

Tightening Present Laws Held Best Anti-Red Tactic

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5 (AP)—Attorney General Clark said today communism in this country can be curbed by tightening up laws already on the books.

He said there is no use trying to outlaw the communist party because that would only drive the members underground. And, he said, such a law might be declared unconstitutional.

There is "no more potent weapon," he added, than the work of the house committee on un-American activities in "bringing into the spotlight of publicity the activities of individuals and groups."

Clark suggested to a subcommittee of this group, however, that Congress:

1. Require all aliens to report their addresses once a year.
2. Permit the justice department to hold aliens for a definite length of time when their own countries refuse to take them back.
3. Hold officers of subversive groups responsible for seeing that they are registered under the Vespionage act. This act requires registration of groups which are under foreign control or aim to overthrow the government by force.
4. Strengthen the espionage act along lines to be recommended later.

Clark disclosed that this country now is holding about 3400 aliens whose own countries will not admit them. "About 2100 of these aliens," he said, "are deportable to countries behind the iron curtain."

He said at least a hundred of those who should be sent back to the Russian-dominated nations are in custody because they have been found guilty of "subversive activities."

Nice Train But It Got Nowhere

BOSTON, Feb. 5 (AP)—Passengers who boarded the "Owl" New York New Haven and Hartford sleeper here, slept sounder than most rail voyagers last night, but found themselves breakfasting in Boston instead of New York today.

As the train was pulling out at midnight, the locomotive became derailed. The train crew decided against disturbing the passengers—until the train rolled again at 7:45 a. m.

Most species of sea-horse are less than two-inches long, but some uncommon kinds reach a length of nearly two feet.

The recent war, according to a survey, forced 500,000 small concerns out of business.

Maybe It Was Attempted Murder

CLEARFIELD, Pa., Feb. 5 (AP)—Six-year-old Andrew Larson of Pine Grove, Pa., is feeling a little sleepish about his jet run today.

Andrew was walking along an ice-covered road near his home yesterday, the ram by his side.

As an automobile approached, Andrew told police, the ram butted him into the path of the car. The boy was held in a hospital for observation.
