

CHURCH NEWS

Presbyterian To Observe Lent Season

The Sunday morning service at the First Presbyterian church will be observed as the first Sunday in Lent. The sermon theme chosen for this Sunday is "The Proving Ground."

The choir will sing "Holy Art Thou" by Handel. Andrew Loney is choir director, and Mrs. Elbert Vetch will be at the organ. Carl Nagel will sing "The Prayer Perfect." A nursery is conducted during the morning service.

The Junior High Westminster fellowship will enjoy a Sunday morning breakfast at 7:45. Officers will be elected, and Mrs. Emily Mecum, director of Christian education, will tell a story. The group will adjourn in time for Sunday school.

The Senior High Westminster fellowship meeting at 6:30 p. m. at the church, will welcome Virginia Tucker, visiting moderator of Westminster fellowship for the synod of Oregon. Miss Tucker will conduct a model meeting.

The Women's association will meet at the church on Thursday at 2:15 p. m. Mrs. Carleton Hornbrook will speak on "Stewardship," and Mrs. L. C. Hornby will talk on "Christian Family Life." Ingrid Olson will sing, accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre.

Church Keeps Reading Room

Citations from the Bible and "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be combined to present the lesson-lesson at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10th and Washington, this Sunday.

Topic of the lesson-sermon will be "Soul," with the Golden Text, "I will set my tabernacle among you; and my soul shall not abhor you. And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people." (Lev. 26:11, 12)

The regular morning worship will be held at 11 o'clock, with Sunday school at the same hour downstairs in the church.

Wednesday evening meetings are held at 8 o'clock each week. A free reading room is maintained at 1023 Main. All are welcome to attend the services and use the reading room.

Missionary At First Baptist

Dr. W. E. Craighead is scheduled to speak at the First Baptist church, N. 8th and Washington, Sunday, February 15.

For 20 years Dr. Craighead served as the only Baptist missionary in Bessarabia, Rumania. During his ministry there, 20,000 converts were reported, and many churches were established. The war compelled the missionary and his family to leave, and the province has been incorporated into the Soviet Union. The public is urged to hear Dr. Craighead Sunday.

Communion At St. Paul's

A number of special services will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal church next week beginning with Sunday, the first Sunday in Lent.

Rev. F. C. Wisenbach, rector, announces Sunday services, beginning with Holy Communion at 8 a. m., church school at 9:45 a. m., prayer and sermon on "The Temptations in the Wilderness," at 11 a. m., and at 6:30 p. m., a meeting of the Young People's fellowship.

A Litany service and choir practice will be held at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. "The Revelation of the Scriptures to the Church," a series of lectures by the rector, show the relationship of the church and the Bible, will be presented at 2 p. m. Thursday. Everyone is welcome. At 10 a. m. Friday, there will be celebration of the Holy Communion.

Two Sermon Series Slated

The Rev. Victor Phillips, minister of the First Methodist church, located at 10th and High, announces that he will begin two series of sermons next Sunday, in observance of the Lenten season, one to be given at the morning services through Lent at 11 o'clock, the other to be given at evening services at 8 o'clock.

The morning series will be on "The Parables of Jesus," and the subject for next Sunday morning will be, "Patching Old Clothes." The services will include special music by the choir. A nursery will be maintained in the church parlors for the convenience of parents wishing to have their young children cared for during the morning service.

The series for the evening services will be, "Six Days of Destiny," and will deal with the events and personalities of the last days of the earthly ministry of Jesus. The topic for next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock will be "The Home at Bethany."

Church Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. next Sunday and the

Conference Slated At LDS Church

A quarterly district conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will be held at the Klamath Falls chapel, Home and Martin, from 10 a. m. to 12 noon, Sunday.

President German E. Ellsworth of the Northern California mission, and Mrs. Ellsworth will be the principle speakers. Everyone is invited.

Lent Sermons To Begin

Rev. Godfrey Matthews will begin a series of sermons for the Lenten period, Sunday morning at the Congregational church, Garden near Martin, under the general title of "This is the Victory That Overcometh the World."

A nursery for little children is conducted by members of the Junior circle during the hour of church worship, and parents are encouraged to bring their little ones with them. The service begins at 11 a. m.

The Pilgrim fellowship is holding a box-social meeting in the evening at 6:30, and will make the final plans for attendance at the mid-winter conference of their state fellowship at Oregon City February 20-22. Mary Stone, president, and her committee urge a large attendance Sunday night.

Johnson Speaks At Calvary Baptist

Rev. Perry M. Johnson, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, will be in the pulpit for both services this Sunday.

Following a series of revival messages, Rev. Johnson will speak on "Conserving the Most for Christ." Beginning Sunday evening, he will conduct a series of studies on the topic, "Today in the Light of the Scripture." The message for the first meeting will be "The Midnight Cry" or the "Motto of the World's Last Great Revival."

These services are open to the public and all are welcome.

Methodist Youth fellowship will meet at 6:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to all services.

Lutheran Service Set

Klamath Lutheran church will open the Lenten season this Sunday at 11 a. m. with Rev. H. J. Thorpe in charge of the service. Rev. Thorpe's sermon theme will be "How Jesus Saves." The senior choir will sing the anthem, "My God and I," by I. B. Segel, and Mrs. Arthur Denison will accompany at the organ.

Klamath Lutheran extends an invitation to all friends and members of the church to share in its services and worship during the lenten season.

Rev. Thorpe of Orland, Calif., will serve the congregation until a permanent pastor accepts a call to Klamath Lutheran. The board is negotiating to get a minister at the present time. Former pastor, Rev. S. M. Topness has gone to Huxley, Ia.

The Sunday school will meet at the regular time, 9:45 a. m.

Church Of Christ Slates Services

J. F. Hargrove will conduct services this week at the Church of Christ, 2205 Wantland, in the absence of Evangelist Gus Winter.

Soil Meets Planned

Soil conservation districts in this region are preparing for their annual meeting to be held this month and in March.

Rex High will be in charge of the meeting February 19 of the Poe valley district. It will be in the grange hall and election will be held for one supervisor.

Dr. William Van Dersal, operations chief for this region, will be here from Portland to talk at the annual meeting of the Langell valley district on March 3. Annual reports will be heard at this time from the treasurer and auditor and one supervisor will be elected.

The Langell valley board of supervisors met Wednesday evening to make plans for the annual affair.

Lakeview district board met Thursday night to plan for the annual meeting there on March 4. A special program was arranged with sound pictures in the post office building at Lakeview.

Joseph B. Rogers, district conservationist from Bend, has been in the Klamath Falls office since Monday conferring with Al Everts, soil engineer, who is at present in charge of the office since Frank Pavelek resigned to take a position in the land use department of the U. S. bureau of reclamation, Klamath project.

Pavelek came to Klamath Falls from the bay area in July, 1947, as work unit conservationist in charge of the Poe and Langell valley districts.
