

Plans Announced For Convention

A comprehensive bulletin has just been released to all club presidents and board members of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, giving detailed information about the Oregon committees for the annual convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs, to be held in Portland in May.

Mrs. O. D. Trexler, Portland, representing the Portland Federation of Women's Organizations, has the largest number of committees under her supervision. These include the committees for the Oregon state banquet on Monday, May 24, the sea food banquet, Friday, May 28, and the five regional dinners, the speakers and guests committee under Mrs. Fred Noll, the ticket committee headed by Mrs. Emery Trahan, and the committee on tours under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Hall. The bulletin board committee, in charge of the Portland Overlook Woman's club, with Mrs. Arthur Brooks as chairman, will keep in touch with the platform chairman, the information desk, and the general federation headquarters office about announcements to be placed on the bulletin board.

The six districts of the Oregon federation make up the credentials committee, with Mrs. William King, Pendleton, state recording secretary, as chairman. This committee will assist the general federation credentials committee on Monday, May 24, will work with the platform chairman of the general federation in decorating the platform. The auditorium doors will be manned by the Schools Woman's club, with Mrs. L. W. Guild, president, as chairman.

The hospitality committee consists of the Oregon federation board, with Mrs. A. C. MacIntyre of Pendleton as chairman.

Three juniors clubs, the Forest Grove juniors, the Schools juniors, and the Pacific Progress juniors, with Mrs. Tom Dickinson, president, serving as chairman, will man the "Wishing Wells," which will be placed at the auditorium, hotels, and the Masonic temple.

The Portland Sorosis club is in charge of the foreign and territorial committee.

Junior activities are under the direction of Mrs. Emery Ingham, Portland, junior extension chairman, who will assist the general federation junior chairman with plans for junior activities. Music is under the direction of Mrs. W. F. Gaskins, Corvallis, state music chairman, the press room will be handled by Mrs. J. B. Twiford, Hillsboro, state publicity chairman.

The platform committee, consisting of the Portland Woman's Research club, with Mrs. Carl Rasmussen as chairman, will work with the general federation secretary, planning the platform shifts for each session. The radio committee is in the hands of Mrs. J. L. Gault, Corvallis, state radio chairman. The reception for Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck, Richmond, Va., president of the general federation, at the Portland Art Museum on Monday, May 24, will be in charge of the Portland Woman's club, under the direction of Mrs. William Bunney, Tigard. The committee on ushering and seating is headed by the Hillsboro Coffee club, Mrs. John Hare, as chairman.

Anniversary

Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach will be the special speaker at a meeting commemorating the 29th anniversary of the founding of Quota International. Mrs. Wissenbach will speak to members of the Klamath County Quota club at their anniversary meeting to be held February 24, Tuesday.

Members will gather at the Pelican party room at 6:30 in the evening for dinner and the program. Mrs. Wissenbach will use for her topic, the international slogan of this anniversary year, "Women's Share in Promoting Peace."

Alice Vitus is president of the local club, and announced plans for the anniversary meeting this week.

Drama Students

The time planned for the meeting of the American Association of University Women is 2 o'clock at the Little Theatre Saturday afternoon, February 21, where members will see the play, "The Valiant," presented by advanced drama students of Klamath Union high school under direction of Mrs. B. B. Blomquist.

Mrs. Robert Erlanson, a member of the drama group of AAUW, is chairman of the refreshment committee, assisted by Mrs. Hugh Tolley and Erma Wauchope, with Mrs. Arthur Reinhart and Mrs. John Kerns serving. Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, music chairman, will present Paul Dumvil, baritone, in a group of songs before the play. Members are asked to be at the Little Theatre promptly at 2 o'clock.

Dessert

Jolly Neighbors met at the home of Mrs. James Francis at 4650 Cannon street, Wednesday, February 4. There was an exchange of Valentines, with dessert served at 1:30. Prizes in games went to Ruby Uglum and Audrey Sundberg.

Members present were Ruby Uglum, Thelma Guthrie, Dorothy Abner, Betty Padgett, Jackie Bedford, Rita Matson and the hostess, Mrs. Francis.

Guests were Florence Bryan, Catherine Parkhurst, Audrey Sundberg and Marie Fosberg.

The March meeting will be at the home of Ruth Russell, 2336 Wantland.
