Jolly Neighbors will meet Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Jackie Bedord, 2535 Orchard way, for a luncheon. Election of officers will be held following the lunch.

Red Bluff Beef Show Plans Laid

Plans for the west's largest annual registered beef cattle auction to be held February 5, 6 and 7 at Red Bluff, Calif. have now been completed, according to Charles Stover, chairman of the Tehama county cattlemen's committee, in charge of the affair.

Total listings of 363 head by 41 breeders from California, Oregon, Wyoming, Utah, Washington and Montana have been received, Stover said.

Consignments include 282 Hereford and 16 Shorthorn range and herd bulls of breeding age and 65 bred first-calf registered Hereford heifers.

Plans for the affair, as listed by Stover, include a show and cattle grading demonstration on February 5, a registered Hereford female and Shorthorn bull sale on the 6th and the sale of 282 Hereford range and herd bulls on the 7th.

At the February 1947 sale, 353 Hereford bulls were sold to 161 cattlemen living in 37 California counties and in the states of Oregon, Washington and Nevada.

Klamath Falls cattlemen purchasing bulls at last year's sale include Charles E. Drew and son, Geary brothers, Henry Grimes, Mabel Liskey, who is consigning to the 1948 sale, and the Yamey Land and Cattle company.

High School News and Comment

One hundred and fifty entries for the state art exhibit will be going up to Portland from Klamath Falls by the deadline, January 16. The exhibit will be held in the Meier and Frank building February 2 through 12. The paintings will be competing for the state and national awards as well as scholarships to various art schools throughout the country. Last year the works of Pat Baker and Andy Bergloff were sent to the national finals in Pittsburgh.

The big affair of the year for the Retail Selling club will be held this Friday night in the Winema hotel banquet room. The occasion will be the second annual employe-employe banquet. Speakers for the evening will include Winston Purvine, OVS director, and Harold Teale, KUH director of vocational education. Entertainment planned will be a tap dance by Gene Stroud and vocal numbers from Mrs. Chuck Cecil. Handling the arrangements for the banquet is Retail Selling club President Ruby Lee Davis.

Another musical broadcast will be presented by the music department a week from tonight, January 13, as disclosed by Director of Music Andrew Loney Jr. The program will be heard over KFLW from 7:30 to 8, and will feature high school ensembles and soloists.

The first KU matinee dance of 1948 is planned for Wednesday, sponsored by the Honor society. With the regular admission of 10 cents charged, the dance will take up at 2:30. This dance will be one of the last things before studying for final exams require, and everyone might as well enjoy themselves while they may. After considerable debate among the members of Honor society, the theme has been changed to Leap Year Frolic. The girls will be the ones who have to use the initiative, ask the boys to dance and buy them cokes and doughnuts. In addition to the records, music will be supplied by KU's own "German" band.

Starting Thursday, Latin club salesgirls will visit the study halls instead of home rooms, peddling "Mighty Pelicans." Latin club must sell at least 100 copies of the song in order to cover the cost of printing. The 15 girls who will sell are Margaret Wedel, Donna Rae Worden, Dolores Robatek, Jean Lovell.

City Council Puts Clamps On Boxing

The city council last night, at the request of Councilman Wendell Smith, put off making 1948 appointments to the Klamath Falls boxing commission until further study can be made into the workings of the commission, particularly in connection with recent fights staged here.

The fight Councilman Smith and others want to talk over was a debacle of November 4 when Jack Snapp of Merrill, a good middle-weight, knocked out Irish Johnny Taylor of Oakland in two rounds.

Many fight fans will argue that Taylor was not knocked out but simply took a dive. The latter has not been proven. At any rate, boxing went into an eclipse here after that and no boxing matches have been scheduled for the armory. Local boxers are pursuing the profession in other cities.

Councilman Smith said today he did not question the integrity of Dr. George H. Adler, Remy Stein or Les Wright, members of the commission, or Promoter Mack Lillard, but he thought some stricter instructions should be laid down for the commission to follow.

Smith said that the commission was a good one but might need "jacking up." The commission members are appointed by the mayor, with approval of the council, and veterans organizations here benefit from ring proceeds.

Probably Thursday night Smith and other councilmen will meet to discuss a set of rules of action they will ask be applied to the boxing commission from this time on.

"Cooling Off" Sentence Given

TULELAKE, Jan. 6—E. E. Tolleson, 54, native of Arkansas and a five-timer in police court here, will spend the next six months in the county clinic at Yreka. Tolleson repeatedly threatened to "burn somebody up" so was given time out to cool off by Police Judge Long on Monday.

Officers sent Sarah Louise Hayden, 37, also of Yreka, back home Monday with a 90-day stay in the county jail as an alternative if she failed to leave town. She was picked up on a vagrancy charge.

Restaurants Rated Here

The Klamath county health department has completed a survey of 82 restaurants, taverns and the like in Klamath county, grading them in accordance with a state sanitary code which is comparable to the grading system used in the city.

As of Monday, the county had 29 grade A eating places, 45 grade B places, two grade C and six ungraded.

The latter include places closed for remodeling, closed for the winter or just recently opened. Fineart restaurants, hospitals, schools or camp cooking places are not listed in this grading.

Minor Surgery—Mrs. Sarah Fleming of 331 N. 10th, had minor surgery at Hillside hospital Tuesday morning. She was dismissed later.

Legion Post Hosts Meet

Klamath Falls post No. 8, American Legion and auxiliary, will be hosts to department officers and visiting Legionnaires who will meet in Klamath Falls January 14 for the annual district conference at the Veterans Memorial hall.

Jack S. Maris of Canyonville state commander of the American Legion auxiliary, will head the group of state officers who will attend the meeting.

Mrs. Ruth Coyner of Bend, state president of the auxiliary, will hold a separate conference in the afternoon with the auxiliary, assisted by other state officers.

The session will close with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p. m.

Feast of Epiphany To Be Observed

St. Paul's Episcopal church announces the observance of the Feast of the Epiphany Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. There will be a celebration of the Feast of Lights and after the service, in which the full choir will participate, there will be refreshments served in the parish hall.

This is the traditional observance and an annual affair at St. Paul's, and visitors are cordially invited.

In Hospital—Mrs. Rosita Heavner of 763 California, who has been in Hillside hospital for several days recovering from minor surgery, was permitted to return to her home Tuesday morning.

"Slack Up or Crack Up" It is the winter season, the roads will be icy. Too many drivers approach, at too great a speed, an intersection where they must stop, with the result they skid and a crash results.

YOU WOMEN WHO SUFFER HOT FLASHES then FEEL CHILLY— Here's Good News!

Are you between the ages of 38 and 52 and going through that trying "middle-age" period peculiar to women? Does this make you suffer from hot flashes, feel clammy, so nervous, irritable, weak? Then try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms! It's famous for this! Many wise "middle-age" women take Pinkham's Compound regularly to help build up resistance against this distress. Pinkham's Compound contains no opiates—no habit-forming drugs. It helps nature (you know what we mean). This great medicine also has what doctors call a stomachic tonic effect.

NOTE: Do you may prefer LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S TABLETS with added iron.
