Strong Buying Boosts Wheat

CHICAGO, Jan. 15 (AP)—An easier trend in grains ended abruptly on the board of trade today when the weather bureau forecast a severe cold wave for the Midwest and reports from Kansas City said the government had re-entered the wheat market in the Southwest.

These two items, available to the trade at about the same time, touched off a strong buying wave. Losses extending to around 2 cents were cancelled and gains substituted.

Corn went to a new record high in the closing minutes when May sold at $2.69½, up ¼ cent from yesterday's peak.

Wheat closed 1½-3¾ higher, May $3.03½-¾, corn was ¼ lower to 2 cents higher, May $2.69¼-⅜, oats were ¼ higher, May $1.27¾-⅞, and soybeans were unchanged to 2 cents lower, March $4.38.

Stocks Show Mild Recovery

NEW YORK, Jan. 15 (AP)—The stock market negotiated mild recoveries here and there in today's apathetic session but many leaders continued to doze in losing territory.

Transfers tapered to around 750,000 shares, smallest for a full stretch in two weeks.

Resistant were Dresser Industries, which touched a 1947-48 peak; U. S. Rubber, Woolworth, Douglas Aircraft, Distillers corporation, American Telephone, Consolidated Edison, American Smelting, Pacific Western Oil, Mission corporation, Texas Pacific Land Trust and Southern Pacific.

Backward most of the time were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Santa Fe, Great Northern Railway, Standard Oil (N. J.), Plymouth Oil, Paramount Pictures, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, International Harvester, Caterpillar Tractor, Kennecott American Can and Allied Chemical.

Bonds were mixed. Cotton, toward the finish, was off 10 to 35 cents a bale. At Chicago grains enjoyed a belated rally. Wheat ended up 1½ to 3 cents a bushel, corn down ¼ to up 2 cents and oats up ¼ cents.

Fair Trade Law Stops Grocery Plan

PORTLAND, Jan. 15 (AP)—Oregon's fair trade law has halted grocer J. A. Remboldt's promotion of "food at wholesale" to budget-worried housewives who paid a monthly club fee in lieu of profit mark-up.

The St. John's district grocer said the law requires retailers to charge at least six per cent over wholesale prices. He had enrolled 60 housewives at $5 a month under a plan that gave them a 20 per cent discount from regular retail prices.
