

Sunday Ceremony Is Read In Medford

Sacred Heart Catholic church in Medford was the setting for the wedding of Eva M. Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gustafson of that city, and Robert L. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Baker of Tulelake.

Rev. Father Albert Rodakowski officiated at the ceremony read at 2 o'clock, Sunday, December 28. Bruno Pellegrini played incidental music and the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin trimmed with seed pearls. A white satin bonnet held her fingertip veil of net. A white orchid and matching ribbon streamers marked her white prayer book.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert C. Taylor of Medford. Her gown was of green moire taffeta and with it she wore a matching pleated bonnet and carried a bouquet of red carnations.

Bridesmaid was Patricia Baker, sister of the bridegroom. Her frock was identical to Mrs. Taylor's, and her bouquet of red carnations. Wendy Jean Taylor of Longview, Wash., niece of the bride, was flower girl in a floor length frock of dotted swiss with yellow ribbon trim. Her bonnet was trimmed with flowers, and she carried a nosegay of yellow and white blossoms.

Lewis Baker, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Ted Fish Jr., and Tom Waldrip of Tulelake and Robert C. Taylor of Medford, brother of the bride, were ushers.

The Robert Taylor home was the scene of the reception. Mrs. A. Z. Dean and Mrs. George E. Gates Sr. were at the punch bowl. Mrs. William B. Taylor served the bride's cake, and Joan Dean was at the guest book.

Mrs. Gustafson, mother of the bride, wore a suit of black with accessories of a rose shade, and a gardenia corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore winter white with black accessories and a gardenia corsage.

A motor trip to California and mid-western cities was the plan of the couple for their honeymoon. For traveling Mrs. Baker wore a Glen plaid suit with brown accessories and a white orchid at the shoulder.

The bride attended the University of Oregon, and the bridegroom, Oregon State college.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Guy Allman, aunt of bride; Bette King, cousin of bride; William B. Taylor, brother of bride, and Mrs. Taylor, Wendy Jean Taylor, all of Longview, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Crawford Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Don Crawford Jr., John Cross, James Sullivan, Thomas Waldrip, Theodore Fish Jr., Thomas Fish, Franklin Baker, brother of groom, Patricia Baker, sister of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baker, parents of groom, all from Tulelake; Raymond Clark Brumbach from Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beier, Mrs. F. A. Rogers, grandmother of groom, Portland; Robert Marsden and Marian Marsden, Toronto, Canada.

Gingerbread was made into the shapes of men and animals as well as letters of the alphabet for English children as early as the 15th century.

KIRBY
Vacuum Cleaners
Lifetime Guarantee
Free Demonstration
Telephone 9200

PURE AMERICANA

Exclusive with JOYCE HUBRITE. This bold Bayadere Print inspired by Primitive Guatemalan artistry. The unpressed pleated skirt makes your every step poetry in motion. A crisp, cool MALLINSON Spun Rayon. Black, Luggage, Green, Purple on White Grounds. 10 to 20.

12.95

AS ADVERTISED IN MADEMOISELLE

FOR INCALCULABLE SMARTNESS

Joyce Hubrite

Miller's

COTTON SHOP — 2nd FLOOR

Look Ahead To SPRING

Capping your head with one of our new spring hats . . . will drive away that winter-weary wardrobe look! Never were millinery modes so refreshing and lovely as the grand showing by BETH, SHORLORN, GAGE and STETSON.

- MILANS • IMPORTED BAKU • PICAPEL
- ONIONSKIN ROUGH STRAWS
- IMPORTED SATURNES • FELTS

A complete showing of the newest shapes and shades . . . in exclusively designed modes with flowers, ribbons, nylon nets, feathers with flowers, and tailored modes by STETSON!

$7.95 to $30.00

HAT BAR — 2nd FLOOR

as advertised in Mademoiselle

Junior-Deb
ORIGINAL

Pure gabardine by the American Woolen Company . . . tailored by Junior-Deb in the finest hand-made tradition . . . inspired by an elegant Parisian Original . . . brilliantly accented with those style details so widely acclaimed in the new fashion mode. In the loveliest spring tones; junior sizes.

BEIGE
and
BLUE

$59.50

GIBSON
GIRL
REVISITED...

As charming as its turn-of-the-century counterpart . . . the blouse now scattered with great coin dots and tailored even more precisely than before . . . the skirt now climbing to rib-heights and boasting a flare-pleated back. The blouse of rayon crepe in white with black or brown dots. The skirt of rayon faille in black or brown. Sizes 10 to 18.

$16.95

Miller's

JUNIOR DRESS SHOP — 2nd FLOOR