

Ceremony Read At Klamath Lutheran

The Klamath Lutheran church was the setting for the wedding of Barbara DuBois and Bruce Braaten of this city, who exchanged vows at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, December 28. Rev. S. M. Topness read the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marie Staub and E. U. DuBois, of Klamath Falls, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Braaten.

Erling A. Melby sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" as guests assembled. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her gown was of white slipper satin, fashioned with a sheer yoke and a seed pearl trim, and ending in a long train. A high crown of seed pearls held her short veil in place. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings, a gift of her mother. Her bouquet was of white gardenias and roses, arranged on a white testament, which was borrowed from Arla Collins.

Maid of honor was Troy Hilton, and bridesmaids were Hazel Quigley and Mercedes Collins. All wore gowns of brocaded satin with matching mitts. The maid of honor carried white carnations, and the bridesmaids red carnations, and all wore red carnation bandeaux in their hair.

The flower girls were Margie Wetman and Vickie Mattox. They wore frocks of white net and carried baskets of red rose petals. Donald Isensee was ring bearer. The bridal couple exchanged vows before an altar flanked with copper baskets of red and white blossoms.

The bride's mother chose a light green suit with brown accessories for the wedding, and Mrs. Braaten, mother of the bridegroom, wore a pink afternoon dress with brown accessories. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

Best man was Frank Hall, and O. E. Thompson, Ralph Ovgard, LeRoy Overen and Eddie Hall were ushers.

Some 200 guests attended the reception in the church parlors following the wedding.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Braaten chose Sacramento, Calif. for their wedding trip and returned to Klamath Falls where they are at home at 532 N. 8th.

The Thimble club of Neighbors of Woodcraft met for an afternoon of sewing on Tuesday, January 13, and the hostess served refreshments to the seven members present.

Betty Lou Shadduck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Shadduck of this city, recently became the bride of Perry King Watson, son of Ex-taltee Watson, also of Klamath Falls. The rites were read by the Rev. Victor Phillips at the First Methodist church.

The bride chose a white satin gown with a fingertip veil and a bouquet of talisman roses. Her only jewelry was a locket belonging to the bridegroom's mother. The penny in her slipper was given by Mrs. Mike Catalano.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Jerry Watson, who wore a gown of blue and carried a bouquet of pink and yellow carnations.

Bridesmaids were Lee Lorraine Shadduck, cousin of the bride, and Doris Roberson. Both were gowned in frocks of blue. Best man was Jerry Watson, brother of the bridegroom, and ushers were Calvin Worley, R. J. Ratcliff and Archie Hale.

Mrs. Shadduck wore a black and white two-piece suit with a gardenia corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of blue, with silver trim, and had a pink rosebud corsage.

A reception was held in the blue room of the Willard hotel. The couple have returned from a brief wedding trip north and are at home in Chiloquin.

Engaged

MALIN—The engagement of Jean Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Harris of Summer Lake, was announced at her sorority, Kappa Delta, at Oregon State college at Corvallis. She is the bride-elect of John Loosley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Loosley of Malin.

Both are OSC students. Jean is a senior, and John, who is studying civil engineering. Plans are for a June wedding.

Social Club

Prosperity Rebekah lodge social club met in the IOOF hall Wednesday for a potluck luncheon and business meeting. Eighteen members and guests were present. Thirty dollars were turned over to the fund toward a new carpet for the lodge hall. The following officers were elected for the coming term: Pat McManus, president; Agnes Vasak, vice president; Arloa Andrus, secretary-treasurer.

On January 26 the club will meet for dessert and the hostesses will be Bernice McCracken and Grace Gerue.

Club Luncheon

Rites Solemnized At Sacred Heart

Rosemary Zupan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike J. Zupan, became the bride of Frank R. Bruner, son of Mrs. Katherine Bruner of Anchorage, Alaska, in a double ring ceremony Saturday morning, January 3. Vows were exchanged at a 10:30 mass at Sacred Heart Catholic church with the Rev. Father Timothy P. Casey officiating. Pink and white carnations banked the altar.

The traditional wedding processional and recessional were played by Sister Faustina, and the Sacred Heart choir sang "Ave Maria" and "Pans Angelicus."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with long, fitted sleeves. Her long veil was held in place with a crown of seed pearls and lace.

The bride carried a white prayer book, gift of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Knight, marked with a single orchid and satin ribbon streamers. For jewelry she wore her mother's diamond earrings.

Annie Zupan, sister of the bride was maid of honor, and wore a light blue net formal. Her arm bouquet was of pink carnations, matching the crown of flowers in her hair.

Pete Zupan, brother of the bride, was best man, and Mike J. Zupan Jr., and Joe Bruner were ushers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. The couple cut the first slice of their pretty wedding cake.

After a brief wedding trip, the new Mr. and Mrs. Bruner will make their home in Seattle, Wash., where he will attend school for several months. Later they will leave for Alaska to reside.

The bridegroom's mother was unable to attend the wedding.

A new light-weight piano has been built. The miniature "K" piano has 64 keys and weighs only 80 pounds. In its traveling case, the instrument can be carried on train and checked with luggage.

NEW WORTHY advisor of the Tulelake assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, is Shirley Heck. Miss Heck and other officers were installed in special ceremonies Wednesday evening. —Jones-Miller
