

Baptist Circles Meet On Thursday

Grace circle of the First Baptist church met Thursday afternoon, January 22, at the home of Mrs. Chester Thomas on Lakeshore drive. Mrs. Thomas was in charge of the business session, and the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. B. M. Robinson, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Forrest Tucker, community missionary chairman; Mrs. Tom Carson, missionary study chairman; Mrs. V. C. Phillips, social chairman.

The devotional service was led by Mrs. Frank Ward, president of the Missionary society of the First Baptist church, and refreshments were served by the hostess to the following:

Mrs. Thomas Carson, Mrs. V. C. Phillips, Mrs. Agnes Skoog, Mrs. Veda Beech, Mrs. Joe Ivie, Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. B. M. Robinson, Mrs. Grace Griffith, Mrs. Forrest Tucker and Mrs. John Michaelson. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Tom Carson.

Mrs. Russell Webber of 211 N. 9th was hostess to the Naomi circle, and Mrs. Webber, circle chairman, conducted the business session, while Mrs. C. C. Brown led the devotional service and gave the Scripture readings. The following officers were elected for 1948: Mrs. Rodney Larson, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Wash, missionary study chairman; Mrs. Joe Dunsen, social chairman; Mrs. John Patterson, community missionary chairman; Mrs. Charles W. Thomas, publicity.

The hostess served refreshments to Mrs. C. C. Brown, Mrs. Alice Hersberger, Mrs. Joe Dunsen, Mrs. Flora Lindsey, Mrs. Rodney Larson, Mrs. W. H. Deets, Mrs. Charles Thomas, Mrs. John Patterson and Mrs. Wash. The circle will meet on February 19 with Mrs. Wash, 911 Walnut.

The general Missionary society meets on the first Thursday of each month, and the circles on the third Thursday.

Members of Canton Crater No. 7 are planning a meeting to be held in the IOOF hall, Thursday, February 12.

At the last meeting, January 22, out-of-town visitors were Ada Pomero of Salem auxiliary No. 11, Clara Smith and Gladys C. Leader of Bend auxiliary No. 19, and Anna Merchant of Redmond.

TAKING THE gavel of her office is Eura Bustin, left, newly elected most excellent chief of the Pythian Sisters. At right is Viola Hermann, past chief. Installation was held by the lodge recently.

RNA Officers

Installation of officers of the Royal Neighbors of America was held Friday evening, January 23, in the KC hall.

New officers were installed by Anna Shafer, Lucille Helfer and Kathryn Heppburn.

Officers include orator, Illia Simpson; vice orator, Ada Barleent; chancellor, Sarah Harrington; recorder, Jessie Steele; receiver, Lucille Helfer; marshal, Inez McCoy; assistant marshal, Delice Shymaker; inner sentinel, Anna McCormack; outer sentinel, Marjorie Fjordbeck; manager, Anna Shafer; musician, Kathryn Smith; graces, Nellie Lamont; Mildred Pennyur, Bernice McCracken, Lillian Peterson, Elsie Longmire; flag bearer, Grace Harris, and degree captain, Kate Hogue.

The retiring orator presented each of her officers with a gift, and she received a bouquet of roses.

Social Meeting

Catholic Daughters of America held a social meeting in the parish hall, Monday, January 26, at 8 o'clock and 50 members and guests attended. An honored guest from out of town was Mrs. P. S. Proby, a member of St. Paul court 532, St. Paul, Minn. She is a sister of Mrs. Frank Sexton, a member of Court Klamath.

Bingo was enjoyed and afterward, refreshments were served by the co-chairmen, Louise Vaughn and Marcella Carrier, assisted by Mary Hurley, Maude Valhoum, Freda Newman, Marie Haskett, Eileen Seibert, Marie Harrington and Katherine Brown.

