Layettes hold their alternate business meeting tonight and plans of the Lions club have not been announced.

Jackson Matron Dies

Mrs. James (Annie M.) Owens, 81-year-old pioneer matron of Jackson county, died Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at Ashland Community hospital following an illness of the past six weeks which started when she fell and fractured her hip. Mrs. Owens was the mother of J. V. Owens, 2039 Fremont. Owens left early this morning for Ashland and final rites for his mother will be announced on his return.
Mrs. Owens was born Annie Young, daughter of Nicholas Young, who settled in Jackson county in the early 50's. Mrs. Owens was born September 17, 1866 in Jacksonville and she spent her life in Southern Oregon. Her father operated a trading post in Jacksonville and ran a mule express between San Francisco and Jacksonville. Mr. Owens died in 1935 and since that time his widow has resided with her son and daughter, Henry A. Owens and Mrs. Lillian Bell, both of Ashland. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and Daughters of the Nile.

Gold Centennial Stamps On Sale

Memorial stamps on the California gold centennial went on sale at the Klamath Falls post office today. Five thousand of this issue of the memorial series have been received for distribution at this point. Thomas Massey, postal clerk advised.

These are purple three-centers showing Sutter's mill at Coloma, Calif., where gold was discovered by James W. W. Marshall 100 years ago. This information is printed on the upper left corner of the stamp, the three-cent designation is circled over a miner's pick and shovel and a banner at the bottom reads "1848—U. S. Postage—1948."

Our Home Town

Confidence

By EARL WHITLOCK
I receive many letters from people who are grateful for the aid we have given them in emergency. I very seldom print them. But this one note touches on an important idea and I should like you to read it.
It says: "I even more comforting than the actual Funeral Service which you cared for so beautifully and so simply and with so much dignity, was the feeling of complete confidence we felt when we first called you the night of our bereavement. It was as if we were putting everything connected with this strange and rather frightening experience, into the hands of an old and trusted friend. We knew that every required detail would be taken care of efficiently. We knew that the charge would be fair and reasonable. Your statement, just received, for which find check enclosed is another proof that our confidence was not misplaced. Thank you."
I don't think I can add anything to that.

Next Thursday Mr. Whitlock of the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home will comment on "Lincoln's Mistake."

The Oregon Council of Church Women will begin its three-day meeting here Tuesday.

Overtime Parking Take Hits $634

Overtime parking cost motorists $624.50 during the month of January. Mayor Ed Ostendorf said today that of the 1644 overtime parking tickets tagged on windshields by the police department, 1236 motorists paid up that month.
The rest are either foreign cars or will be picked up by warrants, the mayor said.

MICE, YET

PORTLAND, Feb. 9 (P)—Been getting any mice through the mail lately?
Some people have. Postmaster E. T. Hedlund complained today, adding that it is against the law to ship mice in that fashion.
What is worse, he said, the mice have been eating up parcels.

Burglary Tries Made

Three possible burglary attempts and several small thefts were reported to city police over the weekend, but the only item of any consequence taken was a .38 calibre Smith and Wesson revolver, stolen Sunday from the car of Ben Cook, Jr., Prineville.

Cook said his car was prowled and the revolver taken while the vehicle was parked on S. 6th in front of the Klamath hotel.

Dr. Oscar S. Nissen, Hopka building, reported his office entered sometime Saturday night, but nothing taken. Entry probably was made by climbing up a fire escape and opening an outside window.

Another possible burglary attempt was made at Matt Finnigan's sporting goods store on Main, where a back window was pushed in. The attempt was not successful.

A milk bottle was thrown into a front window at Bert and Ann's grocery store, 1605 Esplanade, sometime Saturday night, breaking the pane.

Bruce Kellow, homaja housing units, reported he lost his billfold Saturday, probably in Woolworth's store on Main. The billfold contained approximately $100 in currency, Kellow told police.

Another lost wallet was reported by Marvin Furlow, 1023 Bowen, Saturday night. Furlow said he

Spud Sampling Test Started

A large sampling and bin inspection on certified potato seed for Klamath basin is being substituted for Oceanside seed tests which had to be postponed due to hard frost just before the date set for the annual field day.

There are 29 lots being examined this week by Walt Jendrzewski, assistant county agent, assisted by Agent Charles A. Henderson, Jim Ellings, assistant, and Harold Schieferstein, weed control superintendent.

From 500 to 1500 potatoes are being cut at each cellar, depending on the volume in storage, for the tolerance test. Lots range from 300 sacks to 12,000 sacks, and this work must be done by the end of the week.

did not know where the billfold was lost.

Johnson Retains Fair Board Post

The county court has re-appointed J. A. Johnson to the Klamath county fair board for a three-year term, Johnson's previous appointment expired January 1.
Also re-appointed by the court was Blaine W. Mason Sr. to the armory board as the county's member, for a one-year term effective January 1.
