

Late Winter Rites Solemnized Sunday

TULELAKE—Baskets of snapdragons, Dutch iris and scacia and many tall white tapers banked the altar of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church when Janiel Boyd, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Boyd of Tulelake, exchanged vows with Robert S. Adams Jr., Merrill. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Adams Sr., formerly of Tulelake, now of Henley.

The double ring service was read at 3 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, by Rev. Hugh Brunson in the presence of more than 200 relatives and friends of the young couple.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Edgar Osborne, with Mrs. Dorothy Baker of Alturas, accompanying, sang "I Love You Truly" and Cadman's "Because." Mrs. Baker also played the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, Janiel wore a gown of white slipper satin made with a full train, long sleeves and fitted bodice. A starched lace ruffle outlined the sheer yoke. Her French illusion, finger-tip length veil was caught with a halo of satin, and she wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom. She carried a white prayer book with a single white orchid caught with satin streamers and stephanotis.

Tradition was carried out with a bit of heirloom lace which has been in the family more than 50 years, a borrowed lace handkerchief, blue garter, and a lucky penny in her shoe.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Clifford L. Phillips of Merrill, sister of the groom, wore aqua taffeta made with bustle back, and matching mitts.

Identical frocks and mitts of pink were worn by the bridesmaids, Shirley McFall and Phyllis Rowan. The attendants all wore arrangements of matching ribbons in their hair and carried heart-shaped bouquets of pink carnations, Dutch iris and white daisies.

Little Helen Faulkner, cousin of the bride, in aqua organza, was flower girl.

French E. Johnson Jr., was best man, and the ushers were Dean Callas and Herman Turnbaugh.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Boyd chose an afternoon dress of beige with gold trim and a brown cyperpedrum orchid for her shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Adams wore a two-piece grey ensemble with a green orchid at the shoulder.

Immediately following the ceremony the new Mr. and Mrs. Adams with Mrs. Boyd received at the annex where the first piece of the three-tiered, rose-encircled cake was cut by the young couple.

Mrs. O. W. Boyd of Alturas and Mrs. Floyd A. Boyd of Tulelake, aunts of the bride, later served the confectidn. Pouring were Mrs. Bernard Boyd, an aunt, and Mrs. Gilbert Osborne. Ardice Long was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling, Mrs. Adams wore an aqua suit with pink top coat and accessories and the orchid from her bouquet at the shoulder.

Destination for the honeymoon was kept secret.

Janiel attended the Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, following her graduation from high school, and Bob went immediately into service in the navy.

Following their return, they will be at home here.

Out-of-town guests were the paternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Lelah N. Boyd of Alturas; her maternal grandfather, W. C. Blakey of Colton; Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Boyd, Mrs. H. D. Morgan and daughter, Mary Margaret, Mrs. Emma Verlinz, Mr. and Mrs. Estil Argabright and son, Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Griffin, all of Alturas.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Martin Adams, Sharon and Sandra, and Jean Wheeler of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson, Mrs. Minnie Ward and Mrs. Sarah Harshbarger of Henley; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Barry,

Membership

The Klamath Falls Woman's Library club, with 63 new members for the club year 1947-48, shows the greatest increase in membership in the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Max Bennett, Coos Bay, financial secretary of the federation, reports a great increase in membership all through the state. This increase is due, according to Mrs. Bennett, to the enthusiasm and interest being shown in the coming convention. All Oregon clubs will have some part in entertaining the annual convention of the general federation when it comes to Portland in May.

There have been three new clubs federated and one re-instated, besides a marked increase in membership in 31 clubs throughout the state. The new clubs are the Albany Junior Woman's club, the Rockaway club, and the Dayton Prairie Social club. The Coos Bay club was re-instated. The Newport Woman's club ran a close second to the Klamath Falls club with 58 new members.

Hostesses

Mrs. T. M. Moretz, Mrs. Oliver Spiker, Mrs. Bernice Finch, Mrs. Lee Willis, and Mrs. Oscar Peyton were the hostess committee for the 1 o'clock luncheon and afternoon of bridge held Friday by members of Aloha club of Past Matrons of the Eastern Star, in the Masonic temple.

