

Officers Elected By Church Circles

On Thursday afternoon, January 8, the newly-reorganized circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church met to elect officers. Mrs. L. K. Phelps of 1937 Auburn was hostess to Ruth circle, and Mrs. John Yaden led the opening devotional service. Mrs. George Casper acted as chairman pro tem and called for nominations. Elected to serve were Mrs. D. R. Stebbins, chairman; Mrs. Casper, vice chairman; Mrs. W. A. Carleton, treasurer, and Mrs. Wesley McKaig, secretary.

It was decided to have a program at each circle meeting and the program chairman will be Mrs. Glenn Kent, assisted by Mrs. E. L. Putnam and Mrs. William Wales Jr. At the general meeting in the church parlors on January 22, Ruth circle will serve tea following the business session and program.

Esther circle met with Mrs. C. H. Barnstable of 123 High, and she was assisted by Mrs. Chester Saunders and Mrs. Bert Hegler. Mrs. Mark Taylor, outgoing chairman, led the devotions and acted as chairman pro tem until the new officers were elected. They are Mrs. Dexter Elliott, chairman, Mrs. Earl Redman, vice chairman, Mrs. J. G. Bramhall, treasurer, and Mrs. Mark Taylor, secretary.

The meeting of Martha circle was held in the church parlors, and Mrs. D. A. Kenyon, Mrs. W. P. Withrow and Mrs. John Riach were hostesses. Mrs. J. C. Hunt will be the new chairman, Mrs. W. C. Preston, secretary, and Mrs. Joe Kennedy, treasurer.

Mary circle met with Mrs. Allen Mocabee Sr. at 1607 Crescent. Mrs. E. W. Mocabee was assisting hostess. Mrs. Victor Phillips was in charge of the devotions and Mrs. Steve Moss, chairman pro tem, was elected chairman. Mrs. E. W. Mocabee, vice chairman, Mrs. Charles Howry, secretary, and Mrs. Elizabeth Norris, treasurer. Tentative plans were made for the coming year's activities, and special music and a social hour completed the afternoon. Nineteen were present.

Dessert was served to the circles at 1:30 and all are planning for a series of luncheons to be given at the church before long.

Two candidates, Barbara Perkins and Mrs. Helen Simons, were initiated into the Royal Neighbors of America at the group's regular meeting held in the KC hall.

Mrs. Sarah Harrington received the day's special gift. The charter was draped in memory of Alfreda Steinmetz and Joseph Machado. A visitor of the day was Mrs. Veta Purvine of Salem. Officers-elect practiced for installation to be held January 23. The installation will be an open meeting, and neighbors and friends are invited. The next regular business meeting will be held at 2:30 Friday, January 23, in the KC hall.

The Eastern Star Social club met January 2 at the Masonic temple with the new president, Mrs. W. L. Poole, presiding.

After a short business meeting, refreshments were served. The tea table was attractively set with white chrysanthemums and white tapers. The remainder of the afternoon was spent playing bridge. High score went to Mrs. Orva Beard, second to Mrs. Will Wood, and the special prize was received by Mrs. Leo N. Huls.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Howard R. Listoe and Mrs. F. W. Peak.

Dorothy Adams was honored on her birthday Sunday with a party given by her mother, Mrs. Donald Adams, and Mrs. Arthur Wiley, at the home of her parents, 4759 Altamont.

The occasion was Dorothy's 11th birthday and there were 12 guests. The guests were Shirley, Clifford and Bonnie Hayes; Betty Williams, Gilbert, Jerry, Bobby and Janice Schatz; Phyllis and Alda May Karl, and Donald and Ruth Adams.

TULELAKE — Mayor and Mrs. Ralph Fausett celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary January 10th by dining at the Sportman's hotel with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hendricks as their guests. Mrs. Hendricks is a niece of Mrs. Fausett's. The party later attended the dance in the American Legion hall.

New Officers

The Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church started off the new year last Wednesday evening under the direction of the new officers, Mrs. Roy Whytal, president; Mrs. Andre Lambert, vice president; Mrs. Frank Tarr, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. C. M. Lolicoma, liaison officer.

After a short business meeting, the hostesses served refreshments to guests who later played cards. Hostesses were Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. Stewart Snell and Mrs. W. L. Solga.

Wintertime decorations made the parish hall festive, with snowmen and lighted candles carrying the theme.

Prizes went to Mrs. R. O. Sprout, Mrs. E. J. Howell and Mrs. Carl Williams. Guests for the evening included Mrs. Passmore, Margaret Steensen, Faye Steinsiefer, Opal Brauner, Ruth Boyd and Marilyn Sparks.

The next meeting will be held January 21 at 8 o'clock in the parish hall. Members and their guests are invited.

Community Club

Mrs. Louise Milani entertained the Midland Community club on January 8 at her home in Altamont. Members who still have blocks for the "state flower" quilt are asked to complete them and turn them in as soon as possible.

The quilt will be sold to raise money for the club. A scarf donated by Gerlie Huff was sold at auction to Helen Peterson. Queenly Jannsen was awarded the special prize. Members present were Minnie Andrieu and Sylvia, Marie Andrieu, Thelma Houck, Carolyn Huff and Linda and Leo, Gerlie Huff, Queenly Jannsen, Emma Lamb, Pearl

Mothers' Club

The Mothers club of Sacred Heart academy held its regular monthly meeting January 7 in the school auditorium with a very good attendance. Sister Faustina presented vocalists, Patsy Clarke and Susan Vandenberg, accompanied at the piano by Louetta McTaggart and Julia Harnden, accompanied by Janice Larsen.

The president, Mrs. Vincent Hurlihy, led the opening prayer and conducted the business session. Plans were formulated for the school carnival to be held February 10, and it was decided that a final meeting of the chairmen and their committees be held later in the month to complete remaining plans. The room count showed that the flag was again won by the first and second grades.

Refreshments were served in the dining room by Mrs. W. T. Lineham, assisted by Mrs. Joe Bruner, Mrs. Lawrence Amberg, Mrs. L. M. Durrell, Mrs. Arthur Wells and Mrs. Bert Carter.

Co-Hostesses

Mrs. Roy Huff and Mrs. Carolyn Huff were co-hostesses at a shower honoring Mrs. James Flowers on January 7 at the former's home in Midland.

Minnie Andrieu was winner of the afternoon's prize. Many lovely gifts were given to the guest of honor, and a number of friends who were unable to attend sent gifts.

Refreshments were served to Mildred Largen, Freda Flowers, Pearl McPherson, Blanche Flowers, Minnie Andrieu, Marie Andrieu, Pearl Botens, Anna K. Sutton, Mable Thomas, Pauline Gray, Anna Hickman, Edna L. Travers, Angeline Milani, Margie, Donna and Georgia Flowers, Linda and Leo Huff, Sylvia Andrieu, Carol Hickman and the hostesses.
