Red And White

An elaborate St. Valentine's Day theme in gay red and white will greet members of the Elks lodge and their ladies this Saturday evening when the lodge gives its annual Valentine party.

The formal affair, is planned with dancing from 10 to 2 o'clock. Music will be by Gordon's orchestra.

Chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Drago and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Drager of Merrill. Working on their committee are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fields and Mr. and Mrs. John McNeill, all of Merrill.

A midnight supper will be served.

Mrs. Arthur Compton of 1879 Del Moro, returned this week from Portland. There she visited her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fuller Smith Jr., at the Congress hotel, where the Smiths are staying. They are spending their annual few months' visit in the Northwest from Latin America, where they stay the rest of the year.

CHARMING VISITOR in Klamath Falls this week was Mrs. John H. Hall, left, wife of Oregon's governor. Mrs. Hall was feted at a delightful tea given by the Klamath Falls branch of the National Republican Women's council Thursday afternoon. With Mrs. Hall are Mrs. Martin Ramsby, center, and Mrs. Elbert Stiles, who assisted with the party.

Week's Highlight Is Thursday Tea

Outstanding on the week's social calendar was a lovely tea given by the Klamath Falls branch of the National Council of Republican Women, to compliment Mrs. John H. Hall, wife of Oregon's governor, who, with her husband, was a Klamath Falls visitor.

An attractive array of red, white and blue greeted guests attending the Lincoln Day tea. Bouquets of flowers, carrying out the patriotic motif, were arranged about the rooms, and at the tea table.

Hours were from 3 to 5 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, in the Pelican party room. General chairman of the affair was Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Rose M. Poole, president of the Klamath Falls Republican Women, Mrs. Paul Farrens, Mrs. Wyatt Padgett, Mrs. William DeCew and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman of Chiloquin.

Pouring were Mrs. L. A. Murphy, Mrs. Richard Maxwell, Mrs. Arnold L. Gralapp and Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Ray Loosley and Mrs. William Hacker of Fort Klamath, Mrs. Fred Markwardt and Mrs. William Lorenz of Chiloquin, Mrs. M. A. Bowman of Merrill, Mrs. George H. Adler, Mrs. Martin Ramsby, Mrs. Elbert Stiles, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Twyla Ferguson, Mrs. R. Henry Anderson, Mrs. Frederick Ehlers and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson.

One hundred and sixty-five women from Klamath Falls and nearby communities attended the affair.

Valentine

The St. Valentine's theme will be used at a Valentine party tonight when Sara Stewart will entertain classmates at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart. The playroom will be the scene of the affair with games and dancing planned for the guests.

Invited are Beverly Lassett, Marcia Wilson, Marcia Mills, Nancy Kellogg, Nancy Warren, Marilyn Brandt, Delores McFarland, Gail Reinhart, Carol Jean Elliott, Ann Henderson, Annette Jacobs, Shirley Davis, Ruth Roenicke and Patty Garvin.

Opinions Still Fly On Picture Dates

To continue with last week's discussion on "old pictures," the differences of opinion keep floating into this office. But at least one thing is now straight in our minds. When Thomas Lamont was summoned to New York on the shooting of J. P. Morgan, he DID get out of here by car. The shooting occurred in New York on July 3, 1915 and on the next day, which was the July 4th holiday, Rose Poole, remembers very distinctly she worked all day in the KD offices relaying messages to Mr. Lamont who was at Harriman lodge at that time.

The old Herald of July 3 carried two banners, one "Bomb Exploded in U. S. Capitol Last Night" and the second, "J. P. Morgan Shot By Supposed German at His Home." The next day was a holiday and on July 5, The Herald carried a head—"Lamont Speeds to New York" and we quote:

"T. W. Lamont, first partner of J. P. Morgan, who was seriously shot last Saturday at his home in Glen Cove, New York, etc., etc., is speeding to New York as fast as automobile and train can carry him."

"W. P. Johnson drove to the lodge and return in three hours Saturday over slippery mountain roads in his Peerless Six. Here D. J. Desmond of the Klamath Meat company joined the party and they left at 6:45 for Weed via Topsy Grade. Johnson drove from here and Louis Hoagland was taken along as extra driver, driving back from Weed Sunday. Mr. Lamont took the Shasta at Weed."

Old pictures always bring up diversified opinions but that makes it interesting and also proves an old truth that history is as argumentative as all get out. In fact the picture of Mr. Lamont, Mr. Harriman and Frank Ira White, in Mrs. Francis Olds' opinion, was not taken at Harriman lodge but on the porch of the old Ewauna House which stood for many years at Fourth and Main where a service station now graces the property! We hope the story concerning Harriman lodge in this issue does not create too much difference of opinion. Our old news source, Buck Williams, is now in Williams, Calif., and we'll wait until his return for the storm to break.

People who met Mrs. John H. Hall, wife of the governor, were disappointed that she could not spend Friday here while her husband busied himself in Lakeview on state business. Mrs. Hall left late Thursday night by train, after the Lincoln Day banquet, as little daughter Diane in Portland is under the weather.

Mrs. Hall had a busy day, what with attending the Soroptimist

GETTING READY FOR THE PARTY tonight at the Willard are the two young hostesses, Beverly Eells (left) and Marilyn Miller. St. Valentine's Day is the theme of the affair. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley Eells and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Miller.

