GRAIN FUTURES LOW TODAY

CHICAGO, Jan. 8 (AP)—Cash corn rang up a new record high on the board of trade today, but quotations on grain futures were lower most of the day.

A car of No. 1 yellow corn sold in the cash market at $2.77 a bushel, a record price for yellow corn in this market. However, cash prices slumped late in the session.

The May oats futures made a new seasonal peak and March oats, which is lightly traded, went to an all-time record for any oats contract. A rally toward the close produced fractional gains in most contracts. The record high for March oats was $1.30½ while the seasonal peak for the May delivery was $1.23⅞.

Wheat closed ⅛-1⅛ higher, May $2.95-$2.95½, corn was ¼-¾ higher, May $2.57¼-½, oats were ¼-1⅛ higher, May $1.23-$1.23⅛, and soybeans were 1 cent lower to ½ higher, March $4.20.

Most Stocks Show Gains

NEW YORK, Jan. 8 (AP)— Stocks generally leaned to the rising side in today's market without any particular bullish news inspiration.

Prices hardened in the fourth hour after considerable early irregularity. Transfers held to around 800,000 shares.

Plymouth Oil was the star performer, climbing 8 points to a new high for the move on word of a substantial increase in the company's petroleum reserves. It eventually slipped from the best quotation.

A pleasing dividend buoyed Textron, which also touched a 1947-48 top. Lukens Steel earnings gave this issue a lift. In front most of the day were Pacific Telephone, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Bethlehem Steel, Goodyear, Sears Roebuck, American Can, International Telephone, Consolidated Natural Gas, American Smelting, Pacific Western Oil, Paramount Pictures, Bath Iron Works and Texas Gulf Producing. Insurance shares came out for the first time this year on a 10,000-share block, up a shade at 7.

Railway bonds gave a good account of themselves. Major commodities ran into opposition after a forenoon bulge. Cotton, toward the finish, was off 5 to 75 cents a bale. At Chicago wheat ended up ½ to 1½ cents a bushel, corn ¼ to ¾, and oats ¼ to 1⅛.

Slip Cover Books Here

"Measuring for Slip Covers," a leaflet, has just been received by the county home demonstration office.

This information compiled by Lois A. Lutz, former specialist in home management, for Oregon State college, contains illustrations and gives comprehensive steps and rules for estimating slip cover yardage requirements.

The first step in making a well-fitted slip cover is to measure the chair to be covered. Amounts of yardage needed will vary according to the size and type of chair, pattern in the material, width of material, trim and personal preference of the homemaker. A plain material or small all-over design may be cut more economically than a large pattern. Approximately seven to nine yards of material is required for the average upholstered chair.

To insure a well-tailored slip cover, and to avoid waste of materials, the measurements of the chair should be carefully taken. All material used will give greater satisfaction if it has been preshrunk.

Mrs. Fowler has been in a hospital in the San Francisco bay area recovering from injuries including a fractured hip. Fowler, manager of the Klamath Valley Lumber company, and daughter Janet will accompany Mrs. Fowler home. The family was on a lengthy motor trip at the time of the accident.

Victor Phillips of the First Methodist church officiating. Commitment service and interment in Klamath Memorial park. Friends are respectfully invited to attend.

OBITUARIES

CELESTINO (CHARLES) COMOTTO

Celestino (Charles) Comotto, a resident of Klamath Falls for several months, passed away in this city on Wednesday, January 7, 1948, at 10:30 a. m. following an illness of seven months. He was a native of Frinco, Italy, and at the time of his death was aged 70 years one month and 27 days. Surviving are a brother, Pasquale Comotto of Avon, Conn. The remains rest in the Earl Whitlock Funeral home, Pine at 6th. Notice of funeral to be announced at a later date.

RAMONA FAYE LALO

Ramona Faye Lalo, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Lalo, passed away at the family residence in Chiloquin, Ore., on Wednesday, January 7, 1948, at 9 a. m. Besides her parents she is survived by two brothers, Roland Jr. and Gerald Roy. The remains are at Ward's Klamath Funeral home, 925 High. Notice of the funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Lodge Head Attends Meet

CASCADE SUMMIT, Jan. 8—Manager O. O. Bowers of Odell Summit lodge left January 8 for Portland to attend the annual meeting of the Oregon state game commission. He will represent J. S. Badley of Badley Investment company, Portland, regarding better fishing facilities on Odell lake.

Fishermen will recall that the forest service unloaded about 50,000 rainbow trout four to seven inches in length, into Odell lake prior to last season's fishing. However, it appears the Dolly Vardens have a hearty appetite for other little fish and have exhibited their cannibalistic tendencies to the extent that the rainbows are almost non-existent.

Contrary to popular belief, radar probably will be of little value in locating hidden minerals in the crust of the earth. Microwaves have practically no depth penetration.

Camp Fire News

All-City Skating Party

Over 100 Camp Fire Girls and leaders skated together at the skating rink on So. 6th street Tuesday, December 30. The party, sponsored by the local Leaders association, was free to all Camp Fire Girls and each girl was furnished shoe skates by the rink free of charge.

Among the leaders chaperoning the party were Mrs. Dorothy McMahon, Mrs. Larry Martz, Mrs. Charles Kerr, Mrs. Helen Egan and Mrs. Margaret Loomis.

Swimming

The KUHS swimming pool will be open to all Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls on Friday evening, January 9. There will be instructional swimming for Blue Birds beginning at 6:15 and for Camp Fire Girls at 7:15. All Camp Fire and Blue Bird leaders are urged to help their groups take advantage of this night of swimming.

Ohampi Camp Fire

The Ohampi group met Thursday, December 18, at Mrs. Egan's home. The girls had a very nice Christmas tree and exchanged gifts. Sharlene Loomis acted as Santa Claus. Della Wick brought some very nice homemade cookies. They played games, then went home.

Sacajawea Horizon Club

The Sacajawea Horizon club doughnut sales at KUHS have resulted in the opening of a bank account, which they are very proud of. It isn't all work; the girls have a program every meeting. Mrs. Virginia Calhoun, cosmetician, talked on skin care at one meeting, giving some useful beauty tips. Other talks will follow.

On a different line, the group went to Weyerhaeuser Timber company where, guided by Ted Durment, the girls went through the mill, watching the different steps of lumber production.

Although the club's Christmas party held at the home of Beth Bunch, vice president, was fun, the girls were not concerned only with themselves. Each one brought a toy for a needy boy or girl. These gifts are distributed through the Christmas Project for Needy Children to make theirs a merry one, too.

The party was white elephant, each girl bringing something she didn't want or couldn't use to exchange with someone else.
