These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

It goes to show what's wrong with the liberal mind. The Brooklyn Women's Republican club had invited Merwin K. Hart, president of the National Economic Council, to deliver an address. Hart is called a fascist by communists and others because he is favorably disposed to Franco and because he supports capitalism for the United States, as does the republican party. And because he is called a fascist, by association he is made out to be an anti-Semite. Also, he is anti-Zionist.

So whenever Hart wants to make a speech, or whenever he advocates some idea, sound or stupid, wise or foolish—and it is an American right to advocate ideas—the communists, progressives, liberals and his innocent dupes shiver and shake in rage. They resort to intimidation. They threaten the sponsors of such meetings. They threaten boycotts and all sorts of evil happenings.

Therefore, John R. Crews, the republican leader of Brooklyn, ordered the good ladies of the aforesaid club not to permit Hart to speak. Now Hart happens to be a republican, had been a member of the state legislature, I know him, we having been born in the same town, Utica, New York. Hart is not a fascist nor is he an anti-Semite. He only prefers Franco to Stalin. I do not prefer either nor do I believe that it is any of my business who governs any foreign country. If the Spaniards stand for Franco and the Russians like Stalin, that is their affair. I prefer either Taft or Dewey for president and do not want either Eisenhower or MacArthur. That is as far as I am willing to go.

Fuzzy District

CREWS makes the point: "I have stopped communist speakers in the past and I will continue to oppose fascist, communist and other subversive speakers in the future."

This is not altogether true. But Crews means well. He has, on several occasions, formed political alliances with the American labor party which is probably a communist political arm. I suppose his defense is that he wants to elect his candidates in a fuzzy district. Crews also said:

"I don't know much about him (Hart) but from what I've heard, he is of the extreme right and we are highly unsympathetic toward him."

Anyhow, that is Crews' story. It appears also that a Judge Benjamin became furious that Hart was to speak to his ladies, so he jumped all over the sweet lady who runs this show. She and I discussed it and I told her that in my opinion she would be smart to have Hart and Benjamin speak at the same time. According to her, the judge would not speak unless he was the only speaker, which is a judicial prerogative, some judges speaking only to themselves.

So Hart was told on the morning of the meeting not to come. He came. The meeting was adjourned. The ladies remained in their seats. Hart was informally introduced and he made a speech, criticizing the democrats and Palestine partition. The whole business amounted to nothing except as an example of prevention of free speech by intimidation.

Hysterical

HART issues a newsletter and in the most recent one he suggested that the people arm against revolution. Personally, I prefer the FBI, the police, the army and the navy. Private citizens with guns sometimes let them go off at the wrong time. The suggestion struck me as hysterical, but I still think that the hysterical fellow has a right to state his hysteria if he stays within the law. However, the great liberals felt differently. To them, Hart was organizing a citizens' army to murder them. I fear that they must have been up to something dreadful if they are so afraid of Hart. Honest and healthy people do not scare so easily. The upshot of it all is that one member resigned from Hart's board and Brooklyn has some excitement in an off season. It is no more possible to kill off Hart than it is to kill off Marcantonio by this type of intimidation. The glory of this country is that anybody can hurl ideas at the American people—good ones and foul ones. As, for instance, Henry Wallace. Nobody minds.

present its annual "Ten Outstanding Young Men" awards, the program will go out over the air and should interest all local Jaycees who just recently handed Jim Stilwell the accolade.

As for the Lane Ranger—the worm finally turns for meek little Bill Newton when the LW helps him become a hero. The title of the broadcast is "Prunella's Chickens." That always reminds me of my father. As youngsters we would bring a parade of young friends to the house and there being only six children—papa was somewhat confused over the various names of the visitors. He finally settled on "Prunella" and each girl friend, no matter what her Christian name, size, weight or hairdo, remained "Prunella" to papa.

A little child becomes the concern of Lionel Barrymore, Agnes Moorehead and Conrad Binyon when they bring their popular "Mayor of the Town" broadcast to ABC listeners at 7:30 tonight. As usual, the mayor himself, portrayed by Barrymore, is at the bottom of the heart warming episode. It all happens when the mayor is informed that a little girl up the block, bedridden with polio, is crying pitifully because her Christmas tree has been taken down. The mayor master-minds a project and you can hear the rest tonight.