Speech Group Has Dinner Meeting

A dinner meeting was held at the Winema hotel February 11, when the Toastmistress club had as special guests members of the Toastmasters club and their wives. Mrs. Katherine Chidester, president of the Toastmistresses, opened the meeting with a speech of welcome, and then turned the meeting over to Mel Henry, president of Toastmasters. The Toastmasters conducted their regular meeting and presented speakers.

Garry Robertson was toastmaster of the evening, J. C. Johnston acted as topic master and Ted Hanson was general critic. Mr. Robertson presented the five speakers. Jack Elliott spoke on "The Grand Old Soap Opera," Tom Williams chose as his subject, "The American Red Cross," and Dr. A. A. Soule gave a talk entitled "Why Worry." Dr. M. E. Cooper gave a speech called "Why is a Cow," and J. V. LaClair spoke on "Global Thinkers."

Among those present, besides members of the Toastmistress club, were Julia Giegler, Mr. and Mrs. A. Clark Fryatt, Howard B. Holt, Joseph T. Irikel, Kenneth Chidester, Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Williams, Dr. A. A. Soule, Joy Biggs, J. H. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Linn, Mrs. Edythe Clapp, B. H. Trippett, Irene Byrnes, Mrs. Alto Smith, Mrs. W. E. Kennett, Mrs. G. F. Hetherington, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Montgomery, Paul Buck, Mabel Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Garry E. Robertson, Herbert Haneline, William Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wildermuth, Wadie Pade, Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Joe LaClair, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Thoeleke, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. John Argelinger, J. C. Johnston, Mel Henry and Ted Hanson.

Country Club

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peyton are chairmen of the Reames Golf and Country club dance tonight, Saturday. The informal party will be based on a St. Valentine's Day motif, with appropriate decorations decking the clubhouse.

A buffet supper will be served at midnight. Morrison and McDonald will furnish music for dancing, from 9 to 1 o'clock.

On the committee arranging the party with Mr. and Mrs. Peyton are Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Inman and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerber.

Nuptial Party

Irma McBride, bride-elect of Richard Lowe, was feted at a pre-nuptial miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Bud Peterstener on Thursday evening of this week.

Guests included Miss McBride, Mrs. L. M. McBride Sr., Mrs. L. M. McBride Jr., Mrs. C. L. Lowe, Mrs. Chuck Cecil, Carol Anderson, Pat Hull, Pat Meyers, Geraldine Altman, Lynden King, Mrs. George Demetrakos, Connie Hunt, Helen Eckert, Mrs. Noel Deets, Effie Botens and Marjorie Brooks.

JUST A SAMPLE of the decorations to set the Valentine theme at the Elks Valentine party tonight is the huge, lacy red heart. Clockwise around the heart are members of the committee arranging the affair, Mrs. Louis Stewart, Mrs. Lou Drager, Mrs. John McNeill, Lou Drager, Louis Stewart, Bob Walker, John McNeill, Mrs. Walker, Bob Drago and Mrs. Drago.

Malin Girl Weds In Bay Church

Juanita Haley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Perry Haley, Malin, recently became the bride of Thomas E. Daugherty of San Francisco. Word of the nuptials reached here this week. The groom is the son of Gayle Daugherty, Leland, Illinois.

The double ring service was read in the First Presbyterian church in the bay city.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a family wedding gown of brocaded eggshell satin, made with a sheer yoke outlined with a fold of satin. The leg-o-mutton sleeves were pointed at the wrist and the train was full length. Her finger tip illusion veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white prairie book, topped with a single orchid from which fell a shower of white satin ribbon and stephanotis.

Mrs. Lola Hitt of Detroit, Mich., came west to be matron of honor for her sister. Her frock was of rose chiffon and in her hair was an arrangement of forget-me-nots and pink bouvardia.

Bridesmaid was a younger sister, Mrs. Maxine Bassart of Menlo Park, Calif., who wore blue chiffon and lace and an identical flower arrangement in her hair. Both attendants wore long gloves to match their frocks.

A. J. Leiss, San Francisco, was best man.

A reception in the Royal suite of the Palace hotel followed the ceremony with the bride and groom cutting their beautiful three-tiered wedding cake.

For traveling Mrs. Daugherty chose a toast shade gabardine suit with black accessories, and she wore the orchid from her prayer book at the shoulder.

Since returning from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty have been at "Harmony Hill Home" in the resort area of the high Sierras, near Soda Springs.

Buffet Dinner

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw gathered at the Pelican party room last Saturday evening to bid farewell to the Shaws who left this week for Redding, California, to make their home.

Entertaining for the Shaws were Dr. and Mrs. John D. Merryman and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller. Invited for cocktails and a buffet dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burgoyne, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Macartney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mack, Mr. and Mrs. Greer Drew, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drew, Mr. and Mrs. William Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Harby Bechen and Mr. and Mrs. Truman Runyan.

Dancing Party

A "Jack Frost Jig" was the party planned by the senior group of Girls Friendly society at St. Paul's parish house Friday evening of last week and games and dancing were the order of the evening. Miss Hazel Morrison is adviser for the group and she was assisted by Mrs. W. D. Miller.
