Moose Hold Tule Party

TULELAKE, Feb. 2—Mr. and Mrs. John Baley entertained members of the Loyal Order of Moose and Women of the Moose at their home near Tulelake on January 24. This was the third of a series of card parties sponsored during the winter season. Prizes were won by Geneva Trujillo, high; Milo Smith, low; and traveling prize was retained by Clara Edwards. Present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Winebarger, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Russell Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Iocencie of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sherrill of Henley, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Nine, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Van Meter, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. James Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Smith, Lloyd Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Michaels, Mrs. Harry Hundley and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Saruzaki and Malin, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Slezak, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hundley of Tulelake with Mr. and Mrs. Don Trujillo, guests of the evening.

After a potluck luncheon, group singing was enjoyed as well as several accordion selections by Alex Saruzaki.

Cascade

The A. R. Kruegers enjoyed a trip to Eugene, where they took care of a few business details as well as more pleasurable pursuits. Mrs. Elmer Adkison is off to Portland for a bit of shopping but will return in time to do some skiing this week-end.

Warren Hicks and family went into town for a day's buying spree. Hicks has just returned from Richmond, Calif., and is sporting some new teeth in place of those he knocked out with a snow shovel. To accommodate Southern Pacific employees in inaccessible stations along the main line, Mark Murray, telegrapher at Cruzatte, has opened a grocery service in his home where orders are placed with him and he orders once a week for all. Cruzatte is the first station north of Cascade Summit and is perched on a ledge far from any approach, so this will be a boon to isolated employees, many of whom are taking advantage of this opportunity.

Walter Vaughn of Cascade Summit is now in his third year at Klamath Union high school and is a part-time employe at Oregon Food stores in Klamath Falls. His father, James T. Vaughn, was the SP section foreman at Cruzatte before his recent change to Cascade Summit. Walter has a busy schedule as he comes home on week-ends and vacations besides attending to his various activities.

Merrill

MERRILL, Jan. 31—Program for the tea sponsored by the Merrill Library club and the VFW auxiliary featured local talent. Mrs. Don Porterfield presented her acrobatic class, the music group of Mrs. Naomi Jacobson then took over followed by a duet by Peggy Dillon and Lois Lee Kandra. Virginia Reeves gave a reading and Mrs. Bill Harvey rendered several vocal selections. The program was closed with a tap dance by Nancy Dewey.

Anna Hartlerode, Mrs. Bill Jinnette and Mrs. William Walker presided at the tea table in the Odd Fellows hall Friday afternoon.

All proceeds of the tea will be turned over to the March of Dimes. Lost River Garden club met January 27 at the home of Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick. A moment of silent prayer for Mrs. O. T. McKenna was observed by the group. Mrs. Kilpatrick sang a hymn accompanied at the piano by Mrs. C. E. Sharp. Mrs. McKenna was a charter member of the group and was a leader in all its endeavors until her illness caused her to be confined to her home. She was well known for her love and knowledge of flowers and took many prizes at the spring flower show of the Garden club.

The Harlem Tops, a group of professional basketball players, gave a capacity crowd of casaba fans many laughs last Saturday night at the Merrill gymnasium where they played the Merrill VFW. The colored visitors played heads-up basketball and featured clever handling and smooth passing before reverting to their clowning tactics which brought down the house.

The ex-GIs gave the visitors a great run for their money and completely surprised many fans who did not expect the locals to have a chance.

The Tops later commented that they were surprised to meet such a fast driving and good checking aggregation as they found in Merrill. They especially congratulated Manager Don Ratliff on the playing of Chaburn, Duncan, "Ginger" Snapp and Fleck.

According to Ratliff the affair was a financial success and he said that he was very encouraged by the turnout. He added that he may endeavor to bring in some more traveling teams during the current basketball season.

Chiloquin

Severe sneezing has been experienced by nearly everyone but J. B. (Pat) Rice set a new record this week. He was in his barber shop when he sneezed, heard a loud snap, and felt a severe pain. X-rays showed he broke a rib. Of course, it must be admitted, that he had fallen against a piece of furniture an hour or so before the sneeze and had probably cracked the rib at that time.

It's all well and good to use the panter or cougar, symbol as a Chiloquin high school mascot but most local residents would rather the real McCoy would keep its distance. However, several families have reported being awakened on Monday night by the weird screams of a cougar in the nearby hills. The animal kept up his serenade for some 30 or 40 minutes.

Bonnie Gienger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gienger and a freshman at the University of Oregon, was invited to the Smarty Party, a reception given by Mortar Board honoring the girls who have made at least a 3.00 grade point during fall term. Mrs. Dick Morgan, cook at Fred Barnes' cafe, is home quite ill with the flu. Fred was stricken with hiccoughs which continued until Monday afternoon. After several trips to the doctor's office with no relief, he was removed to the hospital for further treatment. He was brought home Tuesday after the hiccoughs were stopped but he is very weak. He lost 15 pounds.

Rev. Newman, Rev. Perry Johnson and Homer Shirley called on Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Waterhouse Monday. Rev. Newman is a Baptist missionary and is holding meetings for the Calvary Baptist church in Klamath Falls. Rev. Johnson is pastor of the church. Homer Shirley is song leader in the meeting now in its second week. They took pictures of the Keno Baptist mission to be used in a missionary magazine of the Southern Baptist convention.

Mrs. Ray Hinshaw is assisting in Fred's cafe during the illness of Barnes and Mrs. Dick Morgan.

This little community has nothing but words of sympathy for Joe De Grande and wife over the loss of their garage by fire Tuesday afternoon. De Grande built his garage single-handed and opened for business January 1, 1947.

He had been gradually adding new equipment to make his shop more efficient. He also lost a large number of new tires and tubes.

The building and equipment was partially covered by insurance. Joe expects to rebuild at once and will use steel and cement to make the building fireproof.

Harvey Denham, grade school principal who has charge of the March of Dimes campaign for Keno, reports that he was disappointed in the attendance and donation at the Dimes dance given Friday in the school gymnasium as he was expecting a much better response.

Another fire was narrowly avoided Tuesday about midnight. Dan Hetrick came home late and built up a hot fire. After a few minutes he heard a crackling noise and saw a small flame crawling up the wall

LONG LIFE ON BACKS

Turtles live longer on their backs, if placed on their backs. Otherwise, the weight of the shell compresses their internal organs.

Two Beheaded

Inside Asia — John and Betty Stam, Gospel workers from America, were taken, stripped naked and led on thru the naked crowd to the block and beheaded. Long since, John and Betty had come to believe that God had put their sins on Christ who had died for them. They saw their sins blotted out and eternal life theirs.

Then came the day when they yielded their lives over to use of God whenever and wherever. And just so, the Bible urges all believers. Whether it be to handle a dairy herd, teach school, wash dishes, sell goods or what... yield... yield... yield... your life over to go and earn eternal reward. Must you go and empty handed?