Lou Costello's social life comes under investigation and the comedian sees red when the findings are released. That's the spot you'll find the two boys in tonight on the Abbott and Costello show.

And if you like Groucho Marx, whose simple little "Have you looked at your compact lately?" is filled with eyebrows going up—you'll be interested to learn how far contestants get tonight on their way to the $3500 cash award. Fairly intelligent sounding folks have muffed such junior high questions as "Who was the only president of the United States to also serve on the supreme court bench?" and "Who discovered gold in California?" And Californians, ready to celebrate this month the 100th anniversary of discovery of gold at Sutter's creek, didn't know Marshall's name, my boy, James Wilson Marshall! And it was Taft on the first question.

Tonight Groucho wants police protection and preferably lady cops when he offers the purse on "You Bet Your Life." In addition to getting a chance at the big cash award, the contestants will have opportunities of winning even more money if they mention Groucho's "secret word." Last week the secret word

The Gallup Poll

Truman Still Strongest Contender

By GEORGE GALLUP Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 20 — Complete returns from the Institute's nationwide poll on the political effect of Henry A. Wallace's third-party presidential candidacy show the following main facts:

1—Mr. Wallace does not take enough votes away from President Truman to put Governor Thomas E. Dewey in the lead in national popular votes in a presidential "trial heat" among the three main candidates today. However, Governor Dewey does lead President Truman in poll votes outside the south.

2—In a three-cornered race involving President Truman, General Dwight D. Eisenhower and Mr. Wallace, the General holds a substantial lead nationally.

3—With Senator Robert A. Taft heading the Republican ticket, President Truman runs sufficiently far ahead in the trial heat so that the Wallace vote makes no difference nationally.

These conclusions are subject to certain qualifications which are presented below. The actual poll returns are these:

If a presidential election were being held today, and Truman were running for president on the democratic ticket against Dewey on the republican ticket and against Wallace on a third-party ticket how do you think you would vote — for Truman, for Dewey or for Wallace?

Truman-Dewey-Wallace Truman 46% Dewey 41 Wallace 7 No opinion 6 Truman-Eisenhower-Wallace Truman 47% Eisenhower 40 Wallace 6 No opinion 7 Truman-Taft-Wallace Truman 51% Taft 31 Wallace 8 No opinion 10

In analyzing the above results those interested in politics should keep the following points in mind: National vs. Key States — The Wallace percentage nationally does not fully reflect the effect that he could have on the election outcome. The real effect will be felt in certain key states.

Mr. Wallace might in the November election poll only a small percentage of the total vote cast by the whole nation and yet receive enough votes in such individual states as New York, Illinois, California and Michigan to hold the balance of power and determine which major party gets the electoral votes there.

In fact, the Institute's report last week on New York state found that Mr. Wallace's candidacy would be "hat" and each of the three sets of contestants guessed it.

And then there's Bing, the Boy You've Been Waiting For! Bing has just returned to Hollywood from California's Monterey peninsula where he attended his annual amateur golf tournament. The Crosby sponsored "rough and fairway" event has become one of the nation's outstanding golf contests of the year.

The Texaco Star theatre at 9:30 tonight is quite different from the old Texaco show "back in the earphone days when Ed Wynn cavorted around. Now Tony Martin is the singing star of the show which also features Alan Young, Evelyn Knight and the Victor Young orchestra. Tony will sing "Just One of Those Things," "A Fellow Needs a Girl," and "It Was Written in the Stars." Alan Young will sing a different tune—a comic one—when he plays a dynamic, racket busting newspaperman who can't tell a type louse from a lens louse. Well, can you?

Oregon's territorial centennial, being observed during 1948, recalls that more than 250,000 square miles were added to the United States when the territory was established by congress in 1848. Originally it included, as well as Oregon, Idaho, Washington and portions of Wyoming and Montana, the Oregon state highway commission travel information department reports.

