Ski Patrol Proves Worth In Winter

CASCADE SUMMIT, Jan. 21—Klamath county can be proud of the well-organized ski patrol of the Willamette ski area. This is a non-profit organization under the leadership of George Korn, regional director of the national ski patrol system, with Harold Trotter as president and Tony Vogel as vice president. The group constantly practices rescue maneuvers, using sleds and improvised ski-sleds and has had much practical use for their knowledge, having rescued injured skiers many times. It is an impressive sight to watch a group of skiers guiding a sled, containing an injured person, down a steep, icy slope without undue irritation to the patient.
