LOUISE LINMAN AND WILBER ELLIOTT

BEVERLY YOUNG AND PAT WILLIAMS

BLY—The junior class is deep in plans for its annual prom, to be given Saturday, February 28. Traditionally the queen is chosen from the junior class, with the two runners-up, her princesses. The queen will be crowned at midnight by last year's queen. The glee club will sing.

Theme of the prom will be set by the Rhythm Makers of Klamath Falls. Everyone is welcome.

Sale Planned

Plans are rapidly shaping up for the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club rummage sale to be held Friday and Saturday, February 27 and 28 at the Human Motor company showroom.

Mrs. Robert Houck is chairman of the sale, and assisting her are Mrs. John VanDoren and Mrs. John Bunker. Part of the sale's proceeds will be used for the club's share of the expenses of the National Women's club convention to be held in May in Portland.

The addition of a few hundredths of one per cent of phenolacetic acid increases the production of penicillin from a given batch of mold, according to a recent patent.

Order Of Amaranth Meets Wednesday

Members of the Order of the Amaranth held their regular February meeting at the Masonic temple on Wednesday evening, February 18. Mary Ellen Gaster presided as royal matron, assisted by Clyde Thompson, royal patron. Grand Officers Bernice Finch, associate royal matron, and Flo Ann Eaton, marshal, were escorted and introduced. Also escorted were Past Royal Matrons Blanche Schulze, Charlotte Martin and Frances Reeves and Past Royal Patron Ted Reeves. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Jaynes, past royal patron and royal matron of Rose Croix court of Portland.

Plans were laid for attending the grand court at Portland March 12 and 13. L. A. Baker was appointed to handle special bus reservations for Saturday, March 13. It is hoped a large number of local members will be at the installation ceremonies. Reservations must be made by March 8.

Seasonal decorations provided a combination of Valentine and George Washington themes and were arranged by Frances Reeves with the assistance of Edna Jones and Bert Baker. Refreshments were served by Irene Markham, Blanche Barker, Genell Lynch, Elsie Hecha, Alice Dally and Pat Henry.

TINY TOT is James Ricky Hodges, six-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hodges of Merrill. Grandmothers of little Jimmy are Mrs. Delia Hodges of Merrill and Mrs. Ruby Black of Klamath Falls.

Honor Guest

Mrs. Charlotte Martin, worthy high priestess of Naomi Shrine No. 5, White Shrine of Jerusalem, was honored guest at a birthday party given for her by the officers and members of the Shrine, Sunday evening, February 22. The party was held at the Masonic temple and was largely attended.

Decorations carried out the George Washington theme and were arranged by a committee headed by Lillian Haneline. Party games and other entertainment were provided by a committee of the men officers with Ted Reeves and Jack Schulze as co-chairmen. Luncheon was served by the refreshment committee with Blanche Marks and Blanche Schulze in charge.

A recently introduced radiant baseboard panel eliminates unsightly radiators, looks like the conventional baseboard and can be painted to harmonize with the decoration scheme of any room.