AT this early date it can be stated with certainty, however, that such votes as Mr. Wallace draws at the election will come mainly from people who voted democratic last time. In today's poll it was found that approximately 53 per cent of the Wallace supporters voted for Roosevelt in 1944. About one in 10 voted republican, while the rest are new young voters and people who did not vote in the last election.

Outside the South — A good deal of Mr. Truman's strength in the trial heats against Governor Dewey and Mr. Taft is due to the votes cast by the southern states, where loyalty to the democratic party is a long-standing tradition. Outside the South the Dewey, Taft Eisenhower and Wallace forces do much better.

Here are the results in the trial heats with the South excluded: Outside The South Truman 41% Dewey 44 Wallace 8 No opinion 7 Truman Eisenhower Wallace 36% Eisenhower Wallace 50 No opinion 5 Truman Taft Wallace 48% Taft 33 Wallace 9 No opinion 10

Eisenhower's Aloofness — General Eisenhower's lead over President Truman in the trial heat may not be what he is thrown in the ring. Part of his popularity is due to the fact that he has refused to identify himself with controversial political issues; this non-partisan position has brought him goodwill among people of all parties and in all walks of life. But if he becomes a candidate in the race for the GOP nomination, he will inevitably have to come down from his political Mount Olympus. In doing so he may forfeit support of some of his present-day followers.

The Greeks are a proud and independent folk, with a glorious past and, we trust, a glorious future. One of the things we admire about them is their spartan courage and their quickness in defense of their rights.

More power to them! Still, there is an old saying, and true, that discretion is the better part of valor, and we take the liberty of commending this thought to the Athens royalist newspaper Vrydyni, which seems to us not only to be indiscreet but ill informed — and rather ungracious toward a very good friend.

Vrydyni, which frequently speaks for the dominant royalist party, has taken the American aid mission, headed by Dwight P. Griswold, to task for notes to the Greek government. The newspaper says these notes have sounded as though written for "the Japanese or to a country inhabited by gangsters." It hopes that the threat of the communist guerrillas in the north will be ended before long so "we soon can forget our friendly allies and return to where we were before."

Heaven preserve Greece from another such dictatorship as she suffered under the late General (Little John) Metaxas who ruled with an iron hand from 1936 to 1941 when he died, during the Italian invasion. It isn't that Metaxas lacked capability. Most "successful" dictators have been capable, and Little John was "successful." However, Greece lived in the shadow of fear, as I found when I was there in 1938 as I found the World War was boiling up.

Metaxas was born on the island of Ithaca. He is said to have started his working life as a dock laborer but he became a soldier and showed so much promise that he was sent to the German war academy in Berlin to complete his education. Maybe that's where he developed his admiration for the Germans. Any-way he was very pro-German.

Four-Month Job — Metaxas rose to be Greek chief of staff during the Balkan wars and finally when King George II was recalled by his throne in 1935 the general was made war minister and then premier in 1936. It took the two-fisted Little John just four months to make himself complete dictator. He abolished all political parties and put several thousand of his political foes, including many prominent statesmen, aboard ships and sent them into exile among the Greek islands. I was told that a lot of the exiles suffered terrible hardships. Plain clothes police spied on the public and anyone who spoke disparagingly of Little John ended up in jail. The censorship on news was so fierce that a Greek newspaperman committed suicide after being hounded and arrested many times because the authorities figured he was disclosing too much.

RUMMAGE SALES

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (To the Editor)—What has happened to our much needed rummage sales?

I do not wish to expose anyone's second hand business affairs or their practices. However, after investigating the methods used by the operators of the second hand clothing establishments, I cannot see where there can be any cause for conflict between clubs and organizations holding rummage sales, and the above mentioned.

These organizations serve a very nearly portion of our citizenry with garments, clothing and what nots at a price that they cannot afford to buy at any second hand clothing store. In other words, these same people that patronize the rummage sales, are in measure to any established business in Klamath Falls and vicinity.

With the same token we feel that civic-minded organizations are certainly entitled to the small amount of revenues they derive from the occasional rummage sales they hold. This revenue is no doubt used for a far better purpose than past criticism have warranted.

Groups and organizations, please keep up the good service you performed so well in the past.

Sincerely, Mrs. Pearl Fields, 109 Broad Street.
