Four-H News

Effective March 1, Burton Hutton, farm service director at radio station KALE, Portland, will assume new duties as assistant state 4-H club leader, F. L. Ballard, associate director of the Oregon State college agricultural extension service, announced today.

Hutton will assist L. J. Allen, state 4-H club leader. There are now approximately 2400 4-H club youngsters in the state.

Hutton, a former club member himself, at one time was farm editor of the Pendleton East Oregonian. Later he held a similar position with the Corvallis Gazette-Times.

In 1936 he became farm program director of the college radio station KOAC. Before coming to KALE he was assistant director of the agricultural department of the Great Northern Railroad at St. Paul, Minn., for two years.

$100 Dinner Sets New Records

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—The democratic faithful are coming to the aid of the party with $100 bills. For this, they will get a dinner.

"Record-breaking reservations" for the Jefferson-Jackson dinner here February 17 were reported today by Wilson W. Wyatt, the chairman.

As a result, he said, the main ballroom of the Mayflower hotel, which seats 900, isn't big enough and the dinner will be split into two sections. One will be at the Mayflower, the other at the Statler.

President Truman will divide his time between the two. His speech will be carried by radio and television to similar dinners elsewhere.

Investigation For Dam To Start

PORTLAND, Jan. 30 (AP) — Preliminary investigative work will start soon on the proposed John Day dam site, six miles upstream from Celilo on the Columbia river.

Army engineers disclosed this yesterday with announcement that Kennon Diamond Drilling company, Compton, Calif., was low bidder at $25,405 for drilling and testing eight core drill holes at the site.

The engineers rejected a $182,258 bid from Carl Halvorsen, Salem, to build a school and play shed at the Detroit dam site. The job will be done by contract labor.

Police Chief Free On Bond

OREGON CITY, Jan. 30 (AP)—Lawrence Pittenger, Oregon City police chief under indictment of assault and battery, was free today on $1000 bond but was temporarily suspended from the force.

He was accused by the grand jury of slapping a 20-year-old youth last month. Previously Pittenger resigned as Eugene police chief after slapping a youth there.

The city commission suspended Pittenger yesterday after learning of the indictment.

Ford, Reuther Hold Confab

DETROIT, Jan. 30 (AP)—Young Henry Ford's flare for the unconventional caused a lot of discussion in industry and labor circles today.

Taking a leaf from his famed grandfather's book, the 30-year-old Ford Motor company president did the unexpected and talked over "general labor policy matters" for three hours yesterday with President Walter Reuther of the CIO United Auto Workers.

It was the second meeting of the two in less than two months, but it was the first time labor relations were discussed by top labor and management officials when no contract negotiations or disputes involving them were in progress.

Mental Hospitals To Be Investigated

PORTLAND, Jan. 30 (AP)—A Portland citizens' committee has opened an investigation into "state mental hospitals and procedures for committing inmates."

The group heard one woman tell that she was arrested twice last year while trying to collect unemployment checks and finally won dismissal of insanity charges after gaining a court hearing.

The committee's avowed purpose is to obtain a law or constitutional amendment guaranteeing every person the right of trial by jury when threatened with confinement for any reason, including mental illness.

MARINES TO SAIL

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 30 (AP) — Approximately 1000 United States marines will be sent shortly to the Mediterranean, fifth naval district headquarters announced today.

The marines, the announcement said, are "replacements" and "will not augment the total number of marines now in the Mediterranean area."

Fadling Asks Jap Worker Waiver

PORTLAND, Jan. 30 (AP) — J. E. Fadling, president of the CIO International Woodworkers of America, said today he had asked the premier of British Columbia to waive, temporarily, the restriction on Japanese working on crown lands.

Fadling said 50 per cent or more of 800 Japanese to be discharged from woods employment under a provincial forest department order are members of the IWA. The restriction was waived during the war.

He added that he urged a revision in the clause on timber leases excluding "orientals or any other race," be made by the next session of parliament.

Relief Goods Go Up In Smoke

PARIS, Jan. 30 (AP)—Police investigated the possibility of arson today in a fire which they said destroyed more than 1,000,000,000 francs (about $5,000,000) worth of food and clothing. Included in the loss was 2000 tons of goods from the American friendship train.

The blaze destroyed a six-story warehouse in suburban Charenton.

Some estimates put the total food and clothing loss at 30,000 tons, including gift packages from Sweden, Ireland, The Netherlands and Canada.

Firemen said they suspected arson because of the speed with which the flames spread through the stone and steel structure.

WHERE RAIN GOES

Of the 1500 cubic miles of water which annually fall upon the earth, about one-half goes back into the atmosphere by evaporation, one-third flows into surface streams, and the remainder seeps into the earth, to be drawn up later.

More than 30 different crops are raised in the Valley of the Sun surrounding Phoenix, Ariz.
