Fort Klamath

Of interest to homemakers in this vicinity is the forthcoming all-day meeting of the Fort Klamath home extension unit which will be held on Friday, February 20, at the home of Mrs. Frank Denton at the Denton ranch north of Fort Klamath. The day will be devoted to the "textile painting," and all women, regardless of whether they are members of the unit or not, are urged to attend and also to bring an article to be painted. A paper sack lunch will be served at noon, each woman coming being asked to bring a lunch.

In the event that the road into the Denton ranch from the highway should be blocked by snow on the day of the meeting, those interested are notified that it will be held at the home of Mrs. H. T. Williams instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Royder and Mrs. Jerry King were Klamath Falls visitors on Monday, when Donald Royder, 15-year-old son of the Royders, had the cast removed from his ankle in which a bone was broken six weeks ago in a skiing accident north of here. He still has to use crutches, however, for some time yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Orth Jr. received news of the birth of a daughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. James H. Orth on Friday, February 6, at Sacramento. Orth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Orth, and the new arrival weighed eight and one-half pounds at birth and has been named Sandra Lee. Both mother and daughter are doing well, according to report.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Looney are also receiving congratulations on the arrival of a new grandson, the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Kizer of Roseville, N. M. Mrs. Kizer is the former Maxine Looney. The infant weighed eight pounds 15 ounces at birth, and the name of Kim Dale has been chosen for him by his parents.

Jerry Shemore and Fred Pope attended the cattle sale at Red Bluff last week, and since returning here, Shemore has been suffering with a severe cold and touch of influenza but is now able to be out and around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle B. Thorpe have returned from Council, Ida, to their home in Fort Klamath, where they will reside permanently. Thorpe has been employed in carpenter work at Council for the past several months by Gordon and McCreary, contractors for the Boise-Payette Lumber company. His immediate plans are indefinite.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Looney were Klamath Falls visitors on Thursday, when Mrs. Looney was assistant hostess at the Lincoln Day tea given in honor of Mrs. John Hall at the Pelican cafe. Mrs. Looney is chairman of the Wood River-Chiloquin Republican Women's club.

Word has been received here by relatives advising that Alfred B. Castel Jr., who has suffered a mild stroke and his condition is considered somewhat serious at this time, Castel has been in ill health for the past three years, and has been in Portland under the care of physicians for the past several months, part of the time at the Veterans' hospital there and later at the home of his parents. Mrs. Castel has been in Portland with her husband for the past six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zumburn went to Red Bluff this week after a consignment of bulls which were purchased for the Zumburn ranch at the recent livestock sale held there. On the return trip they were accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Zumburn, who have been visiting relatives in the south for some time.

The Wood River valley is having its first real winter weather at this time, the valley being covered with several inches of snow as a result of the storm recently. Sub-zero temperatures ranging from 10 to 18 below have been prevailing here this week.

Mrs. P. D. "Buster" Knox was removed to the Hillsdale hospital in Klamath Falls Sunday from her home here and is receiving medical care there.

New Pine Creek

The Youth club made a decisive change in its organization at its regular meeting held Tuesday night when members voted to change the club's name to the Youth Grangers of America. By this move, it becomes compulsory for each club member to become a regular grange member as well, and the club as a result becomes more firmly knit into the regular grange organization.

The club will undergo definite reorganization by a district supervisor designated or appointed by the state grange master.

The leader, Mrs. Gladys Cooper, wishes to announce for the benefit of those members who were not present, that all who are in the play cast, "The Hen-pecked Husband," are requested to be on hand by 6:30 o'clock so that extra practice can be put on the play.

Cards will be sent out to all club members and their parents regarding what to bring to the group's first anniversary dinner to be held February 15 at 2 o'clock. The entertainment committee will also have a program for the occasion.

Mrs. Lee Bernard left last Monday for Richmond, called by the illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sanford also left Monday for a few days to attend the funeral rites of an old acquaintance.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Lawson and family went to Klamath Falls Friday morning on business, returning Sunday evening.

The regular grange meeting held last Saturday night, preceded by a big potluck supper, was well attended and the good program that followed was thoroughly enjoyed.

The juvenile grangers had charge of the program with the exception of a skit, "Mrs. Whacker Telephones," which brought down the house, was a monologue, put on by Joanne Cooper dressed up like a jockey. A short social hour of dancing followed the program.

