

Nephi Coombs Is Club Lecturer

Members of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club heard Nephi Coombs speak on birds at the group's last meeting, Monday afternoon, February 9.

Hostesses were Mrs. W. E. Wiedenanger and Mrs. J. E. Eichendorf. A group of students from Fremont junior high school added to the program with a skit, "The Gay Nineties." Taking part were Margaret Gerber, Marilyn Gerber, Beverly Edls, Frances Stearns, Marilyn Wheeler, Janice Larsen, Nancy Kintgen, and Nancy Haglund.

Tea chairman was Mrs. Jack Schulze. Mrs. Dave Liskay and Mrs. Dean Osborn poured.

Members were reminded that the club's rummage sale will be held February 27 and 28, Friday and Saturday, at the Inman Motor company showroom. Mrs. Robert Houck is chairman. Assisting her are Mrs. John Van Doren and Mrs. John Bunker.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to pay the library club's share of expenses of the national women's club convention to be held in May in Portland.

The March 8 meeting will be held in the Little Theatre of Klamath Union high school at 2 o'clock. KUH drama students will present a play.