Women's Club

BONANZA — Mrs. Owen Pepple and Mrs. Chuck Wells entertained the Bonanza Women's club at a regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Buck Cox won high in pinocle and Mrs. Bill Becholdt, high in bridge. Mrs. Ed Gowen received the special award.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Pepple to Gertie Dick, Blanche Gowen, Birdie Burke, Lola Horn, Noma Becholdt, Daisy Cox and Mrs. Orland Brown.

Amaranth

Friendship court No. 11, Order of Amaranth, met in regular session January 21 with Ann Pierce, royal matron, and Ted Reeves, royal patron, presiding.

Introduced were Bernice Finch, grand associate matron; Jack Schulz, grand representative to Washington; and a group of past matrons and patrons.

Several candidates were inducted into the order. Refreshments were served in the banquet room by Marie Matler and Dixie Beber. The hall and banquet room were decorated with snapdragons and other spring blossoms.

Interesting news to folks in our town is that young Ted Reeves has been chosen to play the role of Anthony Marston in the play, "Ten Little Indians," to be given at the Portland Civic theatre, February 17 through March 6. Proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Reeves of Melrose street. Ted is in art school in Portland.

Officers Feted At Lodge Breakfast

Installation of officers in the Degree of Honor opened with a breakfast at the Winema hotel on Monday morning, January 26. Ethel Lindholm, state installing officer, was hostess, and the executive board her guests. Eleven attended, and a course of instruction for the new officers was a part of the program. It was decided at this time to organize a past president's club, at Mrs. Lindholm's suggestion.

A banquet at the Winema at 6:30 that evening was attended by 33 members and visiting members, and this was followed by an open meeting in the KC hall. Immediately after the opening exercises Mrs. Lindholm and Minnie Davis Carl, state junior past president, and Edna Lund and Deola Wryn, installing musicians, installed the following officers for 1948: Estelle Smith, president; Fannie Goddard, first vice president; Jennie Buck, second vice president; Grace Beck, past president; Annis Goodwin, usher; Lou Grove, assistant usher; Edna Lund, pianist; Mildred Peterson, secretary; Jennie Hurn, treasurer; Betty Bessongette, right assistant; and Alma Baker, left assistant to the first vice president; Jennie Bell, assistant to the president.

The new president, Estelle Smith, received a beautiful bouquet of American Beauty roses, and gifts were presented to the past president and to the state officers. After the installation ceremony, coffee and cake were served in the dining room and Grace Beck, past president, was honored with a gift.

On February 9 there will be a meeting in the KC hall with the new officers in their chairs.

Shower Guest

Mrs. C. R. Williams and Mrs. Ralph Williams entertained at a shower for Mrs. Harold Vigen at the Williams home, 743 N. 11th, Wednesday evening.

Guests were Mrs. Vigen, Mrs. Lea Cunningham, Mrs. James Coffelt, Mrs. Lowell Logan, Mrs. Harold Shaffer, Mrs. Russell Brackman, Mrs. Ingeborg Wikerson, Mrs. Alice Hardenbrook, Mrs. Jesse Walters, Mrs. L. A. Soder, Mrs. Mable Brocktrup, Mrs. Dagny Subject, Mrs. T. V. Savage and Mrs. Verna Brakevelt.

Happy Hour

Mrs. J. H. Hamilton entertained members of the Happy Hour club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Two guests present were Mrs. Frank Ira White and Mrs. Orville Hamilton.

Refreshments were served to guests and members including Mrs. George Biehn, Mrs. Walter Cofer, Mrs. Syd Evans, Anna Funk, Jennie Hurn, Louise Humphrey, Mrs. Ed Lawrence, Mrs. R. G. Motschenbacher, Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mrs. Herbert Savage, and Mrs. Hamilton, the hostess.

Church Guild

LANE VALLEY—Mrs. Madge Moursor entertained the guild of St. Barnabas church at her home Thursday afternoon. Officers for the coming year were elected with Joan Marchant, president; Madge Moursor, secretary-treasurer, and Bessie Frazier, vice president.

