Chiloquin

The Democrat Social club met on Wednesday evening, January 28, in the city hall with Chairman Jim Wilson conducting the discussion of possible party candidates for the current election year. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

On Wednesday night, February 11, the group was to have met again at the city hall, but the meeting was cancelled that day.

Mayor William Lorenz attended a luncheon of the republican central committee in Klamath Falls on January 29 at the Willard hotel. Plans for the entertainment of governor and Mrs. John H. Hall were furthered at that time and members of the local republican club were asked to assist. Mrs. Charles Warren and Mrs. A. F. Blocklinger, who were to be on the receiving line and to pour at the afternoon tea for Mrs. Hall, were out of town and unable to attend, but the following helped in the receiving line, Mrs. Walter Zimmerman; hostesses, Mrs.

Fred Markwardt, Mrs. William Lorenz, both of Chiloquin, Mrs. Ray Looney and Mrs. William Hacker of Fort Klamath. Several other local women attended the tea.

The banquet given on Thursday evening in the Willard hotel for the governor and his wife was attended by Mr. and Mrs. William Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Markwardt and Ed Prualux.

A recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Keynor of Williamson River was Mrs. Fred Kane of Cutler, Calif. Kane, who is a law enforcement officer and was continuing to Washington on business, drove his wife here on a Sunday and she remained until the following Friday. This was her first visit here with her sister, Mrs. Keynor.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren are on a trip through Nevada and Idaho and are visiting relatives in Eastern Oregon. They left two weeks ago after returning from a 10-day trip through Central California, the coast highway and a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Greer in Medford.

Margaret Lee Greer is president of her sixth grade in Medford and another Klamath girl, Patsy Nicholson of Fort Klamath, is cheer leader. Charles Coons of Prineville was a local visitor one day recently. Coons was formerly a timekeeper for Forest Lumber company and lived in Pine Ridge.

Quince Buell and Walt Albert returned a week or so ago from a three-day trip to Coos Bay, where they took a pickup load of household goods for Mr. and Mrs. John Lott, who have moved to the coastal city. Elaine Mangum is the new secretary for the junior class in high school, replacing Jean McKell who was promoted to the senior class at the end of the first semester.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. McKell returned two weeks ago from a hasty visit to Utah, where they had been called by the serious illness of McKell's father. David made the trip with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hovey of Portland were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elliott. The Hoveys left on a Sunday for San Francisco where they boarded a freighter for a trip down the west coast and through the Panama canal. They will return to Portland by an inland route, stopping in Mexico City for a brief visit.

Margaret Dumore was a Chiloquin visitor from Portland one week-end in late January. Margaret is a senior in high school.

Mrs. George Brautlecht and son, Edward, went to San Francisco in the middle of January for a brief eight-day trip with Brautlecht, who had just been released from some 10 days of observation in the Southern Pacific hospital in the bay city.

The local March of Dimes campaign, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Cyril Cook, netted $478.04 to the county fund to aid in achieving the county quota of $8000. The money came from the following sources:

Norval's-Hall's and Rickys vs. Glenzer basketball games, $110; dance on January 31 at the high school gymnasium, $139; school collections, $109.54; (grade school students donated individual monies and the upper grades donated by class vote); Gem theatre collected, $42.92; March of Dimes boxes in Chiloquin, $68; March of Dimes boxes in Klamath Agency, $12.58; March of Dimes boxes at Williamson River, $5.00.

Mrs. Ernie Swartzfager was seriously ill in the Klamath Valley hospital late last month and it is understood that she will have to remain in bed for approximately one month. Louis (Buddy) Bickers spent a short week-end in Chiloquin recently from Los Angeles. He drove his car south and plans to combine a job with his aeronautical school studies.

Friday, January 30, was the birth date of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Porter. The child weighed seven pounds and seven ounces and was named James Albert.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Hoback and Mrs. Otto Poole were obligated at the last meeting of the Fort Klamath grange.

A number of local people braved a Wednesday night storm recently to attend the Julius Huehn concert in Klamath Falls.

Correction: This column recently reported an incorrect relationship between Mrs. Earl Hayworth of Riddle, Oregon and Mrs. Phillip Collins. The two women are sisters.

The last week of conference play saw the local Panthers take an easy second place in the county with high hopes for doing even better in the tournament, which will be held next week-end in Klamath Falls. The Panthers split a two-game evening with Bonanza a week ago Friday at the local gymnasium. The A string won 49-33 but the B's lost to the visitors 33-29. Half score for the main game saw the Panthers leading by a slim margin of 24-19, which increased to 38-25 at the third period ending. Hannigan and Noble were high score men for the two teams with 15 and 13 points. In the B game Monks scored 17 points for the local five and Barney of Bonanza found the net for 12.

Chiloquin won a non-conference game from Bonanza on the following night at Bonanza but lost a non-conference game to Merrill by one point.

The final conference game was the Henley-Chiloquin tilt this past Friday night at the local gym. Advance publicity predicted a closely pitched battle with the visiting team standing a chance of upsetting the local team, but it was an easy win for the Panthers. The quarter time scores were 12-5, 21-11, 41-19, 47-27. At the end of the third quarter Gillis Hannigan had made more points (29) than the combined Henley team. The B string played a close game and emerged the victors by the narrow margin of 24-22.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glenger spent four days last week at the stock show and Hereford sale in Red Bluff, Calif.

William Morande, former local resident, moved from Portland after the first of the year to Ontario, Ore. During the last week in January he was hospitalized for several days. Word received by his daughter, Mrs. Claire Taylor, reported that he has again returned to work.
