Networks Deadline Extended

NEW YORK, Jan. 30 (AP)—The four radio networks and the American Federation of Musicians (AFL) Thursday announced they will extend the conditions of their present contract 60 days beyond the January 31 deadline.

The joint announcement by the networks and James C. Petrillo, musicians' union president, said that meanwhile frequency modulation duplication of standard radio musical programs will begin February 1.

The extension was arranged, the statement said, to give additional time for working out details of a new formal contract.

The union ban on the appearance of musicians on television programs remains in effect.

The joint announcement said: "No commitments will be requested of networks relating to the employment of musicians by their affiliates."

Continuing discussions also will be entered into concerning employment of musicians on television programs.

Indian Leader Murdered By Poona Civilian

ately called "granddaughter" by Mahatma Gandhi, cradled the slain man's head in her lap after his life ebbed out. Her eyes were bright with grief.

Dr. Qamara, the police and soldiers at the scene of the shooting told of the assassination of Gandhi.

Still weak from his recent fast for peace, he was walking feebly to the prayer grounds where a crowd of about 500 awaited his words.

They said the assassin displayed no unusual nervousness and did nothing to attract attention. When Gandhi was within eight feet, he drew a pistol and rapidly fired three bullets.

There was a wild rush by most of the crowd. Several ran to Gandhi and several seized the assailant.

On impulse, I ran not to Gandhi but to the man and struck him twice with my fist but then I realized my duty and ran to Gandhi, Dr. Qamara said.

Under the doctor's guidance, disciples raised Gandhi and carried him to his living quarters in their arms. He was bleeding profusely.

Gandhi was leaning heavily on the shoulders of Manu Gandhi and his sister, Ava, when shot. Neither woman was harmed.

The doctor said he saw only two bullet wounds, one near the heart and one in the abdomen. He said blood might have obscured a third wound which some members of Gandhi's household reported.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP)—President Truman, grieved over the assassination of Mahatma K. Gandhi, today was said to regard the Indian leader's death as "a tragic loss to the whole world."

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross thus regarded Mr. Truman's feelings upon hearing news of Gandhi's death.

Ross said the president is drafting a statement to be made available later in the day.

LONDON, Jan. 30 (AP)—Winston Churchill said today of the Gandhi assassination: "I am shocked at this wicked crime."

Churchill's seven-word statement was issued through his conservative party's headquarters. Churchill many times has attacked the Attlee government's handling of the Indian situation, and warned that the granting of dominion status to India and Pakistan would bring violence.

Olene

Another grange sponsored card party was held at the Olene community hall Saturday night. Five tables were in play. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson were the hosts. High scores went to Mrs. George Reiling and Harry Orem. Low score to Mrs. Frank Sullivan and Wynn Kinney. Refreshments were served at midnight.

The many friends of Stanley Masten Sr. will be happy to know he is recovering nicely from major surgery at Hillside hospital and can now have visitors. Mrs. Ben Kerns, (Patricia Masten), is with her father from her home in Brookings. Mrs. Kerns is a graduate nurse. Ivan Eggers is in Hillside hospital where he is receiving treatment for a skin infection.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Brown attended the birthday dinner for Mrs. Brown's father, B. S. Grigaby, at the Ida Grimes home on Sunday. Mr. Grigaby celebrated his 85th anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes and son Jim Barnes spent last Tuesday in Portland where they were the guests of the Porter Yett family.

Mrs. Dale Millet and little son spent Monday at the home of Mrs. Millet's parents, the Frank Sullivans.

Mrs. Nona Corpening, who is now at her home in Olene, is showing improvement again after a recent illness but still has a nurse with her. Sam Kesterose has been seriously ill and was taken to the hospital by ambulance on Saturday. He is now improving but will be there for some time.

A number of Olene and Poe valley residents attended the funeral of J. C. Sweeney on Tuesday. Mr. Sweeney was a former Olene resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Eggers were dinner guests on Sunday at the Marion Barnes home.

MARKETS and FINANCIAL GRAIN FUTURES SAG TODAY

CHICAGO, Jan. 30 (AP)—Grain futures sagged today in slow dealings on the Chicago board of trade, after an early start.

The outstanding bearish influence was heavy snowfall in parts of the Southwestern winter wheat belt, considered beneficial to the new crop.

All grains slumped further near the finish and wheat was as much as 5 cents below the best price of the day. Wheat closed 3 to 3 1/2 cents lower than the previous finish, May $2.80 1/2-2.89, corn was down 1/4 to 3/4 cents, May $2.82 1/2-$2.83, and oats were 1/4 down to 1 1/4, May $1.32 1/2. Only the March oats contract was ahead. Soybeans were unchanged to 5 cents off, March $4.06 1/2.