Tea was served at 4:30 by Mrs. Moursor. Margaret Burnett received a needlework gift.

Members and guests present were Helen Daring, Hobbie Giff, Bonnie Ferris, Erna Partridge, Joan Marchant, Carolyn Dearborn, Virginia Thomas, Billie Fitzhugh, Mary Noble, Bessie Frazier, Hazel Morrison, Nonie Pepple, Margaret Burnett and Mrs. Patton.

The next guild meeting will be at the home of Betty Pepple of Bonanza February 5.

Eight Et Forty

Mrs. Emil Paul and Mrs. Lester Finley were hostesses at the home of the latter Wednesday evening when they entertained salon 355 of Eight et Forty. A brief business session was held with a contribution taken for the March of Dimes drive.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Edna Russell, Mrs. Paul Otterbein and Mrs. M. E. Cooper in games. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edna Russell with Mrs. R. G. Motschenbacher assisting.

New Officers

Pythian Sisters held a regular meeting Friday, January 23 in the IOOF hall followed by public installation of new officers. Past Chief Roena Fugill was installing officer with Dovie Anderson and Effie Redkey assisting.

Installed were Viola Hermann, past chief; Eura Bustin, most excellent chief; Marguerite Brown, excellent senior; Dorothy Holzhauser, excellent junior; Della Henniger, manager; Mae Anderson, mistress of finance; Ora Smith, mistress of records and correspondence; Louise O'Brien, protector; Nina Beck, guard; Thomas Bustin, degree staff captain; Gertrude Weber, pianist and Stella Dryden, press correspondent.

Past Chief Viola Hermann was presented with the pin of her office. Roena Fugill also presented gifts to Grand Manager Effie Redkey and Dovie Anderson, senior guard.

Refreshments were served after the installation by the men of the order.

Over 20 Years in the Jewelry Business

Art Reinhart DIAMOND, JEWELRY SILVERWARE SPECIALIST at Jewel and Gift Shop 8 & H Green Stamps 519 Main Phone 6163

FIRST OF ALL TRY BREAKFAST AT MOLATORE'S 1117 MAIN

RECENTLY INSTALLED were new officers of Prosperity Rebekah lodge No. 104. From left, front, are Lucille Helfer, left supporter to the vice grand; Nellie Wattenburg, financial secretary; Corrine Larsen, warder; Vera Clemens, district deputy president; Charlotte Martin, chaplain; Vera Linckenbach, conductor; Marguerite Landis, right supporter to the vice grand. In the second row are Sadie Mae Wallace, treasurer; Frances Munsell, recording secretary; Alice Goeller, charter member; Ivy Propst, right supporter to the noble grand; Ora Sweet, past noble grand; Bernice McCracken, noble grand; Lucile Bold, vice grand; Ruth Heidrick, left supporter to the noble grand; Martha Baker, outside guardian; Marjorie Roberts, inside guardian, and Edna Book, musician.

—Jones-Miller.

LaPointe's

ONLY THE

Cymette

SUIT-OF-THE-SEASON HAS THIS LOOK OF PERFECTION AND ONLY WE HAVE IT!

The exquisite suit you saw in VOGUE... tailored with couturier-finesse and designed to fit you. In fine worsted, quality lined in Duchess rayon crepe. Black, navy and important Spring colors. Sizes 10 to 20.

$59.00

thinking of you... a Fred A. Block original

Exotic elegance soars this suit into a stellar role. Impeccably Fred A. Block is the long box jacket with scroll-embroidered raglan sleeves, the amphora look of the hip stressed skirt. Forstmann's wonderful wool with a stark white cap-sleeved blouse.

LaPointe's

Did You Hear About

Enhance

By Lily of France

So revolutionary it will completely change the future of corseting.

Listen to Mr. Traub, vice-president of Lily of France,

Over KFJL Tuesday, 8:15 a. m.

KFLW Tuesday, 9:00 a. m.

LaPointe's