, Jean Hilton, Malcolm Epley, Erlene Wheeler, Dick Yates, Barbara Osborn, Eleanor Thomas, Maryellen Wright and Nancy Humble.

Oregon State college bound this week-end, Johnny West, Betty Westlin, Joy Kent, Maxine Liskey, Margie Clark, Bob and Milton Thompson, Dick Coda, Jimmy Palmer, Bernard and Richard Vaillancour, Jim Case, Billy Radcliffe, Mary O'Brien, Chuck Thurman, Jerry Thorne, Dick Pope, Dick Newman, Janice Bilyeu, Ted Isl, George Long, Lou Mueller and many others.

Margie Palmerston leaves in a day or two for the University of California as does Barbara Roskamp. Betty Cleig returns to Armstrong's in Berkeley, and Shirley Dalton returns to Stanford. Fred Reeves goes back to SOC and Ted to art school in Portland, but it may be the other way around as these twins always have me confused!

Nancy Bennet has been on a long holiday from Mills but goes back sometime next week and Jody Bennet takes off to resume her studies at Vassar. She won't be back until early summer, this time. Margaret Bullard goes back to Reed, and Katharine Newman leaves Sunday for Good Samaritan Hospital to continue her nurse training.

Mary Ann Mills, who has been at San Jose this past term, will enroll at Stanford this term. She leaves with the southbound contingent shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bruce and daughter Marilyn were here this holiday season, guests over New Year's of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Johnson and family of Eldorado street. The Bruces now live in Sacramento.

Major and Mrs. Joseph Mayes were New Year's guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnhisel at their home on Conger avenue. They were married recently in Washington D. C. and were en route to Major Mayes' new post with the army in San Francisco.

Rumor has it that Dr. and Mrs. Hardin Carter are thinking about moving back to Klamath Falls! They left here last year and settled down in San Mateo where daughter Charlotte is attending college. Dr. Carter and son Jim were here just before Christmas and Mrs. Carter's mother, Mrs. Charlotte Martin, returned south with them for the holidays. Needless to say — they'd be welcomed back with open arms.

Farwells were said this week to Mrs. Marguerite Newman and daughter Ann who left New Year's Day to make their home in Payette, Idaho with Mrs. Newman's father, Mr. C. F. Asmussen. Dick and Katharine will continue their schooling in Oregon. The Newmans have made their home here for the past 10 years.

Dr. and Mrs. Dean H. Osborn and daughter Barbara were among the Klamath folks who saw the Rose Bowl game and the Tournament of Roses on New Year's Day in Pasadena. The Osborns will remain south on vacation for a time, but Barbara returns this week-end to her studies at the University of Oregon.

East-West game attendants from Klamath Falls included Mr. and Mrs. George Hillis and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lassett.

Also at the East-West game were Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Landry and Ruth who is home from University of Oregon. The Landrys had as their guests over the holidays their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Wassmann of Eugene.

The lovely greenery of Christmas formed the background for Helen Radcliffe's pretty wedding last Sunday at St. Paul's when she became Mrs. Robert Frederick Grate. Helen adhered to the "something old-something new." She borrowed a white prayer book from Geraldine McKendree, wore the traditional blue satin garter, her pearls were old, and the new was a set of lovely pearl earrings, gift of the groom. The clusters of orange blossoms, honest-to-goodness ones, that Helen wore on either side of her head were sent by Mrs. Radcliffe's cousin, Mrs. George Whitford of Pasadena. Those two nice ushers were the bride's brothers, Tommy and Bill, and the matron-of-honor, the bride's sister, Mary Audrey Stutz, and with Heber giving Helen away, it was an all-around family affair.

Houseguests at the R. C. Woodruff home over the holidays have now departed. They included the Woodruffs' daughter and family, Stan and Joene Staiger and son Bits, and Mr. Woodruff's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weaver of Yakima, Washington.

The Robert B. Webbs of Jacksonville, Oregon, here for the Grate-Radcliffe wedding, are former Lake of the Woods residents and have many friends in this part of Oregon. They returned home Monday.

Many out-of-towners scooted to our town for brief visits and whisked away again right after the holidays — the penalty of our swiftly-paced modern world. Among the visitors was Alice Holmback of Yakima, Washington, who stopped over last week-end while on a visit to Medford to wish happy holidays to the Samuel A. Mushens. She was their

Ann Newman, who left New Year's Day for Payette, Idaho, to make her home with her mother, Mrs. Marguerite Newman, was honored at a number of informal affairs by a group of intimate friends just prior to her departure.

On Monday evening Patty Teale entertained with a slumber party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Teale, 1935 Auburn, and the next morning the girls went to the home of Mary Ann Preston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Preston, 1608 Portland, where they were served breakfast.

On Wednesday, Virginia Van Doren entertained at luncheon for Ann at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John VanDoren, 1874 Melrose, and Wednesday evening Jean Owens was hostess at dinner for Ann at the Vern Owens home on Fremont.

Guests at these parties included Ann, Patty Teale, Mary Ann Preston, Virginia VanDoren and Jean Owens.

Coming Rites

Romantic news was told this week when Mr. and Mrs. Lee McBride announced the betrothal and coming marriage of their daughter, Irma Ruth, to Richard E. Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lowe of 403 Pacific Terrace. The wedding has been set for March 20.

Friends learned of the engagement at an informal tea given at the McBride home on North Ninth street last Sunday afternoon. Guests were school friends of Miss McBride's, home from college for the holidays.

Miniature candle favors held engagement announcements in their candle holders. Mrs. O. E. Thompson poured during tea hours, 2 to 5 o'clock.

Gathering

The annual gathering of a group of friends at the George Stevenson ranch home near Oleno, was enjoyed New Year's Eve when guests gathered for potluck supper.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson and son Stevie were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith and son Russell of Tulalake, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Addison, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnhisel and Sally, Mr. and Mrs. Victor O'Neill, Major and Mrs. Joseph Mayes of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. William Ganong and Bill.

New Year Party

The mid-holiday calendar was dotted with parties as Klamath folk polished off Christmas doings and entered the new year.

New Year's Eve, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen entertained a group of friends at their home on Hillside. The party was held before the big Reames formal dance.

Wed in East

Along with holiday greetings, friends in Klamath Falls have received word of the marriage of Ethel Bremer, formerly a well-known resident of this city.

She exchanged vows during the holiday season with Dennis E. Silver, and the two are at home in Columbia, N. J. Their plans call for a wedding trip soon to South America.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke were New Year's Day dinner hosts to Dr. and Mrs. James M. Hilton, Jean, Bob and Dick, and Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart, Angus and Sara, and Ruth, Virginia and Frederick Roenicke.

Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Putnam were Sunday evening hosts at a dinner party at their home on Huron street this week.

Christmas decorations set the party motif with a lighted Christmas tree and many holiday candles about the rooms.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bogatay, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Deller, Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. John Schubert, Mr. and Mrs. George Filcraft and Mr. and Mrs. Putnam.

FRIENDS LEARNED of the engagement and forthcoming marriage of Irma Ruth McBride to Richard E. Lowe, when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee McBride, announced the news at a tea last Sunday afternoon. Date for the nuptials has been set for March 20.