Wheat—	Open	High	Low	Close
March	2.91 1/2	2.93	2.88	2.88 1/2-2.89
July	2.61 1/4-2.61	2.63 1/4	2.58 1/2	2.58 1/2-2.59
Sept.	2.58	2.58	2.53 1/2	2.53 1/2-1/4
Dec.	2.53 1/2	2.55 1/2	2.51	2.51

Selling Hits Stock Leaders

NEW YORK, Jan. 30 (AP)—Associated spots of strength remained today's stock market although light selling shifted many leaders back to the losing division.

While good gains persisted near the close, declines of fractions to a point or so were plentiful. Transfers ran to around 800,000 shares.

Standard Oil of California was a lively performer, jumping several points on a raised dividend. Attracting bids were Plymouth Oil, Phillips - Jones, Illinois Central, Pennsylvania Railroad, North American, Du Pont and American Woolen.

Slipping most of the time were Chrysler, Oliver Corp., Boeing, Lockheed, Schenley, Distillers Corp., Allied Chemical, U. S. Gypsum, American Tobacco "B", Paramount Pictures, Loew's, Union Pacific, Santa Fe and Southern Pacific.

Dividends, earnings and slightly more hopeful tax prospects still provided purchasing arguments. Darkening foreign situations, stressed by the assassination of Gandhi, inspired many skeptics to trim accounts.

Scattered rail bonds improved. Stocks had to contend with a general drop in commodities. Cotton, toward the finish, was off 60 cents to $1.60 a bale. At Chicago wheat ended down 3 to 3 1/2 cents a bushel, corn 1/4 to 3/4 and oats off 1/4 to 1 1/4.

Jail Break, In Reverse

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 30 (CP)—Strange things happen — a man has been arrested for breaking into the Okalla prison farm.

Guards captured the high-jumping prowler late Wednesday night after firing three shots.

"Don't shoot, I give up," he shouted to the guards after he had scaled a 10-foot fence, topped by three strands of wire.

"He went over it like a rabbit," said a prison guard who was in on the capture.

Police found scraps of a piece of paper in the man's pocket. They said it contained a list of numbers, similar to a list of bank notes stolen by three armed bandits in the $8000 January 15 robbery of the Royal Bank of Canada in suburban Burnaby.

Authorities said the "visitor" may have thought the bank loot was hidden in the prison yard. His name was not disclosed, pending further investigation.

Cars Collide On Highway

A rear-end collision in which two cars were involved on the Merrill highway early last night, resulted in the arrest of Phillip D. Lee, Tacoma, Wash., resident, who was charged by state police with violation of the basic rule.

Officers were called out at 8 o'clock to investigate the accident. One car was operated by Rachel Benson Hodges, route 2 box 836-A, Klamath Falls, the other by Lee. Owner of the second car was R. F. Bradshaw, 850 Riverside, passenger in the machine.

Mrs. Hodges said her headlights went out as she was traveling toward Klamath Falls and she slowed down to turn into a lane 100 yards ahead. As she slackened her speed, Lee ran into the back of her car. Both were extensively damaged but there were no personal injuries. A witness, Irene Wilkinson, 725 Plum, told officers she was driving toward Merrill, saw the Hodges' car lights go out and observed Lee's car traveling at a high rate of speed. The tail light of the Benson car was burning at the time of the crash. Lee is slated to appear in justice court today.

Meat Ration 'Considered'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP)—President Truman said Thursday that with the meat shortage becoming very acute, rationing, coupled with price controls, is under consideration.

Mr. Truman told a news conference he could not say that meat rationing is imminent, as one agriculture official has been reported as saying.

The president said price control must come first. He added that rationing without price control will not be effective.

He said meat rationing has been under consideration since last November when he asked congress for stand-by price-wage and rationing control powers.

Earlier, Assistant Secretary Charles Brannon said the agriculture department believes the government should fix prices for meats and ration them.

Estate Set Over $25,000

The estate of the late Mrs. Hypatia K. McKendree, who died here January 21, is valued at in excess of $25,000, according to courthouse probate filings.

Mrs. McKendree left a will dated April 15, 1931, in which she left her entire estate to her son, Scott W. McKendree. The law firm of Farrens and Maxwell is handling the probate petition.

Also on file today at the courthouse is a petition for probate of the estate of Thomas Arthur Treloar, who died intestate February 26, 1936. The property consists of five shares of California Oregon Power company stock.

Petitioner is Mrs. Winnifred Treloar, widow, of 1424 1/2 Crescent, represented by Attorney John Irvin.

Called to Medford—Mrs. Frank Z. Howard, dean of girls at Klamath Union high school, has been called to Medford by the critical illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Thurston. Mrs. Victor O'Neill is substituting at KUHS during Mrs. Howard's absence.

Second Graders Aid Polio Drive

One of the nicest contributions made to the March of Dimes drive was from the second graders of Pelican school, drive headquarters announced today.

The youngsters used money which would have gone for exchanging valentines and a St. Valentine's Day party to give to the polio fund. Total donation was $10.

Instead of buying valentines, they will make them in school. Second grade teacher is Charlene Swelgert.