The Home Ec club met Thursday afternoon, February 5, at the grange hall. Present at the meeting was county home demonstration agent, Mrs. Smith of Alturas. She demonstrated making home made rugs.

Mrs. Smith will visit the Home Ec club the first Thursday of each month and a special feature of this particular monthly meeting will be that all ladies of the community, whether club members or not, are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served to all who attend. The next meeting will be held on March 4, when the demonstration agent will be present.

There was a short business meeting after which hostesses Mrs. Viola Bishop and Mrs. Imogene Bateman served delicious refreshments of cake, jelly with whipped cream and coffee. Twenty-seven women and five children were present.

The Happy Hour club met at the home of Thelma Gooch, February 3. Eleven members and six children were present. After the business meeting, Mrs. Gooch and Hazel Sanford received their anniversary gift from their secret pals, and Ruby Partin received her secret pal birthday gift.

The hostess presented a box of various articles which was inspected by those present. The person naming the most articles in the box was won by Fannie Fisher. Lunch and refreshments of slices of date bread, baked ham sandwiches and individual Philadelphia cream cheese salad with coffee, was served. Ice cream and cookies were served to the children. The next meeting will be February 17, with Mrs. Allie Hammenery.

Mrs. Edith Partridge and Mrs. Hugh Partridge were honored guests at a birthday dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Gooch on Sunday, January 25. Other guests present were John Partridge, Ralph and Ella Dawson from Alturas, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Partridge of Lakeview, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Gooch of Cedarville, and Phillip, Evelyn and Goldie Ann Gooch.

There will be a farm bureau meeting at the grange hall on February 1 at 1 o'clock. The business of the meeting will be to demonstrate the general use of the land level. All farmers interested are invited to attend.

Pomona grange will meet in New Pine Creek at the grange hall on February 21 for the first quarterly meeting of the year. The meeting will be unique in this respect that it starts off a Pomona grange membership attendance contest, to see which of the five Pomona granges will have the best attendance percentage. Each member present who has signed the register before 12 o'clock counts 10 points for the Pomona grange. The member must also be present all afternoon during the business meeting. Regular grange lecturer, Mrs. A. M. Carter, who by the way has been doing a very fine job with the grange programs, will have charge and be responsible for one number on the program. Fred Fisher urged all Pomona grange members to turn out 100 per cent, if possible, as it would be our best chance locally to win the contest.

Merrill

The Merrill Library club met at the home of Mrs. Max Hartlerode February 6 for election of officers as follows: President, Mrs. William Walker; first vice president, Mrs. Eber Kilpatrick; second vice president, Mrs. William Poe; secretary, Mrs. Riley DeLap; and treasurer, Mrs. Leonard McNeil. Mrs. Melvin Bowman was elected parliamentarian. There was an interesting discussion about the fire hazard at the Merrill grade school. Mrs. V. E. Rexford displayed her textile paintings and gave an instructive talk on the work. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Leonard McNeil, Mrs. Francis Andrews, Mrs. E. Jones, Mrs. Warren Pruitt, Mrs. William Walker, Mrs. V. E. Rexford, Mrs. Riley DeLap and the hostess.

Next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Melvin Bowman on March 4. Members and friends are invited.

Marnie Giacomini was hostess to the executive committee of the Women of the Moose, Merrill chapter, on January 30 with Dovie Reeder, Louise Icenbice, Olga Bradshaw, Maggie Adams, Mary Lou Nine and Anna Hartlerode present.

Women of the Moose met in regular session Tuesday, February 3, in Merrill recreation hall. Three new members were elected to membership, Ruby Kiger and Violet Abercrombie of Henley, sponsored by Inez Sherrill, and Alice Krohn of Merrill, sponsored by Lottie Phipps.

The academy of friendship committee will sponsor a card party for all co-workers, Moose members, Saturday, February 14, in the women's meeting room.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilson of Malin were hosts to the members of the Women of the Moose and Loyal Order of Moose at their second pinocle party of the season on January 17. Twenty-one guests were present. Margaret Hadley had ladies' high; Maggie Adams, ladies' low; Jack Adams, men's low; Hank Hadley, men's high; Hilary Wine-
