

Lake To Host Wonderland

Directors and council members of the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland association will hold a session at Lakeview May 8 and 9. It was decided at directors' session held at Klamath Falls this week with local council members.

Norman Rowbotham of Redding, president of the association, headed the group which came here, meeting first with directors of the Klamath chamber of commerce and then holding a Shasta-Cascade session.

Tom L. Stanley, manager, outlined the association's advertising plans for the coming year. It was decided to get out a new map of the Wonderland area of Northern California and Southern Oregon for inclusion in new literature.

It was announced that Deschutes county had favorably considered coming into the Wonderland association this year, but action was postponed because of prior commitment of Deschutes advertising funds.

Martin Drauner of Lorenz company was named Klamath county director, replacing John Houston, resigned.
