Returns From South — Mrs. J. Frank Adams of Merrill returned Saturday from a hospital in Oakland, Calif. where she was a patient over the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Adams with her mother, Mrs. Clara Shaw of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale West and young daughter Sara of Merrill, are completing plans for their trip to the Hawaiian Islands. They will fly from here to San Francisco on January 27, and will then take the Clipper and fly to Honolulu to spend a month or six weeks.

Birthday — Friends of B. S. "Back" Grigsby, Klamath pioneer, were visiting with him Wednesday in the business district. "Back" returned recently from Portland where he had eye surgery in a hospital there but he is quite recovered from his illness. He will celebrate his 85th birthday on January 26, and his daughters will be with him at that time. Elizabeth Sanders of Portland is expected here for the celebration.

At Home — Mrs. Nina W. Currier is at her home, 1143 Pine. She was discharged from Klamath Valley hospital this week, and is recovering from hurts received in an automobile accident.

To Los Angeles — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klug of Portland, accompanied by Mrs. H. W. Letzke of Klamath Falls, left today for a brief visit with relatives and friends in Los Angeles, Calif.

From Dunsmuir — Mrs. O. F. Williams and Mrs. J. Vronsky of Dunsmuir drove to Klamath Falls Wednesday to spend the day shopping.

In Hillside — Clyde Darity of Weyerhaeuser Timber company, is a patient at Hillside hospital where he is receiving medical care.

Visitor — Earl Ager of Tullake was a Klamath Falls business visitor on Tuesday.

Medical Care — Monte Cline, well known Bly resident, is a patient at Hillside hospital.

March of Dimes drive workers began in earnest today, the first day of the polo drive, to work for donations from Klamath county people. Though no definite goal has been set, the plan is to surpass the $8000 contributed last year. From left, Mrs. Lena Dennis, a member of the Klamath County Quota club and chairman of the project of placing coin containers in restaurants, stores and other gathering places in the city; Doris Thompson, March of Dimes office secretary, and Alice Vitus, president of the Quota club and a worker in the drive.

Medical Care — Monte Cline, well known Bly resident, is a patient at Hillside hospital.

Improving — The many friends of 11-year-old Karen Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Porter of Van Ness street, will be happy to learn that Karen will be able to return to her studies in the fifth grade at Roosevelt school this next week. Karen has been quite ill at the family home this fall and has been absent from her classes for the past six weeks. She celebrates her 11th birthday today, January 15.

In North — E. M. Chilcote, well known Klamath realtor, is spending several days in Portland and Salem on business. Last night Chilcote attended the annual banquet of the Salem Board of Realtors. He is expected home this week.

In Hospital — Robert Platt, night clerk at the Metropolitan hotel, was moved by ambulance from the hotel to Klamath Valley hospital last night after he was stricken with a sudden illness.

Surgery — Loyal Lust, 711 Mitchell, had major surgery at Hillside hospital this morning. Lust is an employe of the Klamath county road department.

In Hillside — Mrs. Elsie Rowe, 1737 Wall, is a patient at Hillside hospital where she had major surgery this morning.

Recovering — Mrs. Reece Bailey, nee Mary Lou Gray of Lakeview, is recovering in Hillside hospital from a recent illness.

Pelican Post — Members of Pelican post 1385, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet tonight at 8 p. m. in the KC hall.

Treatment — Earl S. Sheridan of 5042 Miller, salesman for Fyock-Moon, is receiving medical care for an infected foot at Hillside hospital.

To Lake — A party of Klamath folks made it into Lake of the Woods last Sunday but on their return discouraged travel over the road. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Merrill and two guests took the Merrill Jeep to the lake and Jim Elledge and Mrs. Noela Phaneuf, a summer home owner, went up in a truck. They all reported the road good to the foot of the hill but beyond that point travel was very difficult. The group was entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morse, summer home caretakers.

Vet To Roseburg — The Professional Ambulance service left this morning for Roseburg, transporting a young veteran to the hospital there for treatment of paralysis. Ralph Rust made the trip.

Moves — Mrs. Elsie Siemens of the county tax office has moved to her new home which she recently purchased at the corner of Fremont and Eldorado.

Recovering — Mrs. Joe F. Bellotti of 2467 Wantland is recovering at Klamath Valley hospital from major surgery last week. She is able to receive visitors.
