WEATHER

OREGON: Considerable fog and clouds in southern and western valleys today, tonight and Tuesday. Little change in temperature; somewhat warmer in central portion today and in east tonight; gentle variable winds off coast.

KLAMATH FALLS AND VICINITY: Fair tonight and Tuesday; high today about 42; low tonight 17; high Tuesday 43.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA: Fair today, tonight and Tuesday; little change in temperature; gentle to moderate variable winds off coast.

Second Place—Kelly Farris, University of Oregon student, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl William Henry, 326 Martin, was awarded second place Tuesday night in the Inter-collegiate Forensic Association of Oregon After Dinner Speaking contest which was held in Corvallis. A representative of the university symposium, Farris spoke on "The Year of Decision" from the general topic of American Fashions. Farris is a freshman law major.

Daughter Born—Word has been received of the birth of a daughter January 16 to Mr. and Mrs. David Clark, formerly of Klamath Falls and now of Corvallis. The little girl has been named Carol Dianne. Mrs. Clark is the former Ruth Zimmerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Zimmerman of Klamath Falls. Carol Dianne's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Clark of this city.

To Los Angeles—Jack Ray, yard conductor for the Great Northern, is leaving Tuesday morning for Southern California, on a leave of absence due to his health. Ray said that after a rest he would train horses and drive in the races at Santa Anita for Don Urquhart, prominent Van Nuys horseman. Ray has long been interested in training harness horses.

Final Rites—Funeral services for Henry A. Gilkison, former Klamath resident who died Friday evening in Medford following a brief illness, will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the Perl Funeral home in Medford. Interment will take place there. Mr. Gilkison was the father of Mrs. Charles Perry of this city.

Guests—Among the week-end guests at Odell Summit lodge were the Walter Coles of Eugene, who had to ski in on their first trip here, and Paul Harts of Roseburg, a brother of Mrs. Cole. Cole is in the auto parts business in Eugene. Also from Eugene was Terry Walsh who spent a delightful holiday of snow sports.

Valentine Party—The Bonanza PTA is giving a Valentine costume ball in the new gymnasium on February 1. There will be awards given and a PTA king and queen chosen. The Merry Makers of Klamath Falls will furnish the music and dancing will be from 10 p. m. to 2 a. m.

Women Of The Moose will hold a regular meeting Tuesday, January 20, at 8 p. m. in the Moose hall. Wilma Rutledge, chairman of the academy of friendship, will be in charge of the program. There will be initiation.

Visitor—Mrs. E. C. Richards, formerly of Seattle, is in Klamath Falls visiting at the Nelson H. LaPiere residence, 126 Payne.

PTA Meeting—Members and Friends of Conger PTA are invited to attend a meeting at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday at the school. A program of special interest to mothers is planned with Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill speaking on "Mental Health from the Standpoint of the Child." The second grade class will sing. A good attendance is urged.

Old Homestead—The Brown Equipment store at 3049 S. 6th, was the old Alfred Melhase home until it was sold in 1924. The dates given in the story in Friday's paper about old residence buildings had it a bootlegger's headquarters before 1924, but it must have been some time after the sale.

Traffic—W. C. Cole, Portland, traffic consultant for the Klamath basin rates bureau, will be in town Wednesday and Thursday. At 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, the annual meeting of the rates bureau will be held in the chamber of commerce meeting room.

Auxiliary—The Eagles auxiliary will hold a regular meeting at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the lower FOE hall. There will be entertainment and refreshments after the meeting.

Officers—Eagles auxiliary officers are asked to meet tonight, Monday at 7:30, in the lower lodge hall. The meeting will be followed by auxiliary drum corps practice.

Legislation—The American Legion auxiliary of Klamath Falls will meet at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the Veterans Memorial hall. Subject of the meeting will be "Legislation."

From Poe Valley—Mrs. Wilbur Belling and young son Stephen and Mrs. Carroll Brunton were Poe valley shoppers in Klamath Falls today.

Practice—The Pythian Sisters degree staff and officers-elect will meet at the IOOF hall Thursday at 2 p. m. to practice for installation.

Executive Board of the Women of the Moose will meet tonight, Monday, at 7:30 in the Moose Hall.

Shasta PTA—Executive committee will meet Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. in the Shasta View school.

Pine trees of the southern states are destined to play a greater part in chemical industries. Rosin is now converted to chemicals which find wide use in industry, principally in the manufacture of rubber and plastics.
