Lydia Circle

Young women of the Seventh Day Adventist church have formed a new group, Lydia circle, and among first events planned is a food and fancy work sale. Date has not yet been set for the affair.

Advisors of the group are Mrs. Roy Dugan and Mrs. Earl Young, with Fern Hand secretary, and Barbara Alderson, treasurer.

A recent affair sponsored by the group was a supper at the community hall. Mrs. Ethel Van Tressas was hostess at the last meeting, February 8, at her home, 125 Wendling.

Meetings are held every other Thursday. The next session will be on Thursday, March 4. Among projects of Lydia circle is assisting the Dorcas circle with clothing shipments abroad.

BROTHERS are Stephen, six, and Larry Dean Dinny, two. The boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Loren H. Dinny of 724 Mitchell.

Entertained

Forty-eight members and guests of Sojourners were entertained amid an array of Valentine decorations at their regular meeting at the Willard hotel February 11. Pussycat willows with red hearts hanging from them adorned the main table, and large hearts attached to candy cups were at the bridge tables.

Mrs. E. Houston, president, welcomed three new members who are Mrs. John Acomb, Mrs. Howard Lamkin and Mrs. D. S. Johnson.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. David Boyd, Mrs. T. R. Linbat, Mrs. N. A. Rosenbom, Mrs. E. R. Long, Mrs. D. H. Stults, Mrs. Dean Oakes, Mrs. E. H. Shipper, Mrs. E. J. Shoop, Mrs. E. A. Springer, Mrs. Gerald Garner and Mrs. A. W. Brink.

It was announced that the annual spring tea will be held March 27. This is one of the social highlights of the year for Sojourners.

It was also announced that Mrs. Eldon Hobart will instruct a bridge table at the regular meetings for those who would like to come to Sojourners but do not do so because they cannot play bridge.

At the close of the business meeting cards were in play with honors Mrs. E. L. Barke, Mrs. M. L. Shepherd and Mrs. Ray Worden.

Martha and Shops

LaPointe's ... What a selection of new favorites in the skirt department! Skirts that swing and sway or give an air of sophistication with their slim, straight lines! And the size range, please note, is more complete than usual ... starting at 21 and extending through 32.

The graceful and alluring swing skirts ... a welcome change we're readily succumbing to after the stinky cuts of several years ... are appearing in a wider variety of fabrics ... and the soft, lightweight wools for spring are truly luscious. Gorgeous plaids like the lilac combination ... or solid shades including beige, gold, and navy.

As for the beguiling black skirts in fall, moiré and lovely crepes ... full of swish or flaring gently ... the assortment is more complete than ever ... and several models are showing the latest emmerbund waistband. One distinctive and dressy black crepe combines a slimming effect with a flare by using three diagonal pieces set together. Another, of a novel cord fabric, is completely circular, unbroken by seams front or back. Just in case you're shunning black, a few navy blues are also scattered through this group.

The slim, straight skirts are mostly fashioned of fine gabardine or Tera cloth ... extremely well tailored, with the popular fly front and tucked waistline. Among these are fetching pastels, as well as gray, navy, brown, black ... and you'll find a wide price range at LAPOINTE'S ... 507 Main.

Many American women, in the opinion of Pierre Balmain, famous Parisian couturier, have a tendency to value quality of fabric over style when selecting clothes. Whereas, in reality, lines have as much to do with smartness as do fabrics, he stated in a recent interview with an NEA staff writer.

Jewel & Gift Shop is displaying an impressive selection of Bavarian china teacups in the dainty demi tasse sizes ... sought after by collectors ... and, in Martha's opinion, they're even more exquisite than the famed English china. Many of the designs are hand-painted before glazing ... and their coloring is quite exceptional. A new line of fine American glassware in the "bell" pattern has been added to the numerous other patterns featured by Jewel and Gift ... and, though every piece is made by hand, the prices are reasonable ... from $1.00 to $1.25. A large shipment of the Imperial Candlewick glassware has been received, too, containing complete table settings.

JEWEL AND GIFT SHOP 519 Main ... the S and H Green Stamp store ... now has a variety of silver-plated patterns for immediate delivery in Holmes and Edwards or 1847 Rogers Bros. flatware that it will be a pleasure to show you.

Experts of the Corset and Brassiere association recommend a bandeau with only gentle restraint as the bra best suited to teenagers. These may be of lace, lightweight cotton or rayon, with or without a narrow supporting band.

Antoine of Paris has a gift for you at the cosmetics department in LaPOINTE'S ... where, during next week only, a complimentary dollar-size jar of his famous protective foundation ... Ski-Cream ... will be presented to each purchaser of Antoine products to the amount of $2.00 or over. This Ski-Cream, primarily created for a weather protective, was found so successful in preventing dryness and chapping that it's now in demand as an all-season foundation for complexion care ... so it will be an excellent time for you to become acquainted with it yourself during next week's gift event at LaPOINTE'S ... 507 Main.

