GRAINS SHOW SHARP DROP

CHICAGO, Jan. 19 (AP)—Grains dropped sharply on the board of trade today on selling touched off by anti-inflation proposals submitted to the senate foreign relations committee by Bernard Baruch.

Losses extended to around 5 cents in wheat at times. Liquidation came from both commission houses and local traders. Some support was evident in wheat early from Southwestern interests, suggesting government purchasing of cash wheat, but it halted the decline only temporarily.

Weakness in securities, cotton and other markets had an influence on grains. Stop-loss orders were uncovered on the way down, accelerating the drop.

Among aBruch's proposals was one suggesting a reduction in food and agricultural prices in exchange for guaranteeing farmers an assured price for their crops for the next three years.

Wheat closed 5 to6¼ lower, May $2.96⅝-½, corn was 1½ to 4 lower, May $2.63½-⅝, oats were 1⅛-3¾ lower, May $1.25⅝-1.25, and soybeans were 7 to 8 cents lower, March $4.25½.

The commodity Credit corporation announced it purchased 750,000 bushels of wheat at Chicago and 235,000 bushels at Kansas City last Friday.

Wheat—	Open	High	Low	Close
March	3.09	3.09	3.06¾	3.06¾-

Stocks Hit Skids Again

NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (AP)—Stocks were on the skids today for the fifth straight Monday with market volume one of the best since December 31.

Pessimistic selling by professionals and others ruled from the opening. Dealings were quiet until a brief fast downturn around midday when leading rails, oils and industrials dropped 1 to 2 or more points. The pace then slowed and extreme losses were reduced in the majority of cases near the close. Transfers ran to around 1,100,000 shares.

Conspicuous on the decline were Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, Illinois Central, Plymouth Oil, Standard Oil (N.J.), Mission Corp., Pacific Western Oil, U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Chrysler, General Motors, U. S. Rubber, J. I. Case, Deere, Oliver Corp., Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, American Telephone, Consolidated Edison, Consolidated Na[illegible] Du Pont, Union Carbide, American Woolen and Texas Pacific Land Trust. New 1947-48 lows were touched by North American, Eastman Kodak, Owens-Illinois and Paramount Pictures.

Railway bonds softened and major commodities suffered a spill. At Chicago wheat ended down 5 to 6¼ cents a bushel, corn 1½ to 4 and oats 1⅛ to 3⅝. Cotton, toward the last, was off $1 a bale to up 40 cents.

Signs Of Spring Seen

Klamath folk, getting the annual January yen for spring, have noted this week that the weather, despite freezing nights, is playing tricks with signs of spring.

J. W. Gossett of 2964 Hope called The Herald and News to say that all last week he had meadowlarks in his garden, and Mrs. C. D. Lunsford said this morning that robins, the traditional spring herald, are in her neighborhood. The redbreasts have been seen all winter by Klamath residents, disproving the theory that they always fly south come cold weather.

Down along Link river in the garden of Mrs. Rose M. Poole's home at 400 Conger, the snowdrops are in bloom, Mrs. Poole said that last year the snowdrops, among the first flowers to blossom, came out in late February.

Ice Rams Boat At Odell But Occupants Rescued

CASCADE SUMMIT, Jan. 19—A thrilling rescue was effected on Odell lake, January 17, when the steel hull of an ice-cutter was pierced by a large slab of ice, causing it to fill with water and begin to sink. Occupants of the boat, Bill Akers and Frederick Maguire, both of Odell Summit lodge, said they were midway across the mile-wide lake and cutting a path through the one-inch surface ice when suddenly they found the boat grinding into three-to-four inch thick ice and being gouged by a sharp pointed piece below the water line.

Shortly after the accident, the motor died and left Akers and Maguire completely stranded. Their frantic yells attracted the attention of Manager O. O. Bowers and Chef Herbert Laur, of Odell Summit lodge, who immediately set out in a rowboat and rowed to the side of the boat in distress. When they finally made the two-thirds mile distance, Bowers said that Akers and Maguire were knee-deep in icy water and had to bail fast and furiously on the return trip, while towed by the rowers in the smaller boat.

Any ice forming on Odell lake is particularly treacherous because it is not of uniform thickness, is not solid and strips of the varying thicknesses range in width from three to 150 feet.

This incident also affected a group of high school boys and girls from Yoncalla, Ore., who made the trip to Cascade summit in a large truck expecting to use the boat to cross the lake to Odell Summit lodge where they had reservations for the night. Matrons in charge of the youngsters were Mrs. Harold Turpin and Mrs. Donald A. Brace whose husband accompanied her. The entire group trudged the 2¼ miles down the mountain to the lodge, through knee-deep snow.

For many of the students, this was their first time in the snow, so they had a real initiation into its coldness. However, the next morning they were all up early and the majority rented skis, then scampered for the ski tow, enjoying every minute of their stay.

Chinese To Guard Foreign Legations

CANTON, China, Jan. 19 (AP)—Apologetic Chinese officials guarantee protection against any recurrence of the rioting which destroyed the British consulate and injured six Britons here, British Consul General Ronald A. Hall said today.

A French consulate car was stoned Sunday at Hankow, but no one was injured.

Neither Hall nor U. S. Consul General Hiram H. Boucher would comment, however, on failure of Chinese authorities to take precautionary measures earlier. The demonstration which developed into Friday's anti-British riot was publicly scheduled in advance, and rioters came prepared for violence—carrying tin cans of oil-soaked cotton for setting fires.

USES Back In Labor Department

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—President Truman today sent to congress a reorganization plan transferring the United States employment service and the bureau of unemployment security to the department of labor.

The employment service is now operating in the labor department under a wartime executive order while the bureau of employment security is presently a unit of the federal security agency.

The new plan will go into effect in 60 days unless both the senate and house reject it.

The bureau of employment security administers federal activities respecting the nation-wide unemployment compensation system.

Bombsight Stolen From Local Buick