Awards for the afternoon went to Mrs. J. F. Penrod and Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones.

Mrs. L. K. Phelps, vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. William DeWitt who has been called east by the illness and death of her mother. Mrs. DeWitt returned Thursday, February 5.

Friends have received cards from Mr. and Mrs. Tom Calmes of Keno, now in New York. At that point in their trip of several weeks, all they could write home about was the bitter cold weather in the East, but they've deserted that for the southland. Next stop is New Orleans and the Mardi Gras. From there they'll go to Houston, Tex., and Santa Fe, N. M., for the Southwestern cattle shows. Then, it's home for the Calmes.

History Of Flag Told At Meeting

Klamath unit No. 8, American Legion auxiliary, held an unusual Americanism program February 3, when Mrs. Paul Otterbein read an article written by Mrs. Robert Odell, on "The Evolution of the United States Flag."

The program was one of a series also being presented over radio station KFJI at 8:30, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday mornings.

Mrs. Odell announced that she has given a flag for Wiard Memorial park, and with Mrs. James Gilson, visited the park site recently. They arranged with Harry Wiard, sponsor of the park, for a dedication ceremony to be held at the celebration when the park is opened next spring. Hal Ogle will furnish the pole.

Mrs. Carl Schubert, child welfare chairman, asked that children's used clothing be brought to the meeting hall where it will be available for school nurses to distribute to needy youngsters.

Mrs. M. E. Cooper, hospital and rehabilitation chairman, distributed material for ditty bags to be made by members for hospitalized veterans.

Mrs. Douglas Pence announced that junior auxiliary members are making scrap books of cartoons for hospitalized veterans. An initiation ceremony for new members will be held at 8 o'clock February 17 in a joint meeting with Legion post 8.

Invitations have been mailed to 25 new members, but any other members who have not taken part in the ceremony are invited to join the group. Mrs. Fred Heilbronner, president of district 4, department of Oregon, will be installing officer.

Mrs. H. W. Petrick will present a program on "National Defense" at the meeting set for February 17, which will follow the initiation ceremony.

Carnival Plans

Everything is in readiness for the Sacred Heart academy annual carnival to be held February 10. A tempting home-cooked plate lunch will be served at 6 p. m. preceding the activities.

The usual carnival concessions in an auditorium bedecked with balloons will be featured, as well as the ever-popular country store. Bingo will be available to all throughout the evening.

The linen-filled cedar chest donated by the Mothers club and the magic-skin baby doll outfitted by Mrs. George Knoll and now on display at Matt Finnigan's toy and gift shop will be given away.

Guest Speaker

Phil Hitchcock was guest speaker at the regular Business and Professional Women's club dinner meeting held Monday, February 2, at the Willard hotel.

Mr. Hitchcock chose for his talk a subject of wide interest, "Our Remedy for Communism." He cited one of the greatest dangers as that of being destroyed from within by the infiltration of a well-trained minority.

Believing the best defense to make the American system of government and way of life the strongest in the world, Mr. Hitchcock warned against being deluded into a false security by merely passing laws against communism. He urged that the American system be strengthened by each American individually sincerely living that way of life.

Jewell Howard delighted the group by singing two numbers, "Homing" by Del Riego, and Romberg's "Will You Remember?" Marie Obenchain was her accompanist.

The meeting was planned by the legislative committee, with Hazel Morrison, chairman, in charge.

The next dinner meeting will be on February 16 and is under the direction of Margaret Kiplinger and her finance committee.

Dinner Meeting

At the next dinner meeting of the Toastmistress club, planned for February 11 at the Winema hotel, special guests will be members of Toastmasters and their wives. Toastmasters will conduct the meeting and present speakers.

Anne Price was toastmistress at the club's last meeting. Speakers were Mrs. Vivian Owens, who spoke of the need for a good working philosophy in everyday life. Mrs. Wanda O'Brien chose for her topic the curtailment of horror mystery stories to the hours when children usually listen to the radio.

"The Art of Correct Reading" was the subject chosen by Mrs. Lillian Hameline, and Margaret Santo spoke on points of interest in the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland.
