Wheat Unsteady On Market

CHICAGO, Jan. 27 (AP)—Heavy liquidation, especially in the corn and oats pits, carried prices downward at the board of trade today.

The weakness in coarse grains had an effect on wheat, but the decline was more stubborn. Soybeans were off the limit.

Selling in the corn pit developed after good advances had been registered. Houses with cash connections started the selling in fairly liberal quantities, and stop loss orders were uncovered.

Toward the close a rally developed. Wheat was mixed at the close, finished 1 1/2 cents lower to 1 1/4 higher than the previous close.