The tiered dress, designed with triple rows of graduated tiers, has captured the fancy again and will be appearing in numerous types of prints.

Houston Beauty Salon will remain closed on February 23rd to give its personnel an opportunity to attend the Trade and Educational Show being held by the Oregon Association of Beauty Shop Owners and Operators at the Multnomah hotel in Portland, February 22 and 23.

Dolores Kersen, co-owner of the HOUSTON BEAUTY SALON at 114 No. Eighth, and president of the state association, has been overseeing arrangements for the show, one of the largest ever held. Of particular interest to beauticians will be the displays and demonstrations of the newest equipment ... but shop patrons will be interested in learning what the nine or more coiffure "artists" on the program had to say about 1948's hair styles.

Whytal's was a changed store by the time Martha dropped around this week ... the clutter of re-decorating practically gone ... several departments installed in their new nooks ... the whole interior as fresh and pretty as the new Easter finery arriving daily!

In addition to a pleasing and effective color scheme ... dove gray walls shading into pearl gray, canopied by a rosy-pink ceiling ... the millinery, sportswear and cosmetics departments were switched around, resulting in far more attractive quarters for all three.

A hat salon has been created in the small room at the right of the front entrance, providing additional space for displaying the latest headwear. Fine gloves and bags will be kept in here, too ... and, incidentally, the lighting has been greatly improved, the better to see the colors. Beautiful wall-to-wall carpeting in gray and pink adds a note of richness to simplicity of design.

Sportswear, blouses and skirts were moved to the section formerly occupied by millinery ... where roomy display cases have been installed which show them off to better advantage ... and the Alexandra de Markoff toiletries, a Whytal's exclusive, now occupy the space formerly reserved for gloves or jeweled accessories.

WHYTAL'S ... in the Medical-Dental building, Main at Ninth ... is carrying in its pre-war policy of reverting to more selective ready-to-wear, including some choice new lines that haven't been available here before.

Miller's announce the arrival on February 19th of the New York consultant for Charles of the Ritz, Edith Cummings who will be available at the Beauty Bar for three days ... Thursday, Friday and Saturday ... for complimentary skin analyses and consultations.

Miss Cummings brings with her the very latest in make-up news from New York ... so while she's blending your made-to-order face powder, ask her to show you Charles of the Ritz latest lipstick shade, "Raspberry Ice" that goes so beautifully with navy, gray, beige or black ... and the Revencence cream which has a wonderful moisture-giving quality ... so necessary to the new delicate look. Those who've already tried Revencence have become faithful users.

By all means, let Miss Cummings show you the practical way to keep looking right during her three-day visit at MILLER'S ... 512 Main ... where Charles of the Ritz is an exclusive.

Among new colors appearing in nylon hosiery are seashell pink, rosy coral, surf green, mid-ocean blue and hibiscus gold. Among lighter and brighter neutrals are lighthouse gray and a rich suntan shade named "Flight 101" in honor of Colonial Airlines' New York-to-Bermuda hop.

Pine Street Market Sometime ago, Martha mentioned the new method for canning whole chickens ... and now they're available at the Market ... three-pound chickens (minus giblets) prepared by Monarch ... for your Sunday dinner. Simply remove from the can and place in a hot oven for 15 or 20 minutes, basting several times with the chicken fat, and they're ready to serve. The accompanying broth may be used for dressing or noodles.

By this time you've no doubt tried the frozen chip steaks, but have you introduced the family yet to Frozen Patti Steaks, made of pure ground beef? Each package holds six servings ... and you can give them a little extra fillip by a sprinkling of onion salt.

Looking over the large assortment of jellies and jams at PINE STREET MARKET ... corner of Seventh and Pine ... Martha noted some new arrivals in Monarch preserves ... Black Cherry, Seedless Boysenberry, Strawberry and Seedless Red Raspberry which is every bit as flavorful as the fresh berries and not too thick for smooth spreading. Don't forget to ask for your S and H Green Stamps!

Mothers who take pride in their individuality in clothes, shouldn't insist on their teen-age daughters dressing more individually, as they like to merge into the group, to wear the same type of clothes as their pals.

The Candy Jar can now supply your favorite creams or chocolate-coated nuts in any quantity ... and you'll find practically all of them ... fruit-flavored centers, caramels, nougats, to mention a few ... among the unusually large assortment of the delicious Rogers' bulk chocolates. Also of interest is a fresh shipment of Hooper's boxed chocolates for which there's always a steady demand at the PELICAN CANDY JAR ... 722 Main.
