

Interest High In Red Bluff Bull Auction

Klamath basin cattle wintering in the Sacramento valley will be shown in the seventh annual Red Bluff bull sale and show, February 8, 6 and 7, in Red Bluff, Calif., and many Klamath county cattlemen will be on hand.

Prime purpose of the show is to improve range stock in this area of Northern California and Southern Oregon. Two outstanding beef cattle graders, Vard Shepard and Louis Rochford will grade the stock at this year's show.

Shepard is head of the animal husbandry division at California Polytechnic Institute and Rochford is from the Tejon ranch near Bakersfield. Not only must the consigned animals meet strict requirements, but grading demonstrations will be made by the two men to enable stockmen to yardstick their own cattle.

Grading and sales will be held in the livestock pavilion at the Tehama county fairgrounds.

Highlight of the show will be the sale of a registered Hereford bull from the Crowe ranch in Shasta county at auction. Proceeds of this sale will go to the March of Dimes fund. There will also be 282 rugged Hereford range bulls and 65 guaranteed in-calf heifers and 16 Shorthorn bulls.

The three-day program includes: Thursday—10 a. m. show of Hereford females, bulls and Shorthorns, followed by grading demonstration; 6 p. m. entertainment for visiting cattlemen at Hotel Tremont.

Friday—10 a. m. sale of heifers and March of Dimes bull and sale of 16 Shorthorn bulls; 6 p. m. entertainment for cattlemen at hotel, 8:30 p. m. and 8:45 p. m. vaudeville show at State theatre, Red Bluff.

Saturday—9:30 a. m. sale of 282 Hereford range bulls.

Credit Procedure Merchants' Topic

Klamath merchants discussed credit procedure, collections and accounts at a forum conducted Monday following luncheon at the Wilma hotel when 25 members of Merchants Credit Service, Inc., observed the first session of the month.

Frank Eberlein, president of the board, presided, and arrangements for the luncheon were made by "Hap" Jones. The next meeting is scheduled for February 16, at which time Ray Ward will arrange the program.

WHY WE SAY

The word "Island" is Anglo-Saxon, meaning an "eye" of land. The ancients had a propensity for comparing geographical places to parts of the body. Thus we say "arm of the sea," "mouth of a river," "brow of a hill," "headland."

Party Slated Faculty Wives will entertain for members and husbands with a party at 7 p. m. February 21 at Fremont Junior high school.
