

Foreman Just Can't Leave

CASCADE SUMMIT, Feb. 23—John O'Connell, foreman for the Southern Pacific at Oakridge, said to let his Klamath Falls friends have their laugh on him again seems John was once section foreman at Cascade Summit and had so many problems he decided to go elsewhere and told his Klamath Falls clique farewell forever and departed to the valley. Then came the snows and O'Connell had to round up a large snow crew to come up the hill and fight the snow at the Summit. This time he didn't have a row of newly decorated houses with no employees, he had a row of new employees and no houses as he still had his troubles at Cascade Summit. However, John took it all in his usual good humor and laughingly said to tell his Klamath friends they were right when they said he'd be back.

Four Die In Flames

MONTESSANO, Wash., Feb. 23—Trapped in their burning two-story home, a mother and father and two children died of suffocation and burns early yesterday. The blaze was caused by an overheated wood stove.

Dr. E. B. Riley, Grays Harbor county coroner, identified the victims as George S. Knight, 27, his wife, Mrs. Betty Knight, 26, and her two children by a previous marriage, James B. Manis, 5, and Michael Manis, 3.

They arrived here only two months ago from Chicago. Knight had been working in a small sawmill near Montesano.

Less than two hours later, a second fire drove seven persons from a nearby Central Park house fire. One man, E. S. Wambolt, received minor burns about the head.

Summit SP Post Changed

CASCADE SUMMIT, Feb. 23—The Southern Pacific agency at Cascade Summit has changed hands with Nolan Johnson of Tucson, Ariz., replacing John W. Fread from Bend, Ore. Originally, Johnson intended taking over at Crescent Lake as night telegrapher, but decided a daylight job was more close enough to visit his brother, Robert Johnson, who works in the generator plant at Crescent Lake. For many years he has alternated between Tucson, Cascade Summit and Crescent Lake as relief agent, coming north in the summer and

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smearing and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
